Schehr,2001-01-01 Jean François

Lyotard 1924 1998 was a French philosopher and literary theorist He is well known for his articulation of postmodernism after the late 1970s and the analysis of the impact of postmodernity on the human condition In 1954 Lyotard became a member of Socialisme ou Barbarie a French political organisation formed in 1948 around the inadequacy of the Trotskyist analysis to explain the new forms of domination in the Soviet Union His writings in this period are mostly concerned with ultra left politics with focus on the Algerian situation which he witnessed first hand while teaching philosophy in Constantine Socialisme ou Barbarie became increasingly anti Marxist and Lyotard was prominent in the Pouvoir Ouvrier a group that rejected the position and split in 1963 from Wikipedia

The Torture Doctors Steven H. Miles,2020-03-02 Torture doctors invent and oversee techniques to inflict pain and suffering without leaving scars Their knowledge of the body and its breaking points and their credible authority over death certificates and medical records make them powerful and elusive perpetrators of the crime of torture In The Torture Doctors Steven H Miles fearlessly explores who these physicians are what they do how they escape justice and what can be done to hold them accountable At least one hundred countries employ torture doctors including both dictatorships and democracies While torture doctors mostly act with impunity protected by governments medical associations and licensing boards Miles shows that a movement has begun to hold these doctors accountable and to return them to their proper role as promoters of health and human rights Miles s groundbreaking portrayal exposes the thinking and psychology of these doctors and his investigation points to how the international human rights community and the medical community can come together to end these atrocities
