Cloning Terror W. J. T. Mitchell, 2011 The phrase War on Terror has quietly been retired from official usage but it persists in the American psyche and our understanding of it is hardly complete Exploring the role of verbal and visual images in the War on Terror the author finds a conflict whose shaky metaphoric and imaginary conception has created its own reality

In the Middle Teong Eng Tan, 2016-04-05 The French philosopher Gilles Deleuze remarked in his book Negotiations that Things and thoughts advance or grow out from the middle and that s where you have to get to work that s where everything unfolds This prompts the question How does an artist get to work in the middle of a process that is continuously becoming The thesis is an unfolding narrative of the author s attempt to experientially answer the question by way of an art practice leading to an examination of the issue of freedom freedom from attachments and freedom to create new possibilities with all for all The thesis offers a view that art practice exploring ways to break free from the bondage of the mind moments of freedom from oneself is spiritual practice is life practice

Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas, 2019-11-19 A groundbreaking reading of Duchamp's work as informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices identifying creative energy with the erotic impulse Considered by many to be the most important artist of the twentieth century the object of intensive critical scrutiny and extensive theorizing Marcel Duchamp remains an enigma He may be the most intellectual artist of all time and yet toward the end of his life he said If you wish my art would be that of living each second each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere which is neither visual or cerebral In Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas offers a groundbreaking new reading of Duchamp arguing in particular that his work may have been informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices that identify creative energy with the erotic impulse Duchamp drew on a wide range of sources for his art from science and mathematics to alchemy Largely overlooked until now have been Asian spiritual practices including Indo Tibetan tantra Baas presents evidence that Duchamp's version of artistic realization was grounded in a western interpretation of Asian mind training and body energetics designed to transform erotic energy into mental and spiritual liberation She offers close readings of many Duchamp works beginning and ending with his final work the mysterious shockingly explicit tant donn s 1 la chute d eau 2 le gaz d clairage Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas Generously illustrated with many images in color Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life speculates that Duchamp viewed art making as part of an esoteric continuum grounded in Eros It asks us to unlearn what we think we know about both art and life in order to be open to experience Design Education in the Anthropocene Paul A.

Rodgers,2024-05-01 This volume examines emerging practice and research in design education rooted in the context of significant global issues A diverse set of international contributors present novel design education research that seeks to make significant social economic cultural and environmental change Topics covered include fashion sustainability creativity social justice museum education climate change environmentalism and empathy The chapters draw a link between current research practice and theory and future challenges for the field The book will be of interest to scholars working in communication design graphic design design research and information design An Anthropology of Making in Santa Clara del Cobre Michele Avis Feder-Nadoff,2024-05-27 This book introduced with a Foreword by Tim Ingold offers a nuanced reflection on the meaning of making and artisan agency demonstrating how copper smithing produces not only objects but also lives worlds meanings and social transformation Through long term ethnography grounded in apprenticeship to master coppersmith Jes s P rez Ornelas Feder Nadoff's intimate description of communal and artisanal life in Santa Clara del Cobre Michoac n M xico provides a critical reappraisal of aesthetics and compelling ways to think about how aura and agency are produced By mapping flows and frictions between persons places and things this study closes the gap between economic and socio political analysis of craft on the one hand and aesthetic material and phenomenological studies of making on the other Although craft historically plays a prominent national even ideological role in Mexico as in many countries most artisans ironically remain absent often living in marginalized precarious circumstances By tracing the cycles of life death and afterlife of these maker protagonists their bodies of knowledge skilled performances and objects this poetic monograph testifies to their presence All About Process Kim Grant,2017-02-28 In recent years many prominent and successful artists have claimed that their primary concern is not the artwork they produce but the artistic process itself In this volume Kim Grant analyzes this idea and traces its historical roots showing how changing concepts of artistic process have played a dominant role in the development of modern and contemporary art This astute account of the ways in which process has been understood and addressed examines canonical artists such as Monet C zanne Matisse and De Kooning as well as philosophers and art theorists such as Henri Focillon R G Collingwood and John Dewey Placing process art within a larger historical context Grant looks at the changing relations of the artist s labor to traditional craftsmanship and industrial production the status of art as a commodity the increasing importance of the body and materiality in art making and the nature and significance of the artist s role in modern society In doing so she shows how process is an intrinsic part of aesthetic theory that connects to important contemporary debates about work craft and labor Comprehensive and insightful this synthetic study of process in modern and contemporary art reveals how artists explicit engagement with the concept fits into a broader narrative of the significance of art in the industrial and postindustrial world

Brain and Art Idan Segev, Luis M. Martinez,Robert J. Zatorre,2014-12-18 Could we understand in biological terms the unique and fantastic capabilities of the human brain to both create and enjoy art In the past decade neuroscience has made a huge leap in developing experimental techniques as well as theoretical frameworks for studying emergent properties following the activity of large neuronal networks These methods including MEG fMRI sophisticated data analysis approaches and behavioral methods are increasingly being used in many labs worldwide with the goal to explore brain mechanisms corresponding to the artistic experience The 37 articles composing this unique Frontiers Research Topic bring together experimental and theoretical research linking state of the art knowledge about the brain with the phenomena of Art It covers a broad scope of topics contributed by world renowned experts in vision audition somato sensation movement and cinema Importantly as we felt that a dialog among artists and scientists is essential and fruitful we invited a few artists to contribute their insights as well as their art Joan Mir said that art is the search for the alphabet of the mind This volume reflects the state of the art search to understand neurobiological alphabet of the Arts We hope that the wide range of articles in this volume will be highly attractive to brain researchers artists and the community at large

