Pink Knight C J Harvey, 2019 Some ten thousand years ago Earth was visited by beings from another planet in the Barnard's Star system The Babylonians recorded that beings they called the Oannes were amphibious creatures who came to Earth for the welfare of the human race The historian Hellandus describes them as having fishlike features but the head feet and arms of a man They instructed humans in everything a civilized nation should know They built a city beneath Antarctica near the Davis Sea and have lived there peacefully and secretly ever since But now a rogue Dwarf Star called Zarama threatens the very existence of both Earth and the home planet Nazmos Their mythology predicts that a being from another planet will avert disaster Enter Ashley Bonner into this scenario He has been granted special gifts and the Oannes think he may be the predicted one Can Ashley really prevail against a star a third more massive than the Sun This is the story of Ashley's development to manhood from age four to seventy and his ultimate sacrifice to save both worlds Perceforest, 2011 A highly readable version of this remarkable and largely unexplored work Perceforest is one of the largest and certainly the most extraordinary of the late Arthurian romances Justly described as an encyclopaedia of 14th century chivalry and a mine of folkloric motifs it is the subject of rapidly increasing attention and research The author of Perceforest draws on Alexander romances Roman histories and medieval travel writing not to mention oral tradition as he gives for example the distinctly racy first written version of the Sleeping Beauty story to create a remarkable prehistory of King Arthur's Britain It begins with the arrival in Britain of Alexander the Great His follower Perceforest the first of Arthur's Greek ancestors is made king of the island and finds it infested by the evil clan of Darnant the Enchanter Magic plays a dominant part in the adventures which follow as Perceforest ousts Darnant's clan despite their supernatural powers He founds the knightly order of the Franc Palais an ideal of chivalric civilisation prefiguring the Round Table of Arthur and indeed that of Edward III But that civilisation is the author shows all too fragile The vast imaginative scope of Perceforest is matched by its variety of tone ranging from tales of love and enchantment to bawdy comedy from glamorous tournaments to unvarnished descriptions of the havoc wrought by war And the author's surprising view of pagan gods and the coming of Christianity is as fascinating as the prominence he gives to women and his understanding of how the world of chivalry should work Because of its enormous length it runs to over a million words Nigel Bryant has provided a version which gives a complete account of every episode linking extensive passages of translation to make a manageable and highly readable version including the previously unpublished Books Five and Six of this remarkable and largely unexplored work Nigel Bryant has worked as a producer for BBC Radio 3 and as head of drama at Marlborough College This is his fourth major translation of medieval Arthurian romance

Knight's Penny Magazine ,1834 A Continuation of the History and Adventures of the Renowned Don Quixote de la Mancha Alonso Fernández de Avellaneda,1784 The Black Knight Roelof Steenbeek,2014-11-28 To date I have never piloted a biplane but for many nights before I had any thought of writing this book I dreamed I was sitting in the cockpit of a black biplane Although I could not see the wings I just somehow knew it was one There was a tiny half moon windshield an instrument panel with some gauges and a joystick in front of me I could feel the wind on my face icy cold in my bones vibrations and movements of the aircraft through the seat of my pants and a hollow feeling in the pit of my stomach A few nights later the silhouetted head and shoulders of a young man started to haunt my dreams instead Every time I dreamed of him his face became a little clearer and I eventually saw he was wearing old fashioned flying goggles and a leather cap everything was sepia colored like an old fashioned photograph or daguerreotype plate Silent at first eventually he said a trifle forlornly but not bitterly Please ask them not to forget us What we fought and died for was it for nothing
