Lectures On The Church Of God:

Lectures on the Church of God William Kelly, 2007 William Kelly 1821 1906 was an outstanding classical scholar in his generation preacher teacher editor of several influential religious magazines and of John Nelson Darby's Collected Writings and a prolific author in his own right He was a major figure in the late nineteenth century return to basic biblical teaching usually known as the Brethren movement often seen as the cradle of dispensationalism A Canadian contemporary described him as second only to Mr Darby in knowledge of the Truth and first in ability to state the Truth clearly A frequent lecturer he subsequently revised and published many of his lectures in book form His familiarity with the original languages of the Bible led to well researched expositions of both Old and New Testament books which were widely read and highly regarded by Christians in his own time and still today With a genius for exposition he combines scholarship and spirituality so that his readers gain a real sense of his unrestrained love for the Lord of whom the inspired pages of scripture speak This book considers six aspects of the Church of God formed as the body of Christ accepting the direction of the Holy Spirit responsible to Jesus as Lord engaged in worship remembrance and prayer using gifts and receiving practical resources daily in faith Accepting the absolute authority of the Word of God he opens up what the Bible has to say on each of these topics Getting to the heart of the matter in a logical way he challenges every Christian to consider the practical implications for their communion and conduct as members of the Church of God [Lectures on the Church of God. expressly charged on the eleven after the Lord's resurrection is not only a single initiatory observance one baptism but it is for each individual the confession of the foundation truth of Christ's death and resurrection. The subject of it stands forth as a believer in Him who died and rose; he is no longer therefore a Jew or a heathen but a confessor of Christ. The Lord's Supper on the other hand belongs to the assembly and forms an affecting and important object in the worship of the saints of God. It is primarily and strictly the standing sign of our only foundation; it is the witness of His love unto death and His work by virtue of which such as we can worship. No wonder therefore we have the apostle Paul showing the very solemn and blessed place which the Lord's Supper claims in the revelations of the Lord to him: "I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread and when he had given thanks he brake it and said Take eat this is my body which is broken for you this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped saying This cup is the new testament in my blood this do ye as oft as ye drink it in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye do show the Lord's death till he come. It is evident on the face of the statement what a large and deep place the Lord's death has in His Supper. No joy no brightness of the favour of God in heaven no consequent communion nor hopes of everlasting blessedness with Him can be allowed for a moment to distract from or overshadow the death of the Lord.
