

The background of the cover features three stylized, vertically oriented maps of the African continent. These maps are rendered in a light tan or yellowish-brown color, contrasting with the darker brown background. They are arranged side-by-side, with the central map being slightly more prominent. The maps show the outlines of the continents and some internal geographical features like rivers and coastlines. The entire cover is framed by a thin, dark brown border.

Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa Marek Dubovec,Louise Gullifer,2019-10-31 Over the last few decades many countries have reformed their secured transactions law One of the main reasons has been the clear link between reform and the availability of credit and the drive to improve access to finance particularly for micro small and medium sized enterprises This book focuses particularly on developing economies in Africa which have legal frameworks influenced by English French Belgian Roman Dutch and other laws Reform in this area of law across African countries has taken a number of forms which are explored and discussed in this book Secured Transactions Law Reform in Africa is a mixture of a critical description of the pre reform law and practice and the reform process itself It also includes a comparative analysis of the legal provisions and an examination of the early results of the reforms The book sets out a road map for the future of secured transactions reform primarily in Africa but also in other countries that have undertaken or are contemplating similar reforms This book is the second in a series of books about Secured Transactions Law in countries around the world and its reform both on a national and an international scale The first book Secured Transactions Law Reform Principles Policies and Practice was published in 2016

Mapping Agency Dr Martin Rempe,Dr Ulrike Lorenz-Carl,2013-08-28 Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon the European Union EU is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa It adopts an actor centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions its open multi actor approach to both formal and informal processes and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub Saharan Africa The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor amongst many and where local national regional and global state and non state actors shape and sometimes break processes of regionalisms in Sub Saharan Africa

The Emergent African Union Law Olufemi Amao, Michèle Olivier, Konstantinos D. Magliveras, 2021-10-07 This book is a groundbreaking study of the emergence of a unique African Union legal system with contributions from a diverse collection of scholars and practitioners It highlights how law stands at the heart of the successful regional integration effort in Africa and explores among other issues the extent to which African Union law is having an impact on domestic laws This trend has been particularly noticeable in the area of human rights the rule of law democratic principles and aspects of constitutional law Furthermore the book examines how the African Union is engendering new norms from its legal order such as the non indifference norm the norm on unconstitutional change of government free trade free movement of people economic regulation and democratic constitutionalism The book also analyses how the African Union legal order has led to the emergence of a continental level judicial system The quasi judicial system put in place under the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights and administered by the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights is now complemented by the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights This book contends that the continental level judicial system is playing a crucial role in the moulding of emergent norms Private Military and Security Companies Erika Calazans, 2016-05-11 This book's primary concern is the application of International Humanitarian Law and International Human Rights Law in addressing the business conduct of Private Military and Security Companies PMSCs during armed conflicts as well as state responsibility for human rights violations and current attempts at international regulation The book discusses four interconnected themes First it differentiates private contractors from mercenaries presenting an historical overview of private violence Second it situates PMSCs employees under the legal status of civilian or combatant in accordance with the Third and Fourth Geneva Conventions of 1949 It then investigates the existing law on state responsibility and what sort of responsibility companies and their employees can face Finally the book explores current developments on regulation within the industry on national regional and international levels These themes are connected by the argument that in order to find gaps in the existing laws it is necessary to establish what they are what law is applicable and what further developments are needed Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022 This book offers the first full length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them It offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change
