Community Services Administration,United States. Social and Rehabilitation Service. Assistance Payments Administration,1972 West's California Reporter ,1987 Citizen, Mother, Worker Emilie Stoltzfus,2004-07-21 During World War II American women entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers and many of them relied on federally funded child care programs At the end of the war working mothers vigorously protested the termination of child care subsidies In Citizen Mother Worker Emilie Stoltzfus traces grassroots activism and national and local policy debates concerning public funding of children s day care in the two decades after the end of World War II Using events in Cleveland Ohio Washington D C and the state of California Stoltzfus identifies a prevailing belief among postwar policymakers that women could best serve the nation as homemakers Although federal funding was briefly extended after the end of the war grassroots campaigns for subsidized day care in Cleveland and Washington met with only limited success In California however mothers asserted their importance to the state s economy as productive citizens and won a permanent state funded

child care program In addition by the 1960s federal child care funding gained new life as an alternative to cash aid for poor single mothers These debates about the public s stake in what many viewed as a private matter help illuminate America s changing social political and fiscal priorities as well as the meaning of female citizenship in the postwar period Man in Adaptation Yehudi A. Cohen,2017-07-12 How do specific activities and institutions in which people are involved fit into the overall adaptive strategy of their society What are the particular pressures leading to change in each of these spheres when the group s strategy of adaptation changes What are the human demands made by a hunting gathering strategy that lead to the development of particular family systems modes of social control religious beliefs and practices values and ideologies and personality structures What are the new human demands that lead to the reorganization of these aspects of life as the group moves from one level of development to another Man in Adaptation The Institutional Framework introduces the institutional psychological and ideological dimensions of the strategies of adaptation that have characterized human societies from the earliest known forms of social life to the present Cohen includes topics that are of principal anthropological concern notably marriage law and social control religion and magic value systems personality and art There are no studies that deal with cultural change as such in this book Where possible Cohen includes articles that deal with changes in particular spheres of activity such as family organization law religion and value systems He argues that change is not a special situation Instead culture is change and change is culture and it is unrealistic to study change outside the specific social and technological organization of a given society This volume unifies the subject matter of anthropology within a single and powerful explanatory framework and incorporates the work of the most renowned anthropological experts on man Statutes of California and Digests of Measures California,2001
