

Lost in the Desert Case Study

Human Anatomy and Physiology

Part I: July 13th, AM

1. What should Henry do to save Mark? What caused Mark's weakness, nausea, disorientation, headache, and low blood pressure? Why isn't he sweating?
 - a. Henry should attempt to get Mark in shade, remove extra clothes, and cool him with cool water. Feeling weak, nausea, disorientation, headaches, and low blood pressure are all symptoms of a heat stroke. Mark suffered a heat stroke because he was in a temperature above 104 Fahrenheit for a prolonged amount of time. Mark isn't sweating because his body is so dehydrated that it ran out of water to sweat and body's cooling system stopped working because his body temperature has risen very high in a short amount of time.

Part II: July 13th, PM

2. Why didn't the paramedic give Mark distilled water rather than an electrolyte/glucose solution?
 - a. The paramedic didn't give Mark distilled water because distilled water would not rehydrate and provide energy like the electrolyte and glucose solution would.
3. Why did Mark become disorientated? How would you test your ideas to see if you are right? What do you think based on the information in the text?
 - a. Mark became disorientated because his blood pressure was low, due to dehydration, which meant that his brain was not getting the needed amount of blood pumped to it. To test my idea I could test the mental capabilities of people with different blood pressure.

Part III: Subsequent Months

4. What should Mark be concerned with regarding these moles? He talked to dermatologist Dr. Charles Culp about the moles. What tests might Dr. Culp conduct after removing the moles?
 - a. The moles could be cancerous (especially because he had a first degree burn). Dr. Culp should conduct a biopsy on the removed moles.

In Search Of The Lost Testament of Alexander the Great David Grant, 2017-01-28 A unique backstory of Alexander and his successors the biased historians deceits wars generals and the tale of the literature that preserved them Babylon mid June 323 BCE the gateway of the gods prostrated in the Summer Palace of Nebuchadrezzar II on the east bank of the Euphrates wracked by fever and having barely survived another night King Alexander III the rule of Macedonia for 12 years and 7 months had his senior officers congregate at his bedside Abandoned by Fortune and the healing god Asclepius he finally acknowledged he was dying Some 2 340 years on five barely intact accounts survive to tell a hardly coherent story At times in close accord though more often contradictory they conclude with a melee of death scene rehashes all of them suspicious the first portrayed Alexander dying silent and intestate he was Homeric and vocal in the second the third detailed his Last Will and Testament though it is attached to the stuff of romance Which account do we trust In Search Of The Lost Testament Of Alexander The Great is the result of a decade of contemplations on Alexander presented as a rich thematic narrative Grant describes as the backstory behind the history of the great Macedonian and his generals Taking an uncompromising investigative perspective Grant delves into the challenges faced by Alexander s unique tale the forgeries and biased historians the influences of rhetoric romance philosophy and religion on what was written and how Alexander s own mercurial personality is vividly dissected and the careers and the wars of his successors are presented with a unique eye But the book never loses sight of central aim to unravel the mystery behind Alexander s unconvincingly reported intestate death And out of Grant s research emerges one unavoidable verdict after 2 340 years the Last Will and Testament of Alexander III of Macedonia needs to be extracted from romance and reinstated to its rightful place in mainstream history Babylon in June 323 BCE Although the result a decade of academic research In Search Of The Lost Testament Of Alexander The Great is written in an entertaining and engaging style that opens the subject to both scholars and the casual reader of history looking to learn more about the Macedonian king and the men who made his story It concludes with a wholly new interpretation of the death of Alexander the Great and the mechanism behind the wars of succession that followed

Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, Constructing Power: A Critical and Constructivist Theory Using the American Case Kirby L. Wedekind,2025-02-28 This book asserts that there exists a causal relationship between identity interest and the exercise of power The work defines power as the ability to satisfy oneself which makes power contingent upon belief It also dissects the concepts of identity interest and power to reveal how each works and relate to the others This analysis creates a new theory of power using constructivism informed by critical theory departing from neorealist and neoliberal perspectives The work uses the United States to test the theory by examining US national identity interest and exercises of power A deconstruction of American Exceptionalism proceeds three case studies and runs as a theme to connect each unifying the work A military operation in 2016 against the Islamic State in Libya the 2014 Russian annexation of Crimea and the whiplash caused by US participation in the 2015 Paris Agreement serve as the three case studies for analyzing US identity interest and power through the theory This work proposes a new way of understanding power based on constructivism and informed by critical theory that applies to interpersonal and international relationships Every relation is a power relation and power is the ability to satisfy oneself This book provides insight into the underlying causes and machinations that transpire within every kind of social relation This is a significant shift in how power is understood and applied in politics the military business and interpersonal relationships This book seeks to provide the reader with greater and clearer understanding of themselves the world in which they live and why it exists as such Swiss
