Grey Zone Alienated Friends:

Ethnographies of Grey Zones in Eastern Europe Ida Harboe Knudsen, Martin Demant Frederiksen, 2015-04-15 Over the last two decades Eastern European countries have experienced extensive changes in geo political relocations and relations leading to everyday uncertainty Based on ethnographic cases this anthology explores how grey zones of governance borders relations and invisibilities affect everyday life in contemporary Eastern Europe Intimacy and Friendship on Facebook A. Lambert, 2013-04-19 Intimacy and Friendship on Facebook theorises the impact of Facebook on our social lives through the lens of intimacy Lambert constructs an original understanding of why people welcome public intimacy on Facebook and how they attempt to control it asking the reader to re imagine what it means to be intimate online

Reclaiming Conversation Sherry Turkle, 2016-10-04 Turkle presents a powerful case that a new communication revolution is degrading the quality of human relationships The New York Review of Books Turkle s witty well written book offers much to ponder Talk is cheap but conversation is priceless Boston Globe This is a persuasive and intimate book Washington Post Renowned media scholar Sherry Turkle investigates how a flight from conversation undermines our relationships creativity and productivity and why reclaiming face to face conversation can help us regain lost ground We live in a technological universe in which we are always communicating And yet we have sacrificed conversation for mere connection Preeminent author and researcher Sherry Turkle has been studying digital culture for over thirty years Long an enthusiast for its possibilities here she investigates a troubling consequence at work at home in politics and in love we find ways around conversation tempted by the possibilities of a text or an email in which we don t have to look listen or reveal ourselves We develop a taste for what mere connection offers The dinner table falls silent as children compete with phones for their parents attention Friends learn strategies to keep conversations going when only a few people are looking up from their phones At work we retreat to our screens although it is conversation at the water cooler that increases not only productivity but commitment to work Online we only want to share opinions that our followers will agree with a politics that shies away from the real conflicts and solutions of the public square The case for conversation begins with the necessary conversations of solitude and self reflection They are endangered these days always connected we see loneliness as a problem that technology should solve Afraid of being alone we rely on other people to give us a sense of ourselves and our capacity for empathy and relationship suffers We see the costs of the flight from conversation everywhere conversation is the cornerstone for democracy and in business it is good for the bottom line In the private sphere it builds empathy friendship love learning and productivity But there is good news we are resilient Conversation cures Based on five years of research and interviews in homes schools and the workplace Turkle argues that we have come to a better understanding of where our technology can and cannot take us and that the time is right to reclaim conversation The most human and humanizing thing that we do The virtues of person to person conversation are timeless and our most basic technology talk responds to our modern challenges We have everything we need to start we have each other Turkle s latest book The Empathy Diaries is available now

On Good and Evil and the Grey Zone Alex Danchev, 2015-12-02 How can works of the imagination help us to understand good and evil in the modern world In this new collection of essays Alex Danchev treats the artist as a crucial moral witness of our troubled times and puts art to work in the service of political and ethical inquiry Trauma Counseling, Second Edition Lisa López Levers, 2022-02-24 The only comprehensive text to focus on trauma stress crisis and disaster counseling from a clinical practice perspective This overarching text intended both for mental health practitioners in training and for practicing clinicians focuses on the impact of stress crisis trauma and disaster on diverse populations across the lifespan as well as on effective treatment strategies The second edition is newly grounded in a trauma scaffold providing foundational information that therapists can build upon step by step to treat individuals affected by more complex trauma events This resource newly addresses the mental health implications of COVID 19 which has had an enormous impact on multitudes of people since the beginning of the pandemic its repercussions likely to continue for some time into the future The text also is updated to provide the most recent diagnostic information regarding trauma in the DSM 5 Two new chapters address the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence This unrivalled resource emphasizes stress management and crisis intervention skills as important building blocks for working with more complex issues of trauma and disaster It underscores the idea that trauma must be approached from multiple perspectives and in multiple dimensions encompassing individual community societal and systemic implications along with multicultural and diversity frames of reference The text integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology with an emphasis on Polyvagal Theory Additionally the text highlights the importance of clinical supervision in trauma care and examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers New to the Second Edition Reconceptualizes the text with the concept of a Trauma Scaffold as a foundation upon which to understand and develop treatment for increasingly complex trauma events Addresses the COVID 19 pandemic and its profound effect on the mental health of vast numbers of people Includes two new chapters on the confluence of crises related to anthropogenic climate change and the effects of mass violence Includes PowerPoint slides to accompany an updated Instructor s Manual Key Features Delivers both introductory and advanced clinical information addressing complex trauma Addresses trauma from a bioecological framework with emphasis on trauma informed practices multicultural pluralism diversity and social justice Considers neurobiological responses to trauma with new research and the contributions of Polyvagal Theory Examines individual familial community society and systemic understandings of stress crisis trauma and disaster Includes a wealth of resources for further study text boxes and case studies to reinforce learning
