Twentieth-Century American Fiction in Circulation Matthew Vechinski, 2019-10-17 Twentieth Century American Fiction in Circulation is a study of the twentieth century linked story collection in the United States It emphasizes how the fictional form grew out of an established publishing model individual stories printed in magazines revised and expanded into single author volumes that resemble novels which creates multiple contexts for the reception of this literature By acknowledging the prior appearance of stories in periodicals the book examines textual variants and the role of editorial emendation drawing on archival records drafts and correspondence whenever possible It also considers how the pages of magazines create a context for the reception of short stories that differs significantly from that of the single author book The chapters explore how short stories appearing separately then linked together excel at representing the discontinuity of modern American life convey the multifaceted identity of a character across episodes mimic the qualities of oral storytelling and illustrate struggles of belonging within and across communities. The book explains the appearance and prevalence of these narrative strategies at particular cultural moments in the evolution of the American magazine examining a range of periodicals such as The Masses, Saturday Evening Post, Partisan Review, Esquire and Ladies Home Journal. The primary linked story collections studied are Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio (1919), William Faulkner's The Unvanquished (1938), Mary McCarthy's The Company She Keeps (1942), John Barth's Lost in the Funhouse (1968) and Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club (1988). Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Play and the Picaresque Gordana Yovanovich, 1999-01-01. Analyses three important Latin American novels in an attempt to redefine the nature of the picaresque especially in regard to the roles of spontaneous play and carnivalesque laughter.

Anthony Burgess and America Christopher W. Thurley, 2025-03-25. Anthony Burgess and America is a biographical and critical analysis of Burgess's commentary on and relationship with the United States of America. Utilising Burgess's entire canon and newly discovered materials to assess Burgess's views on America, this book also evaluates the American inspirations in five Burgess novels. This essential addition to Burgess scholarship tells the story of a nearly unexplored area of Burgess's life. For the first time ever, Burgess's American experiences, work, and documented communication, lectures, interviews, and public utterances are brought together to assess where these commentaries overlapped with his fiction. The result is a complex personal and public history about one of Britain's greatest twentieth-century authors and their immersion into and interaction with American culture in the second half of the twentieth century. Mathematics in Postmodern

American Fiction Stuart J. Taylor, 2024-04-23. This book delivers an innovative critical approach to better understand U.S. fiction of the information age and argues that in the last eighty years, fiction has become increasingly concerned with its representations of mathematical ideas, images, and practices. In so doing, this book provides a fuller transnational account of the place of mathematics in understanding mathematically informed novels. Literature and science studies have acknowledged and situated historical points of cultural crossover by emphasising mathematics within this larger intellectual context and not as an unlikely and alien adjunct to post-war culture. This monograph clarifies how mathematically informed postmodern fictions work in a cognate fashion to other fields undergoing structuralist revolutions. This is especially evident in fiction by the key mathematically literate Postmodern authors upon whom this study focuses, namely Thomas Pynchon, Don DeLillo, and David Foster Wallace, through which recent technological revolutions facilitated by mathematics manifest in cultural discourse. Books in Series, 1985. Floating Opera and The End of the Road John Barth, 1997-03-11. From the author of National Book Award-nominated Lost in the Funhouse John Barth's first two novels are both existential comedies featuring strange consuming love triangles and the destructive effects of an overactive intellect on the emotions Barth ran riot over literary rules and conventions even as he displayed with meticulous discipline mastery of and respect for them The New York Times The relationship between these two darkly comic novels is evident not only in their ribald and philosophical subject matter but in their eccentric characters and bitterly humorous tone The protagonist of The Floating Opera is Todd Andrews an orphaned war veteran who has been sleeping with his friend's wife Todd awakens in the morning determined to commit suicide having concluded that nothing in life has intrinsic value but then spends the day methodically reasoning his way into disregarding that fact and remaining a part of the floating opera of life In The End of the Road a man named Jacob Horner finds himself literally paralyzed by an inability to choose a course of action from all possibilities He begins an unconventional course of mythotherapy treatment at the Remobilization Farm but his eccentric doctor's directives lead him into a tragic love triangle and from there to the nihilistic end of the road Separately these two novels give two very different views of the universal human quest for meaning and together they form the beginnings of an illustrious literary career Giles Goat-Boy John Barth, 1987-08-18 From the author of National Book Award nominated Lost in the Funhouse comes an outrageously farcical adventure that challenges our notions of technology power and human nature Barth ran riot over literary rules and conventions even as he displayed with meticulous discipline mastery of and respect for them The New York Times Giles Goat Boy tells the story of a human boy raised as a goat who comes to believe that he is humanity's prophesied messiah In an absurdist universe that takes the form of a university divided into an authoritarian East Campus and a more open West Campus young George Giles rises to assume the title of Grand Tutor the spiritual leader of the world and heroic defender of his people against the threat of a tyrannical computer system Hailed as a fantasy of theology sociology and sex Time magazine Giles Goat Boy has long been one of John Barth's most popular and multi-layered narratives History in the making Gordon Bölling, 2006 Die Canadian Cultural Renaissance und die mit ihr einhergehenden Prozesse gegenwartsorientierter nationaler Identitätsfindung ebneten in den 1960er Jahren den Weg für eine bis heute fortdauernde Auseinandersetzung kanadischer Schriftsteller mit der Historie Im Zuge ihrer intensiven Beschäftigung mit der Vergangenheit entkräftet die kanadische Gegenwartsliteratur vormals weitverbreitete Vorstellungen von der scheinbaren Geschichtslosigkeit Kanadas Jedoch beschränkt sich der zeitgenössische Geschichtsroman nicht ausschließlich auf die imaginative Neukonzeption kanadischer Vergangenheit sondern wendet sich zunehmend auch universalen Themenkomplexen zu In ihrer Vielgestaltigkeit hat die Gattung des historischen Romans somit maßgeblichen Anteil an der zunehmenden Internationalisierung der kanadischen Literatur Im Mittelpunkt der vorliegenden Untersuchung steht mit dem metafikionalen Geschichtsroman eine selbstreflexive Spielart des historischen Romans der in der kanadischen Gegenwartsliteratur eine hervorgehobene Bedeutung zukommt Anhand detaillierter Einzelinterpretationen wird dargelegt wie solche renommierten Schriftsteller wie Margaret Atwood Timothy Findley Anne Michaels Michael Ondaatje und Carol Shields die Konventionen historischen Erzählens im Akt des Erzählens kritisch hinterfragen und den Fiktionsstatus ihrer Romane akzentuieren Der metafiktionale kanadische Geschichtsroman der 1980er und 1990er Jahre wird hierbei als einer der Kulminationspunkte einer langen Tradition selbstreflexiven historischen Erzählens betrachtet die sich bis zu den Ursprüngen der Gattung des historischen Romans im frühen 19. Jahrhundert zurückverfolgen lässt Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1983 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1.144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6.800 major science and social science journals Lost in the Funhouse 8c Prpk Bill Zehme, 1999-12-01
