May 68 Rethinking Frances Last Revolution:

5/1/1968 J. Jackson, A. Milne, J. Williams, 2011-08-26 The events of 1968 are often seen purely as a student revolution but impacted on every aspect of French society theatre film sexuality race the countryside the factories This volume explores the full diversity of this extraordinary upheaval and shows how 1968 continues to reverberate in France today France in Flux Ari J. Blatt, Edward Welch, 2019 The changing look and feel of metropolitan France has been a notable preoccupation of French culture since the 1980s This collection of essays explores concern with space across a range of media from recent cinema documentary filmmaking and photographic projects to television drama and contemporary fiction and examines what it reveals about the fluctuating state of the nation in a post colonial and post industrial age Student Revolt in 1968 Ben Mercer, 2020 This comparative analysis of student protests in France Italy and West Germany in 1968 explores their origins course and dissolution Swansea University Sam Blaxland, 2020-06-01 Swansea University Campus and Community in a Post War World 1945 2020 marks Swansea University's centenary It is a study of post Second World War academic and social change in Britain and its universities as well as an exploration of shifts in youth culture and the way in which higher education institutions have interacted with people and organisations in their regions It covers a range of important themes and topics including architectural developments international scholars the changing behaviours of students protest and politics and the multi layered relationships that are formed between academics young people and the wider communities of which they are a part Unlike most institutional histories it takes a bottom up approach and focuses on the thoughts feelings and behaviours of people like students and non academic staff who are normally sidelined in such accounts As it does so it utilises a large collection of oral history testimonies collected specifically for this book and throughout it explores how formative paradoxical and unexpected university life can be The Visual Memory of Protest Ann Rigney, Thomas Smits, 2025-10-01 Social movements are not only remembered in personal experience but also through cultural carriers that shape how later movements see themselves and are seen by others The present collection zooms in on the role of photography in this memory activism nexus How do iconographic conventions shape images of protest Why do some images keep movements in the public eye while others are quickly forgotten What role do images play in linking different protests movements and generations of activists Have the affordances of digital media made it easier for activists to use images in their memory politics or has the digital production and massive online exchange of images made it harder to identify and remember a movement via a single powerful image Bringing together experts in visual culture cultural memory social movements and digital humanities this collection presents new empirical theoretical and methodological insights into the visual memory of protest Transnational solidarity Zeina Maasri, Cathy Bergin, Francesca Burke, 2022-07-26 Transnational solidarity excavates the forgotten histories of solidarity that were vital to radical political imaginaries during the long 1960s It decentres the conventional Western focus of this critical historical moment by foregrounding transnational solidarity with and across anticolonial and anti imperialist liberation struggles The book traces the ways in which solidarity was conceived imagined and enacted in the border crossings of nation race and class made by grassroots activists This diverse collection draws links between exiled revolutionaries in Uruguay post colonial immigrants in Britain and Greek communist refugees in East Germany who campaigned for their respective causes from afar while identifying and linking up with wider liberation struggles Meanwhile Arab immigrants in France Pakistani volunteers and Iraqi artists found myriad ways to express solidarity with the Palestinian cause Neglected archives also reveal Tricontinental Cuban based genealogies of artistic militancy as well as transnational activist networks against Portuguese colonial rule in Africa Bringing together original research with contributions from veteran activists and artists this interdisciplinary volume explores how transnational solidarity was expressed in and carried through the itineraries of migrants and revolutionaries film and print cultures art and sport political campaigns and armed struggle It presents a novel perspective on radical politics of the global sixties which remains crucial to understanding anti racist solidarity today With a foreword by Vijay Prashad

How the French Think Sudhir Hazareesingh, 2015-09-22 An award winning historian presents an absorbing account of the French mind shedding light on France's famous tradition of intellectual life Why are the French such an exceptional nation Why do they think they are so exceptional The French take pride in the fact that their history and culture have decisively shaped the values and ideals of the modern world French ideas are no less distinct in their form while French thought is abstract stylish and often opaque it has always been bold and creative and driven by the relentless pursuit of innovation In How the French Think the internationally renowned historian Sudhir Hazareesingh tells the epic and tumultuous story of French intellectual thought from Descartes Rousseau and Auguste Comte to Sartre Claude L Strauss and Derrida He shows how French thinking has shaped fundamental Western ideas about freedom rationality and justice and how the French mind set is intimately connected to their own way of life in particular to the French tendency towards individualism their passion for nature their celebration of their historical heritage and their fascination with death Hazareesingh explores the French veneration of dissent and skepticism from Voltaire to the Dreyfus Affair and beyond the obsession with the protection of French language and culture the rhetorical flair embodied by the philosophes which today's intellectuals still try to recapture the astonishing influence of French postmodern thinkers including Foucault and Barthes on postwar American education and life and also the growing French anxiety about a globalized world order under American hegemony How the French Think sweeps aside generalizations and easy stereotypes to offer an incisive and revealing exploration of the French intellectual tradition Steeped in a colorful range of sources and written with warmth and humor this book will appeal to all lovers of France and of European culture

