May Sarton Excerpts From A Life Journals And Memoirs:

May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton, 2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown Conversations with May Sarton May Sarton, 1991 With increasing candor and openness May Sarton's conversations have given an intimate view of her honest courageous inner life Best known to her many readers as a novelist and keeper of journals Sarton sees herself pre eminently as a poet In the interviews collected here she speaks forthrightly about herself her independence and her writing Although born in Belgium Sarton is quintessentially American in her choice of solitude on which her personal well being and writing depend She is a modernist who has defined herself as an artist with the occasionally painful recognition that all else must finally be subordinated to her writing Her journal After the Stroke makes clear that when she cannot write she stands on the edge of the abyss of nonbeing These interviews offer Sarton's readers the model of a woman who has supported herself as a writer of achievement who has made her way without the comforts of academic tenure grants or bestseller listings The Library Journal, 1999 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Publishers Weekly, 1995 Feminist Bookstore News, 1996 The Maine Entry, 1992 Library Journal, 1999-04 Language, Discourse and Social Psychology A. Weatherall, B. Watson, C. Gallois, 2007-03-28 Language and communication are central features of social behaviour So it is somewhat surprising that the social psychological study of this area has a relatively short history In this book a leading group of scholars overview the history theories and methods of the field and showcase the latest developments in cutting edge empirical work Good Poems, American Places Various, 2011-04-14 Another wonderful poetry anthology from Garrison Keillor rooted in the American landscape Greatness comes in many forms and as Garrison Keillor demonstrates daily on The Writer's Almanac the most affecting poems in the canon are in plain English Third in Keillor's series of anthologies Good Poems American Places brings together poems that celebrate the geography and culture that bind us together as a nation Think of these poems as postcards from the road by poets who've gotten carried away by a particular place a town in Kansas a kitchen window in Nantucket a Manhattan street a farm in western Minnesota Featuring famous poets and brash unknowns alike the verses in this exhilarating collection prove that the heart can be exalted anywhere in America Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Well-Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer, 2015-11-05 The enduring and engaging guide to educating yourself in the classical tradition Have you lost the art of reading for pleasure Are there books you know you should read but haven't because they seem too daunting In The Well Educated Mind Susan Wise Bauer provides a welcome and encouraging antidote to the distractions of our age electronic and otherwise Newly expanded and updated to include standout works from the twenty first century as well as essential readings in science from the earliest works of Hippocrates to the discovery of the asteroid that killed the dinosaurs The Well Educated Mind offers brief entertaining histories of six literary genres fiction autobiography history drama poetry and science accompanied by detailed instructions on how to read each type The annotated lists at the end of each chapter ranging from Cervantes to Cormac McCarthy Herodotus to Laurel Thatcher Ulrich Aristotle to Stephen Hawking preview recommended reading and encourage readers to make vital connections between ancient traditions and contemporary writing The Well Educated Mind reassures those readers who worry that they read too slowly or with below average comprehension If you can understand a daily newspaper there s no reason you can t read and enjoy Shakespeare s sonnets or Jane Eyre But no one should attempt to read the Great Books without a guide and a plan Bauer will show you how to allocate time to reading on a regular basis how to master difficult arguments how to make personal and literary judgments about what you read how to appreciate the resonant links among texts within a genre what does Anna Karenina owe to Madame Bovary and also between genres In her best selling work on home education The Well Trained Mind the author provided a road map of classical education for parents wishing to home school their children that book is now the premier resource for home schoolers In The Well Educated Mind Bauer takes the same elements and techniques and adapts them to the use of adult readers who want both enjoyment and self improvement from the time they spend reading Followed carefully her advice will restore and expand the pleasure of the written word

Research on Adulthood and Aging L. Eugene Thomas,1989-01-01 By borrowing from a wide range of disciplines such as psychology sociology anthropology psychiatry and the humanities this book gives a more human personal voice to the many experiences of aging The result is a new sort of social science research one which often reads more like literature than social science Indeed the author uses a wide variety of techniques borrowed from the humanities from hermeneutics to oral histories in addition to the more traditional social science methods

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus,Heike Hartung,Raquel Medina,2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives To Live in the Center of the Moment Barbara Frey Waxman,1997 Waxman English U of North Carolina compares autobiographical writings that cover themes related to aging namely the relationships between elderly parents and middle aged children the experience of turning 70 the role of race philosophical insights and quasi mystical experiences by the aging and the representation of elders as sages and sibyls She discusses works by Philip Roth Madeleine L Engle Lucille Clifton Doris Grumbach May Sarton Audre Lorde Maya Angelou Velma Wallis Howell Raines Donald Hall and Florida Scott Maxwell Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR In Her Own Image Elaine Hedges,Ingrid Wendt,1980 The work of Western women artists past and present is collected here in a stunning array of forms fiction poetry autobiography essay journal and letter writing sculpture painting graphics photography ceramics needlework music and dance The unique experience of women artists from diverse national ethnic racial and economic backgrounds is explored from their own viewpoints as are the relationships between women s social condition and women s art May Sarton Margot Peters,2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton s career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton s letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton s exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne s Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton s literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,1995 Voice of Her Own Marlene A. Schiwy,1996-05-27 As writers such as Virginia Woolf Audre Lorde and Anais Nin recognized keeping a journal is a powerful tool of creative expression and self healing In A Voice of Her Own a companion for both new and longtime diarists Marlene Schiwy shows that journal writing is the ideal way to find one s individual voice an opportunity for women to explore feelings intuitions perceptions and ideas often suppressed in our society and to record the truths of their own experience Schiwy invites readers to share the journeys other women have made toward selfhood and encourages them to begin a journey of their own She weaves together passages from published and unpublished journals from works of literature psychology and women s studies with her personal insights A Voice of Her Own is a treasure chest of inspiration for every woman seeking deeper self awareness and new outlets for creativity Women and Autobiography Martine Watson Brownley,Allison B. Kimmich,1999 An overview of women s autobiography providing historical background and contemporary criticism along with selections from a range of autobiographies by women It seeks to provide a broad introduction to the major questions dominating autobiographical scholarship today Books Out Loud ,2007
