methods for deconstructing LEGO as a medium of bricolage the creative reassembly of already significant elements Then it pieces together readings of numerous LEGO sets advertisements videogames films and other media that show how LEGO constructs five ideologies of play construction play dramatic play digital play transmedia play and attachment play From suburban traffic patterns to architectural croissants from feminized mini doll bodies to toys to life stories from virtual construction to playful fan creations this book explores how the LEGO medium conveys ideological messages not by transmitting clear statements but by providing implicit instructions for how to reassemble meanings it had all along New Narratives Ruth E. Page, Bronwen Thomas, 2011-12-01 Just as the explosive growth of digital media has led to ever expanding narrative possibilities and practices so these new electronic modes of storytelling have in their own turn demanded a rapid and radical rethinking of narrative theory This timely volume takes up the challenge deeply and broadly considering the relationship between digital technology and narrative theory in the face of the changing landscape of computer mediated communication New Narratives reflects the diversity of its subject by bringing together some of the foremost practitioners and theorists of digital narratives It extends the range of digital subgenres examined by narrative theorists to include forms that have become increasingly prominent new examples of experimental hypertext and contemporary video games The collection also explicitly draws connections between the development of narrative theory technological innovation and the use of narratives in particular social and cultural contexts Finally New Narratives focuses on how the tools provided by new technologies may be harnessed to provide new ways of both producing and theorizing narrative Truly interdisciplinary the book offers broad coverage of contemporary narrative theory including frameworks that draw from classical and postclassical narratology linguistics and media studies Librarian's Guide to Games and Gamers Michelle Goodridge, Matthew J. Rohweder, 2021-11-15 Helps librarians who are not themselves seasoned gamers to better understand the plethora of gaming products available and how they might appeal to library users As games grow ever more ubiquitous in our culture and communities they have become popular staples in public library collections and are increasing in prominence in academic ones Many librarians especially those who are not themselves gamers or are only acquainted with a handful of games are ill prepared to successfully advise patrons who use games This book provides the tools to help adult and youth services librarians to better understand the gaming landscape and better serve gamers in discovery of new games whether they are new to gaming or seasoned players through advisory services This book maps all types of games board roleplaying digital and virtual reality providing all the information needed to understand and appropriately recommend games to library users Organized by game type hundreds of descriptions offer not only bibliographic information title publication date series and format platform but genre classifications target age ranges for players notes on gameplay and user behavior type and short descriptions of the game s basic premise and appeals The Dolphin Way Shimi Kang, 2014-05-01 In this inspiring book Harvard trained child and adult psychiatrist and expert in human motivation Dr Shimi Kang provides a guide to the art and science of inspiring children to develop their own internal drive and a lifelong love of learning Drawing on the latest neuroscience and behavioral research Dr Kang shows why pushy tiger parents and permissive jellyfish parents actually hinder self motivation She proposes a powerful new parenting model the intelligent joyful playful highly social dolphin Dolphin parents focus on maintaining balance in their children s lives to gently yet authoritatively guide them toward lasting health happiness and success As the medical director for Child and Youth Mental Health community programs in Vancouver British Columbia Dr Kang has witnessed firsthand the consequences of parental pressure anxiety disorders high stress levels suicides and addictions As the mother of three children and as the daughter of immigrant parents who struggled to give their children the best in life Dr Kang s mother could not read and her father taught her math while they drove around in his taxicab Dr Kang argues that often the simplest benefits we give our children are the most valuable By trusting our deepest intuitions about what is best for our kids we will in turn allow them to develop key dolphin traits to enable them to thrive in an increasingly complex world adaptability community mindedness creativity and critical thinking Life is a journey through ever changing waters and dolphin parents know that the most valuable help we can give our children is to assist them in developing their own inner compass Combining irrefutable science with unforgettable real life stories The Dolphin Way walks readers through Dr Kang s four part method for cultivating self motivation The book makes a powerful case that we are not forced to choose between being permissive or controlling The third option the option that will prepare our kids for success in a future that will require adaptability is the dolphin way