Celluloid Revolt Christina Gerhardt, Marco Abel, 2019 Provides new insights into German language cinema around 1968 and its relationship to the period's epoch making cultural and political happenings The epoch making revolutionary period universally known in Germany as 68 can be argued to have predated that year and to have extended well into the 1970s It continues to affect German and Austrian society and culture to this day Yet while scholars have written extensively about 1968 and the cinema of other countries relatively little sustained scholarly attention has thus far been paid to 1968 and West German East German and Austrian cinemas Now five decades later Celluloid Revolt sets out to redress that situation generating new insights into what constituted German language cinema around 1968 and beyond Contributors engage a range of cinemas spanning experimental and avant garde cinema installations and exhibits short films animated films and crime films collectively produced cinemas feminist films and Arbeiterfilme workers films as well as their relationship to cinemas of other countries such as French cinema and US direct cinema Contributors Marco Abel Tilman Baumg rtel Madeleine Bernstorff Timothy Scott Brown Michael Dobstadt Sean Eedy Thomas Elsaesser Ian Fleishman Christina Gerhardt Lisa Haegle Randall Halle Priscilla Layne Ervin Malakaj Kalani Michell Evelyn Preuss Patricia Anne Simpson Fabian Tietke Andrew Stefan Weiner Christina Gerhardt is Associate Professor of German and Film Studies at the University of Hawai i at Manoa Marco Abel is Professor of English and Film Studies at the University of Nebraska Lincoln

The Discovery of the Third World Christoph Kalter, 2016-09-12 An innovative account of how the concept of the Third World emerged in France from the mid 1950s through to the mid 1970s alongside a new leftist movement The book reveals how in an age of Cold War decolonization and development thinking French activists rose to prominence within the political Left established transnational contacts and developed a new global consciousness Using the Third World concept to reinvigorate anticolonial solidarity they supported the Algerian FLN the Cuban Revolution and the liberation movements in Vietnam and Portuguese Africa Insisting on the postcolonial character of France after the end of empire they promoted new forms of cooperation with developing countries and immigrant workers Examining the work of French leftists in publications such as Partisans parties such as the PSU and associations like the CEDETIM Kalter sheds new light on a crucial moment in France's history the global contexts that prompted it and its worldwide ramifications

A Concise History of France Roger Price, 2014-02-06 This is the most up to date and comprehensive study of French history available ranging from the early middle ages to the present Amongst its central themes are the relationships between state and society the impact of war competition for power and the ways in which power has been used Whilst taking full account of major figures such as Philip Augustus Henri IV Louis XIV Napoleon and de Gaulle it sets their activities within the broader context of changing economic and social structures and beliefs and offers rich insights into the lives of ordinary men and women This third edition has been substantially revised and includes a new chapter on contemporary France a society and political system in crisis as a result of globalisation rising unemployment a failing educational system growing social and racial tensions corruption the rise of the extreme right and a widespread loss of confidence in political leaders Lust und Verwundbarkeit Dagmar Herzog, 2018-09-03 Sexualitätsgeschichte als Gesellschaftsgeschichte Was hat Sexualpolitik mit Vergangenheitsbewältigung zu tun Welche anderen politischen Positionen werden in gesellschaftlichen Debatten über Sexualität mitverhandelt und was kann die Sexualgeschichtsschreibung zum besseren Verständnis der europäischen Zeitgeschichte beitragen An der Schnittstelle von Geistes und Kulturgeschichte Holocaustforschung Religions und Geschlechtergeschichte zeigt Dagmar Herzog wie Diskussionen über Sexualität die prägenden ideologischen Kampfe des 20 und beginnenden 21 Jahrhunderts beeinflussten Mit einem genauen Sensorium für die methodischen Herausforderungen einer Geschichtsschreibung von Intimität und Körperlichkeit untersucht die amerikanische Historikerin politische und gesellschaftliche Konflikte um Fragen nach dem Stellenwert von Sexualität sexueller Orientierung und dem Verhältnis von Reproduktionsrechten und Behinderung In einem abschließenden Gespräch reflektiert Dagmar Herzog ihre biokulturelle Sozialisation in den Vereinigten Staaten und der Bundesrepublik der sechziger und siebziger Jahre die Wechselwirkungen zwischen Gegenwartspolitik und Geschichtsschreibung und die umstrittene Frage nach den Lehren aus der Vergangenheit

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Paris Anna-Louise Milne, 2013-08 A comprehensive exploration of Paris through the texts and experiences of a vast and vibrant range of authors Human Rights Struggles in Twentieth-century France Max Likin, 2022-10-07 This book provides an introduction to human rights controversies in twentieth century France from the Dreyfus Affair at the beginning of the century to the arguments over women and immigrants rights at its end Using the Ligue des Droits de l'Homme LDH or the League of the Rights of Man as a narrative thread for this chronological study the book tracks the gradual expansion of human rights in France in the wake of the two world wars the Algerian quagmire and decolonisation more generally Examining the capital role of the LDH whilst also highlighting the role of individuals and key activists the book helps us to contextualise the quandaries faced by unseen minorities particularly colonial subjects and women The analysis also demonstrates the influence of French human rights activism on key international documents of human rights law such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights The LDH occupies a central place in French justice debates and is therefore an ideal template to analyse the rising influence of humanitarianism and crimes against humanity in French causes clbres from the 1970s onwards However the author goes further to look beyond the LDH and even France itself offering wide ranging surveys of dominant rights issues across Europe at any given period Drawing on extensive research and interviews with key members of the LDH this book provides an accessible overview of human rights struggles in twentieth century France Reproductive Rights in Modern France

