A Critical Assessment with Focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe Talkmore Chidede, 2016-09 This study undertakes a critical assessment of the legal protection of foreign direct investments FDI in South Africa and Zimbabwe by determining their compliance with the international minimum standards norms and or best practices on the legal protection of FDI by host states Firstly the study argues that foreign investment is much needed in South Africa and Zimbabwe to improve economic growth and development to create jobs and to increase their competitiveness However these benefits are not accrued automatically but rather host states need to create an enabling environment to receive such benefits Thus host states need to put an investment scheme into operation to guarantee the legal protection of foreign investments South Africa and Zimbabwe have at large crafted and implemented investment laws and related policies which tend to be hostile towards foreign investments Therefore similar investment laws and related policies in both jurisdictions are analysed This study will also offer recommendations for a legal investment which is not only flexible friendly and favourable to foreign investment in South Africa and Zimbabwe but also advances their local economic policies

The Legal Framework of EU-China Investment Relations Wenhua Shan, 2005-10-21 EU investment in China has increased dramatically since the early 1990s and is poised to increase further in light of China's recent accession to the World Trade Organisation This book explores and critically appraises the existing legal framework governing EU China investment relations particularly EU investment in China The current legal framework is composed of Chinese law EU law and applicable international law but the Chinese law is unsystematic and hard to discover and the EU has acquired only shared external investment competence which is vaguely defined The applicable international treaties are incomplete incoherent or either too general or too specialised Besides this the international fora to settle investment disputes are still not readily available Furthermore while law has played a very important role in decision making by EU investors the Chinese legal system is generally perceived as ineffective and lacking in effective enforcement of court and arbitration decisions What the book demonstrates is that the time is ripe for a new international legal framework for foreign investment in China and that as EU China economic and political relations continue to improve construction of such a framework is not only necessary but also possible
