

CHRSTMAS STOCKING LEDGEND | Ever wonder what's behind the tradition of the hanging stockings? A poor father was in despair as he could not afford the dowries needed for his three daughters to marry. One night the daughters washed out their stockings and hung them over the fireplace to dry. St. Nicholas of Myra, a 4th century bishop, heard of the father's despair and decided to pay a visit. Late at night, riding his white horse St. Nicholas stopped by their house. Seeing the stockings through the window, St. Nicholas climbed on the roof and tossed three full bags of gold coins down the chimney. The bags fell into the hanging stockings. His unselfish gift made it possible for all three daughters to marry.
