African Law(s) Salvatore Mancuso, 2023-09-29 This book takes a comparative law perspective and proposes a new approach for researching law in Africa Western theoretical perspectives in comparative law are too Eurocentric to fully catch the peculiarities and characteristics of the African lawscape in short they are inadequate for studying African law In this book Professor Salvatore Mancuso considers the law in Africa from a different perspective Deeply rooted in the culture of the African people this approach considers African legal culture with the same legitimacy as Western legal culture setting a precedent for future policy making decisions relating to legislative development in Africa

Doing Business 2010 World Bank, 2009-09-11 The seventh in a series of annual reports investigating the regulations that enhance business activity and those that constrain it Doing Business presents quantitative indicators on business regulations and the protection of property rights that can be compared across 183 economies from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe and over time Regulations affecting 10 stages of a business's life are measured starting a business dealing with construction permits employing workers registering property getting credit protecting investors paying taxes trading across borders enforcing contracts and closing a business Data in Doing Business 2010 are current as of June 1 2009 The indicators are used to analyze economic outcomes and identify what reforms have worked where and why

Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Victor Warikandwa, Artwell Nhemachena, 2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions dynamic growth of African economies and the expansion of cross border trade and commerce the need for readily accessible African arbitral institutions has become increasingly urgent Accordingly this book not only offers an in depth analysis of the role arbitration centres based in African cities currently play throughout the continent but also defines and recommends ways in which they can emerge as a major and indispensable factor in the growth and development of commerce in Africa Administrators of arbitration institutions from a variety of African countries offer insightful appraisals and suggestions directed to promoting the development and delivery of efficient effective arbitration services to users across the continent Among the issues and topics covered are the following types of arbitration institutions available in Africa viability and sustainability of these institutions institutions relationship with government quality of service performance of arbitration institutions in their respective countries and regions national laws that regulate arbitration in Africa s fifty four states extent of collaboration with foreign institutions provision of functional facilities transcription services hearing rooms document handling and managerial and translation services marketing activities and strategies mending the disconnect between Francophone and Anglophone countries role of the Common Court of Justice and Arbitration CCJA and necessity of overcoming foreign negative perceptions and bias The book was inspired by an arbitration conference hosted by the African Union Commission at its headquarters in Addis Ababa in July 2015 As a contribution to the discussion of the role arbitration and arbitration institutions can play in transforming the legal landscape in African countries for the resolution of commercial disputes indeed the entire discourse on legal efficiency and access to justice in African countries this book will prove invaluable to practitioners and academics in international commercial arbitration within and beyond the continent Its emphasis on the creation of a facilitative supportive and conducive cultural and infrastructural environment as a mechanism for commercial dispute resolution in Africa and for the practice of arbitration in Africa will appeal to in house counsel external legal advisors consultants arbitral institutions arbitrators and government policymakers

Private Military and Security Companies Erika Calazans, 2016-05-11 This book s primary concern is the application of International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights Law in addressing the business conduct of Private Military and Security Companies PMSCs during armed conflicts as well as state responsibility for human rights violations and current attempts at international regulation The book discusses four interconnected themes First it differentiates private contractors from mercenaries presenting an historical overview of private violence Second it situates PMSCs employees under the legal status of civilian or combatant in accordance with the Third and Fourth Geneva Conventions of 1949 It then investigates the existing law on state responsibility and what sort of responsibility companies and their employees can face Finally the book explores current developments on regulation within the industry on national regional and international levels These themes are connected by the argument that in order to find gaps in the existing laws it is necessary to establish what they are what law is applicable and what further developments are needed Doing Business 2011 World Bank,2010-11-03 Eighth in a series of annual reports comparing business regulations in 183 economies Doing Business 2011 measures regulations affecting 10 areas of everyday business activity starting a business dealing with construction permits employing workers registering property getting credit protecting investors paying taxes trading across borders enforcing contracts and closing a business The report updates all 10 sets of indicators ranks countries on their overall ease of doing business and analyzes reforms to business regulation identifying which countries are improving strengthening their business environment the most and which ones slipped Doing Business 2011 includes results on the ongoing research in the area of getting electricity and illustrates how reforms in business regulations can translate into better outcomes for domestic entrepreneurs and the wider economy It also focuses on how women in particular are affected by complex business regulations
