respected research in the field enhance each chapter's presentation Preparing teachers to deliver hybrid education Freire, Silvana, Inter-American Development Bank, Näslund-Hadley, Emma, Pogr , Paula, UNESCO Office Santiago and Regional Bureau for Education in Latin America and the Caribbean, Villegas-Reimers, Eleonora, 2023-12-31 Inclusivity and Indigeneity in Education for Sustainable Development Behera, Santosh Kumar, Ibrahim, Atyaf Hasan, Romdhani, Faten, 2024-06-03 A major issue globally revolves around the urgent need to reshape our education system aligning it with the ambitious Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) set to transform the world by 2030. These goals, comprising 17 distinct objectives and 169 targets, form an ambitious agenda that seeks to recalibrate the global landscape across social, economic, and environmental dimensions. Inclusivity and Indigeneity in Education for Sustainable Development stands as a catalyst for fostering dialogue on the interconnected realms of education, indigeneity, and sustainable development. It explores the relationships between these pillars and offers a comprehensive understanding of their transformative potential. The book emphasizes the essence of inclusivity, echoing the 'No one left behind' SDG agenda, which goes beyond mere academic discourse to foster fairness and justice. Additionally, it delves into the invaluable resource of indigenous knowledge transmitted orally across generations and its profound connection to sustainable development. By advocating for a shift in education, the book calls for an approach that ensures no one is left behind in the teaching and learning process. This paradigm shift is envisioned as a broad civilizational project connecting with marginalized communities and tapping into their distinct cultural resources for crafting resilient and sustainable strategies. Mitigating Learner Disadvantages in Teaching and Learning Hai-Jew, Shalin, 2025-03-07 Education serves as a powerful tool for advancing individuals and society, but learners enter formal education with vastly different opportunities, backgrounds, and challenges. Addressing these disparities requires a commitment to equitable access, personalized support, and inclusive learning environments that recognize diverse needs. By fostering a growth mindset and providing the right incentives, education can empower all learners to reach their full potential without reinforcing systemic inequities. Achieving social justice in education means creating pathways for every student to succeed regardless of their starting point through policies and practices that acknowledge and address these differences. A holistic approach to education ensures that the needs of the whole learner are met, making learning more meaningful, accessible, and transformative for all. Mitigating Learner Disadvantages in Teaching and Learning explores how to ensure that all learners have full access to learning and to the potential of their best selves. Furthermore, it discusses how social justice in education can be achieved. Covering topics such as incarcerated students, mentorship programs, and first-generation learners, this book is an excellent resource for teachers, school administrators, policymakers, social justice advocates, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more. Technological innovation (4IR) in law teaching and learning: Enhancement or drawback during Covid-19 Charles Maimela, 2022-12-30 Technological innovation (4IR) in law teaching and learning. Enhancement or drawback during Covid-19. The book emerged from a lecture series at the Faculty of Law at UP hosted in the 2021 academic year Aiming to test the state of teaching and learning during the pandemic the lecture series asked whether ERT and learning ERTL compromised or enhanced the teaching and learning of law Among others various academics from UP Law as well as from the universities of KwaZulu Natal Johannesburg and Free State as well as officials from the DHET participated in the series This collection comprises chapters written by some of the representatives who were involved in the lecture series This book aims to set the tone for teaching and learning of law after the pandemic It is our hope that the lessons learnt during the pandemic will be adopted in the day to day teaching pedagogy of law in the future Despite the disruptions caused by the pandemic a possibly unseen benefit can be identified As this book argues law teaching and learning using technological innovations have been positive for both academics and students Thanks to technological innovation the discipline of law is arguably in a far better position after the pandemic than before
