Legal Writing Linda Holdeman Edwards, 1996 Highly acclaimed by reviewers for its dynamic approach to legal writing Linda Edwards' concise paperback links the most important stage of legal writing, complete and accurate analysis, to the large-scale organization of a document. By continually stressing the importance of sound analysis, author Linda Edwards equips your students to write persuasive and effective legal documents. Legal Writing Process: Analysis and Organization is divided into two parts: The Process of Writing Predictively (The Office Memo) and The Process of Writing Persuasively (The Brief). The 23 chapters of the book are grouped within these areas by stage, reinforcing the emphasis on method and process. Edwards reveals techniques and strategies with the help of concrete examples and explicit explanations of the analytical process, step by step instruction incorporating a building block approach, abundant skill-strengthening exercises, helpful checklists in every chapter, sample brief and office memoranda in the appendices for clear and coherent guidance on everything from drafting working headlines to overcoming writer's block and recognizing the value of storytelling. Turn to Legal Writing Process: Analysis and Organization. This impressive paperback prepares a foundation for professional success. Legal Writing

, 2004 Experiential Legal Writing: Analysis, Process, and Documents, When Dissents Matter Pamela C. Corley, Amy Steigerwalt, Artemus Ward, 2023-09-26 The ability of US Supreme Court justices to dissent from the majority to formally register and explain their belief that a case has been wrongly decided represents a time-honored tradition of perhaps the most august American institution. Yet the impact of these dissents, which allow justices to engage in a dialogue over law and policy, has seldom if ever been the focus of dedicated study. Analyzing the influence of past dissents on later Supreme Court majority opinions, this book presents the first comprehensive study of the effects of dissenting opinions and illuminates which types of dissents successfully influence legal and policy debates, which ones fail to make a difference, and why. Drawing on the private papers of the justices and original data, this book demonstrates that court majorities engage with dissents, posing a particular threat to their opinions, and that they can be persuaded by thoughtful and careful dissenting arguments. Advanced Legal Writing Michael R. Smith, 2008 With a practical focus on persuasive writing strategy, Michael R. Smith identifies and explores three processes of persuasive writing: logos, pathos, and ethos, and provides a thorough introduction to the elements of rhetorical style. Using detailed how-to guides and plenty of examples, the author's distinctive approach to persuasive writing examines technical aspects of rhetorical style: metaphor, literary allusion, figures of speech, and graphic design. Three basic processes of persuasive legal writing strategy: Logos (logic and rational argument), Pathos (value-based argument), and Ethos (establishing credibility). Interdisciplinary contributions to persuasive writing from fields such as cognitive psychology, classical rhetoric, and morality theory. Effective strategies that extend beyond the trial or appellate brief to a broad range of documents and settings. In the Second Edition, the reader will find a new organization that puts a greater emphasis on practice and relatively less on theory for each of the three processes of persuasive writing strategy a new six Part organization I Introduction II Logos Strategies III Pathos Strategies IV Ethos Strategies V Rhetorical Style VI The Ethics and Morality of Persuasion coverage of new developments in cognitive psychology Pathos persuasion And The role of metaphor in persuasive legal writing the same manageable length For a complete examination of the technique and strategy behind persuasive writing Smith s text strikes the right balance of depth and scope for upper level legal writing courses The Legal Studies Forum ,1996