Maud Anne Bracke, 2025-07-09 The introduction of the principle of women's reproductive liberty in France tentatively by the family planning movement after 1960 and explicitly by the women's liberation movement after 1970 marked a deep shift transforming public discourses Yet this principle remained fiercely contested and moderate and conservative actors responded by foregrounding notions of reproductive responsibility or the expectation that individuals perform the right sexual and family making behaviour benefiting not only themselves and their families but the nation at large Such responsibilisation underpinned the legal reforms of the 1960s 70s framing a notion of reproductive citizenship based on a tension between individual rights and social norms This book breaks new ground by taking an intersectional approach to the defining moments of this period the legalisation of contraception the laws of 1967 and 1974 and the liberalisation of abortion 1975 1979 Drawing on a wide range of sources and actors including feminist and family planning movements government actors demographers medical professional organisations disability rights groups and key actors in the overseas departments Maud Bracke demonstrates how the discourse of responsibilisation allowed actors to distinguish between citizens worthy of reproductive rights and those seen as less worthy Bracke analyses the distinct regulations regarding contraception in the overseas departments of Guadeloupe and Martinique framed by racialised anti natalism The book also demonstrates that disability rights organisations contributed to the discrediting of the notion of eugenic abortion used among experts and policy makers until the early 1970s Furthermore Bracke goes on to highlight the silence in the feminist movement around both disability rights and race as part of its universalisation of women s conditions of oppression and analyses the emergence of Black Feminism in late 1970s France In so doing the book offers a major contribution to the history of sex gender family life healthcare demography and political debate in post war France and more generally

Decolonizing 1968 Burleigh Hendrickson,2022-11-15 Decolonizing 1968 explores how activists in 1968 transformed university campuses across Europe and North Africa into sites of contestation where students administrators and state officials collided over definitions of modernity and nationhood after empire Burleigh Hendrickson details protesters versions of events to counterbalance more visible narratives that emerged from state controlled media centers and ultimately describes how the very education systems put in place to serve the French state during the colonial period ended up functioning as the crucible of postcolonial revolt Hendrickson not only unearths complex connections among activists and their transnational networks across Tunis Paris and Dakar but also weaves together their overlapping stories and participation in France s May 68 Using global protest to demonstrate the enduring links between France and its former colonies Decolonizing 1968 traces the historical relationships between colonialism and 1968 activism examining transnational networks that emerged and new human and immigrants rights initiatives that directly followed As a result Hendrickson reveals that 1968 is not merely a flashpoint in the history of left wing protest but a key turning point in the history of decolonization Thanks to generous funding from Penn State and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories

Regarding the real Des O'Rawe,2016-01-01 Regarding the real develops an original approach to documentary film focusing on its aesthetic relations to visual arts such as animation assemblage photography painting and architecture Throughout the book considers the work of figures whose preferred film language is associative and fragmentary and for whom the documentary is an endlessly open form an unstable expressive phenomenon that cannot help but interrogate its own narratives and intentions Combining close analysis with cultural history the book re assesses the influence of the modern arts in subverting structures of realism typically associated with the documentary In the course of its discussion it charts a fascinating path that leads from Len Lye to Hiroshi Teshigahara and includes along the way figures such as Joseph Cornell Johan van der Keuken William Klein Jean Luc Godard Jonas Mekas and Raymond Depardon A History of Western Public Law Bruno Aguilera-Barchet,2014-12-31 The book outlines the historical development of Public Law and the state from ancient times to the modern day offering an account of relevant events in parallel with a general historical background establishing and explaining the relationships between political religious and economic events Sexual Revolutions G. Hekma,A. Giami,2014-05-13 Sexual Revolutions explores the sexual revolution of the late twentieth century in several European countries and the USA by engaging with themes from sexual freedom and abortion to pornography and sexual variation This work discusses the involvement of youth feminism left liberalism arts science and religion in the process of sexual change Contemporary Fiction in French Anna-Louise Milne,Russell Williams,2021-03-25 Our global literary field is fluid and exists in a state of constant evolution Contemporary fiction in French has become a polycentric and transnational field of vibrant and varied experimentation the collapse of the distinction between French and Francophone literature has opened up French writing to a world of new influences and interactions In this collection renowned scholars provide thoughtful close readings of a whole range of genres from graphic novels to crime fiction to the influence of television and film to analyse modern French fiction in its historical and sociological context Allowing students of contemporary French literature and culture to situate specific works within broader trends the volume provides an engaging global and timely overview of contemporary fiction writing in French and demonstrates how our modern literary world is more complex and diverse than ever before
