Troubled Paradise Eric Reitan, 2024-12-12 Grief over the loss of those we love is one of the most painful parts of life But Christianity has long offered consolation to those who grieve in the form of the Easter promise Death is not the end Beyond it lies a realm of perfect joy where mourning is no more and every tear is wiped away But won't this promise have limits if as Christians have traditionally believed some of God's creatures are eternally lost Can I really be perfectly happy in heaven if say my children are damned or annihilated And what about the Christian teaching that those in heaven are morally sanctified Doesn't this mean they will be perfected in a love so wide it includes even our enemies and hence the lost While delving deeply into the nature of grief and its relation to Christian ethics this book explores the reasoning that generates this problem of heavenly grief examines purported solutions and invites deeper reflection on a frequently dismissed idea that avoids the problem altogether the universalist notion that there are no limits to Easter's promise because all are ultimately saved Hurt Help Hope Clarissa Moll, Fiona Moll, 2024-10-08

Grieving with Hope Samuel J. Hodges IV, Kathy Leonard, 2011-11 Practical and straightforward yet warm and compassionate Grieving with Hope clarifies the popular misconception that people move through stages of grief This will be an encouragement to many as grieving people often think something is wrong with them when their grief doesn't proceed neatly through stages The reality is that grieving people jump back and forth between different emotions sometimes wrestling with multiple emotions at once This book is packed with short biblically based gospel centered topical chapters addressing the issues grieving people face but are often hesitant to mention to others It helps readers accurately interpret the message their emotions are sending them and gently guides them to determine whether they're grieving in a way that leads to hope and ultimate healing Developed from interviews with over 30 well respected Christian counselors teachers and authors as well as numerous personal testimonies Grieving with Hope helps the bereaved discover how hope and peace are available amidst their heartache and pain
