Death and the Life After Billy Graham, 1994-10 Explores issues of death and afterlife including euthanasia suicide living wills Provides help with comforting those who are facing death planning a funeral and more Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population Surviving the Unthinkable Don J. Payne, 2015-10-20 Losing a dearly loved family member or friend suddenly unexpectedly and tragically jars us at our very core We shudder at the thought of it When that loss results from a suicide it defies and assaults everything in us The unthinkable is often considered not survivable In Surviving the Unthinkable theology professor Don J Payne exits the classroom and invites you into the chambers of his personal experience of that indescribable loss This intensely personal narrative traces his process through shock grief anger fear and a host of unexpected sensations to redemption and hope Yet he offers no psychological analysis or formula to make it all OK Here you will find hope gritty realistic hope that will deepen the resources of anyone who walks the unthinkable path of losing someone they love to suicide Life on the other side of such a nightmare will never be the same but there is life and it can be good Don Payne gives voice to the experience in a way that extends a healing hand to any who wonder if they can survive Psyche and Symbol in the Theater of Federico Garcia Lorca Rupert C. Allen, 2014-02-19 Symbol and psyche are twin concepts in contemporary symbolological studies where the symbol is considered to be a statement by the psyche The psyche is a manifold of conscious and unconscious contents and the symbol is their mediator Because Lorca's dramatic characters are psychic entities made up of both conscious and unconscious elements they unfold grow and meet their fate in a dense realm of shifting symbols In Psyche and Symbol in the Theater of Federico Garcia Lorca Rupert Allen analyzes symbolologically three dramatic works of Lorca He has found Perlimpln to be a good deal more complex in both psyche and symbol than it has been admitted to be Yerma involves psychological complications that have not been considered in the light of modern critical analysis and the symbolic reaches of Blood Wedding have until this book remained largely unexplored

Lorca was no stranger to the agony of creation and this struggle sometimes appears symbolically in the form of his dramatic characters Both Yerma and Blood Wedding reflect specific problems underlying the creative act for they are translations into the realm of sexuality of the creative turmoil experienced by Lorca the poet Perlman portrays the paradoxical suicide as a self murder born out of the futile attempt to create not a poem but a self Previous criticism of these three plays has been dominated by critical assumptions that are transcended by Lorca's own twentieth century mentality Allen's analysis provides a new view of Lorca as a dramatist and presents new material to students of symbolism Autobiographical Writing Across the Disciplines Diane P. Freedman, Olivia Frey, 2004-01-23 An anthology of the personal autobiographical essays of scholars who have made the life story an important part of their disciplinary research The Social Work and K-12 Schools Casebook Miriam Jaffe, Jerry Floersch, Jeffrey Longhofer, Wendy Winograd, 2017-06-26 This volume offers a collection of nine case studies from clinical social workers in K 12 schools each from a phenomenological perspective with the objective of educating Master of Social Work students and early career social work clinicians Each chapter is framed with pre reading prompts reading comprehension questions and writing assignments This casebook provides a resource for understanding the range of practice in school social work as well as some of the challenges that school social workers face in today's complex world Using a phenomenological perspective the contributors stay close to the lived experience of students teachers parents and social workers revealing a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the genesis and treatment of students problems in school Back to the World Eugene Smith, 2021-05-04 Eugene Smith lost his mother wife and infant son in the mass murder suicide at Jonestown Guyana on November 18 1978 Repatriated by the US authorities on New Year's Eve he broke a 50 bill stashed in his shoe to buy breakfast for himself and a fellow survivor Returning to California at age twenty one Smith faced the daunting challenge of building from scratch a meaningful and self sufficient life in the American society he thought he had left behind My first responsibility as a survivor he writes was not to embarrass my mother or my wife or my child and to set an example that can't be questioned Back to the World A Life after Jonestown is the story of a double survival first of the destruction of the idealistic but tragically flawed Peoples Temple community then of its aftermath Having survived Smith has hard questions for today's America It's irritating to me that four decades later like a broken record we're going through all this all over again he writes The Mourning Handbook Helen Fitzgerald, 2013-10-01 Helen Fitzgerald author of The Grieving Child has compiled a guide to help readers practically and emotionally grieve the death of loved ones No one should be left to grieve alone Even with the help of friends and family grieving the death of a loved one can be a complex sometimes overwhelming process The Mourning Handbook is written as a companion to those mourners in need of practical and emotional assistance during the trying times before and after the death of a loved one Having counseled thousands of people who have experienced loss Helen Fitzgerald gives special attention to the complex emotions that can accompany especially traumatic situations such as when a loved one has been murdered when there have been multiple deaths when a body has not been recovered or when the mourner has been the inadvertent cause of death Designed to conform to the special needs of the bereaved The Mourning Handbook is written and organized in an accessible style punctuated by real stories of people who have experienced every kind of loss With many subchapters and cross references it can be consulted for a specific problem or read at length

True Relations G. Thomas Couser, Joseph Fichtelberg, 1998-01-21 The essays in this collection explore new directions in autobiography studies Examining a wide range of texts from narratives of suicide survivors cross dressers and people with HIV AIDS to self representations in the visual arts the collection demonstrates how writers have used the postmodern experience fragmentation to forge new kinds of identities Postmodern selves the essayists argue are relational selves constructed from the acute need to find identity through collaboration with others Postmodern autobiography emerges as a search amid shocks to the stable self for wider patterns of significance Of interest to researchers and scholars in autobiography world literature and psychology

Coping with Grief: Surviving the Unexpected Loss of a Child Rick Larned, 2019-04-10 As parents nearly all mothers and fathers form a bond with their offspring at the moment of birth As we parents know children do not come with instructions however The business of raising them to become productive members of society is a roller coaster of ups and downs This series of trials and errors helps to define and solidify the parental bond When that bond is severed by loss the ensuing chaos sends a grieving parent into a tailspin When that loss is unexpected and there is no time to prepare the grief can be particularly debilitating Parents are not supposed to outlive their children Just as children do not come with instructions for their raising there are no instructions for how to deal with the grief which consumes us when we lose one How can one survive the crippling effects of this tragedy The enormity of that tragedy is compounded when more than one child is unexpectedly lost As you read my story of the loss of two of my three children I hope this survivor's perspective will help to shed light on a very complex and personally unique emotion and serve as an inspiration for others experiencing the same grief With belief in God the love of family support of friends compassion from strangers and the passage of time it truly is possible to overcome the debilitating effects of grief
