The Arts and the Legal Academy Zenon Bankowski, Maksymilian Del Mar, Paul Maharg, 2016-04-01 In Western culture law is dominated by textual representation Lawyers academics and law students live and work in a textual world where the written word is law and law is interpreted largely within written and printed discourse Is it possible however to understand and learn law differently Could modes of knowing feeling memory and expectation commonly present in the Arts enable a deeper understanding of law s discourse and practice If so how might that work for students lawyers and academics in the classroom and in continuing professional development Bringing together scholars legal practitioners internationally from the fields of legal education legal theory theatre architecture visual and movement arts this book is evidence of how the Arts can powerfully revitalize the theory and practice of legal education Through discussion of theory and practice in the humanities and Arts linked to practical examples of radical interventions the chapters reveal how the Arts can transform educational practice and our view of its place in legal practice Available in enhanced electronic format the book complements The Moral Imagination and the Legal Life also published by Ashgate

Avoiding Extinction: Reimagining Legal Services for the 21st Century Mitchell Kowalski, 2016-04-21 Mitch Kowalski has translated his considerable understanding of tomorrow s legal profession into an original provocative and entertaining narrative Professor Richard Susskind author of The End of Lawyers This is the most innovative law practice management book I ve ever seen Mitch has deftly combined an engaging novel about the lives of working lawyers with an illuminating treatise on how law firms must respond to extraordinary change in the legal marketplace Avoiding Extinction is as entertaining as it is instructive and it couldn t be more timely Jordan Furlong Partner Edge International This is a must read for managing partners and for all lawyers under the age of 50 Written as a parable once you pick it up it s difficult to put down And it literally screams relevance to the lives of those lawyers today who worry about the sustainability of the current model of legal practice Big firm or small City or rural no matter this book is for you Can the law be both a profession and a business Is it possible to escape the tyranny of the billable hour Is it realistic to imagine being a truly happy lawyer in private practice in the twenty first century You bet and Mitch Kowalski shows us how Ian Holloway QC Dean of Law The University of Calgary Avoiding Extinction is the most original far thinking and innovative book on transforming the way that law is practised that I have ever read Mitch has taken the traditional law firm and turned it upside down In the process he has reworked the law firm model and given us an insight into how a firm could be structured and run If you are looking for a creative vision into what a new truly different law firm could look like then this book is manna from heaven David J Bilinsky Practice Management Advisor lawyer and writer on law practice management and technology Creator of the law blog Thoughtful Legal Management Legal Management ,1992
