A Bookshop of One's Own Jane Cholmeley, 2025-06-26 What was it like to start a feminist bookshop in an industry dominated by men How could a lesbian thrive in Thatcher's time with the government legislating to restrict her rights How do you run a business when your real aim is to change the world Silver Moon was the dream of three women a bookshop with the mission to promote the work of female writers and create a much needed safe space for any woman Founded in 1980s London against a backdrop of homophobia and misogyny it was a testament to the power of community growing into Europe's biggest women's bookshop and hosting a constellation of literary stars from Margaret Atwood and Maya Angelou to Angela Carter While contending with day to day struggles common to other booksellers plus the additional burdens of misogyny and the occasional hate crime Jane Cholmeley and her booksellers created a thriving business But they also played a crucial and relatively unsung part in one the biggest social movements of our time A Bookshop of One's Own is a fascinating slice of social history from the heart of the women's liberation movement from a true feminist and lesbian icon Written with heart and humour it reveals the struggle and joy that comes with starting an underdog business while being a celebration of the power women have to change the narrative when they are the ones holding the pen
