The Herb Kohl Reader Herbert Kohl, 2009-03-17 The best writing from a lifetime in the trenches and at the typewriter from the renowned and much beloved National Book Award winning educator In more than forty books on subjects ranging from social justice to mathematics morality to parenthood Herb Kohl has earned a place as one of our foremost educators who write With Marian Wright Edelman Mike Rose Lisa Delpit and Vivian Paley among his fans Kohl is a singular figure in education as William Ayers says in his foreword it s clear that Herb Kohl s influence has resonated echoed and multiplied Now for the first time readers can find collected in one place key essays and excerpts spanning the whole of Kohl's career including practical as well as theoretical writings. Selections come from Kohl's classic 36 Children, his National Book Award winning The View from the Oak co-authored with his wife Judy and all his best known and beloved books. The Herb Kohl Reader is destined to become a major new resource for old fans and a new generation of teachers and parents. Kohl has created his own brand of teaching. He is a remarkable teacher who discovered in his first teaching assignment that in education he could keep playing with toys; didn't have to stop learning and could use what he knew in the service of others. Lisa Delpit, The New York Times. An infinitely vulnerable and honest human being who has made it his vocation to peddle hope. Jonathan Kozol. In Pursuit of the Good Life. Jocelyn Lim Chua, 2014-03-08. Once celebrated as a model development for its progressive social indicators, the southern Indian state of Kerala has earned the new distinction as the nation's suicide capital, with suicide rates soaring to triple the national average since 1990. Rather than an aberration on the path to development and modernity, Keralites understand this crisis to be the bitter fruit borne of these historical struggles and the aspirational dilemmas they have produced in everyday life. Suicide therefore offers a powerful lens onto the experiential and affective dimensions of development and global change in the postcolonial world. In the long shadow of fear and uncertainty that suicide casts in Kerala, living acquires new meaning and contours. In this powerful ethnography, Jocelyn Chua draws on years of fieldwork to broaden the field of vision beyond suicide as the termination of life, considering how suicide generates new ways of living in these anxious times. Mother Father Deaf. Paul M. Preston, 1998-07-21. Mother father deaf is the phrase commonly used within the Deaf community to refer to hearing children of deaf parents. Preston, one of these children, takes us to the place where Deaf and Hearing cultures meet. His work is based both on personal experience and on 150 interviews with adult hearing children of deaf parents throughout the U.S. Life Span Human Development. Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01. The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood. It includes local, multicultural, and indigenous issues and perspectives; local research in development; regionally relevant statistical information; and National guidelines on health. Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach, each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth, cognition, or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age. Within each chapter, you will find sections on four life stages: infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood. This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development. This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources, including videos, and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs.