The Studio Reader Mary Jane Jacob,Michelle Grabner,2010-06-15 The image of a tortured genius working in near isolation has long dominated our conceptions of the artist s studio Examples abound think Jackson Pollock dripping resin on a cicada carcass in his shed in the Hamptons But times have changed ever since Andy Warhol declared his art space a factory artists have begun to envision themselves as the leaders of production teams and their sense of what it means to be in the studio has altered just as dramatically as their practices The Studio Reader pulls back the curtain from the art world to reveal the real activities behind artistic production What does it mean to be in the studio What is the space of the studio in the artist s practice How do studios help artists envision their agency and beyond that their own lives This forward thinking anthology features an all star array of contributors ranging from Svetlana Alpers Bruce Nauman and Robert Storr to Daniel Buren Carolee Schneemann and Buzz Spector each of whom locates the studio both spatially and conceptually at the center of an art world that careens across institutions markets and disciplines A companion for anyone engaged with the spectacular sites of art at its making The Studio Reader reconsiders this crucial space as an actual way of being that illuminates our understanding of both artists and the world they inhabit

The Everyday Practice of Public Art Cameron Cartiere, Martin Zebracki, 2015-11-19 The Everyday Practice of Public Art Art Space and Social Inclusion is a multidisciplinary anthology of analyses exploring the expansion of contemporary public art issues beyond the built environment It follows the highly successful publication The Practice of Public Art eds Cartiere and Willis and expands the analysis of the field with a broad perspective which includes practicing artists curators activists writers and educators from North America Europe and Australia who offer divergent perspectives on the many facets of the public art process The collection examines the continual evolution of public art moving beyond monuments and memorials to examine more fully the development of socially engaged public art practice Topics include constructing new models for developing and commissioning temporary and performance based public artworks understanding the challenges of a socially engaged public art practice vs social programming and policymaking the social inclusiveness of public art the radical developments in public art and social practice pedagogy and unravelling the relationships between public artists and the communities they serve The Everyday Practice of Public Art offers a diverse perspective on the increasingly complex nature of artistic practice in the public realm in the twenty first century

Dewey for Artists Mary Jane Jacob, 2018-12-10 John Dewey is known as a pragmatic philosopher and progressive architect of American educational reform but some of his most important contributions came in his thinking about art Dewey argued that there is strong social value to be found in art and it is artists who often most challenge our preconceived notions Dewey for Artists shows us how Dewey advocated for an art of democracy Identifying the audience as co creator of a work of art by virtue of their experience he made space for public participation Moreover he believed that societies only become and remain truly democratic if its citizens embrace democracy itself as a creative act and in this he advocated for the social participation of artists Throughout the book Mary Jane Jacob draws on the experiences of contemporary artists who have modeled Dewey s principles within their practices We see how their work springs from deeply held values We see too how carefully considered curatorial practice can address the manifold ways in which aesthetic experience happens and thus enable viewers to find greater meaning and purpose And it is this potential of art for self and social realization Jacob helps us understand that further ensures Dewey s legacy and the culture we live in Chicago Makes Modern Mary Jane Jacob, Jacquelynn Baas, 2012-12-15 Chicago is a city dedicated to the modern from the skyscrapers that punctuate its skyline to the spirited style that inflects many of its dwellings and institutions from the New Bauhaus to Hull House Despite this the city has long been overlooked as a locus for modernism in the arts its rich tradition of architecture design and education disregarded Still the modern in Chicago continues to thrive as new generations of artists incorporate its legacy into fresh visions for the future Chicago Makes Modern boldly remaps twentieth century modernism from our new century perspective by asking an imperative question How did the modern mind deeply reflective yet simultaneously directed help to dramatically alter our perspectives on the world and make it new Returning the city to its rightful position at the heart of a multidimensional movement that changed the face of the twentieth century Chicago Makes Modern applies the missions of a brilliant group of innovators to our own time From the radical social and artistic perspectives implemented by Jane Addams John Dewey and Buckminster Fuller to the avant garde designs of L szl Moholy Nagy and Mies van der Rohe the prodigious offerings of Chicago s modern minds left an indelible legacy for future generations Staging the city as a laboratory for some of our most heralded cultural experiments Chicago Makes Modern reimagines the modern as a space of self realization and social progress where individual visions triggered profound change Featuring contributions from an acclaimed roster of contemporary artists critics and scholars this book demonstrates how and why the Windy City continues to drive the modern world

Using the Visual and Performing Arts to Encourage Pro-Environmental Behaviour David Curtis, 2020-10-06

Ecoarts practice is evolving quickly as a practice While much of it is made by individual artists working alone artists are increasingly combining into multi artist collectives and collaborating with scientists sustainability professionals industry or the community to develop artworks with quite far reaching effects This book describes an extraordinary range of artistic practices pitched to encourage people to adopt pro environmental behaviours by provoking persuading providing information creating empathy for nature or by being built into sustainability practices themselves It brings together 28 contributors who examine different roles of the arts in encouraging pro environmental behaviour There is a wide range of practitioners represented here including visual and performing artists sustainability professionals social researchers environmental educators research students and academics The contributors to this book are united in believing that the arts are vital in promoting pro environmental behavior in the way that they are practiced but also in the connections they make to ecology science and Indigenous culture
