

THE LEGEND OF THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Martin Luther's Legend

One snowy December night, a man named Martin Luther was walking through the forest as he headed for home. During his walk, he noticed how beautiful the stars looked as they shone through the branches of the snow covered trees. He loved the way it looked so much that He wanted to show his children. He decided to cut down an evergreen tree and bring it inside his house. Once the tree was inside, Martin Luther had his children decorate it with candles. The candles on the tree made it look like the stars shining through the tree he saw on his walk. Ever since that day, people have decorated trees for the holidays.
