Between Humans and Great Apes Kimberley Hockings,2009 Executive summary One of the challenges facing great ape conservation is the rising level of interaction between humans and great apes and the resulting conflicts that emerge As human populations continue to grow and human development makes deeper incursions into forest habitats such conflicts will become more widespread and prevalent in the natural ranges of great apes especially considering that the majority of great apes live outside protected areas It is essential that we develop a comprehensive understanding of existing and potential conflict situations and their current or future impacts on both great apes and humans This will require the integration of quantitative and qualitative data on multiple aspects of human and great ape behaviour and ecology along with a good understanding of local people's perceptions of the situation Such knowledge can then be used to develop effective locally adapted management strategies to prevent or mitigate human great ape conflicts whilst respecting both conservation objectives and socio cultural economic contexts These guidelines outline a sequence of logical steps that should be considered prior to any form of human great ape conflict intervention and propose possible counter measures to be used in the management of human great ape conflicts

The Modern Dilemma Leon Surette, 2008 Leon Surette's new study of T S Eliot and Wallace Stevens The Modern Dilemma challenges the received view that Stevens poetry expresses a Humanist world view and more surprisingly documents Eliot's early Humanist phase when Eliot and his bride shared Bertrand Russell's tiny London flat and later rented a country house together 1914-17 Eliot's poetry of that time up to The Waste Land is seen to reflect his Humanist phase closed by his conversion poetically documented in Ash Wednesday Where Eliot's poetry is dominated by cultural religious and philosophical angst Stevens is bright witty and playful and commonly dismissed as superficial The Modern Dilemma challenges this view demonstrating the seriousness of Stevens' life long engagement with the modern dilemma of disbelief and also that like Eliot he rejected the Humanist resolution characterized by Russell in The Free Man's Worship as man worshipping at the shrine that his own hands have built The study proceeds by juxtaposing the two poets responses in poetry and prose to the same texts and events Marianne Moore's poetry the Great War Humanists and anti Humanists the Franco Mexican Humanist Ramon Fernandez Pure Poetry and finally the gathering war clouds in the late thirties The strategy is to put the two men in juxtaposition so as to highlight the differences and similarities of their responses to the same issues or the same works Among the issues under examination is the nature and status of poetry religious belief or disbelief and political engagement or the lack thereof
