Choo, Catherine Beavis, 2018-03-29 The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends issues and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region Comprising contributions from Australia China Hong Kong India Indonesia Malaysia Philippines Singapore and Vietnam the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national cultural and teaching contexts In doing so it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation presents practical matters concerning text selection use of literature in the language classroom innovative practices in literature education and raises pressing and important questions about the nature purpose and importance of literature education in global times South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies Comic Lives Laurie McNeill, John David Zuern, 2025-06-27 Comic Lives examines the dynamic intersection of life narrative and comedy within the theoretical and methodological frameworks of auto biography studies In stand up acts comedy specials podcasts and print memoirs autobiographical comedy offers a productive occasion for addressing key concerns in the discipline in particular the challenges of representing trauma and the testimonial uses of personal stories The contributors take up examples of auto biographical comedy in Australia Canada South Africa and the United States to explore the question of how comedians transform difficult life experiences such as mental illness the displacements of immigration family conflicts and institutional racism into texts and performances aimed at making people laugh Thinking about auto biography and comedy auto biography as comedy and auto biographical comedy this collection reflects on what auto biography brings to comedy what affordances comedy offers life narrative the benefits and risks of playing life for laughs and the capacities and limitations of the comic for resistance and counternarrative This book will be of particular interest to students and researchers in fields such as literary studies cultural studies performance studies and social theory especially those exploring intersections of identity trauma and humor in contemporary media and performance The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in a b Auto Biography Studies Telling Tales Kylie Cardell, Kate Douglas, 2017-08-10 Young writers have historically played a pivotal role in shaping autobiographical genres and this continues into the graphic and digital texts which characterise contemporary life writing This volume offers a selection of pertinent case studies which illuminate some of the core themes which have come to characterise autobiographical writings of childhood including cultural and identity representations and tensions coming into knowledge and education sexuality prejudice war and trauma The book also reveals preoccupations with the cultural forms of autobiographical writings of childhood and youth take engaging in discussions of archives graphic texts digital forms testimony didacticism in autobiography and the anthologising of life writing This collection will open up broader conversations about the scope of life writing about childhood and youth and the importance of life writing genres in prompting dialogues about literary cultures and coming of age This book was originally published as a special issue of Prose Studies Inside Australian Culture Baden Offord, Erika Kerruish, Rob Garbutt, Adele Wessell, Kirsten Pavlovic, 2014-07-01 Inside Australian Culture Legacies of Enlightenment Values offers a critical intervention in the continuing effects of colonization in Australia and the structures it brought which still inform and dominate its public culture Through a careful analysis of three disparate but significant moments in Australian history the authors investigate the way the British Enlightenment continues to dominate contemporary Australian thinking and values Employing the lens of Indian cultural theorist Ashis Nandy the authors argue for an Australian public culture that is profoundly conscious of its assumptions history and limitations Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945 , 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta On Happiness Camilla Nelson, Deborah Pike, Georgina Ledvinka, 2015 What is happiness and how does the pursuit of happiness shape our lives Happiness appears to be a simple emotion individual and pleasurable yet the problems associated with happiness in politics economics and philosophy suggest that it is perhaps more complex and paradoxical than we first thought This eclectic collection of essays interrogates the common sense understanding of happiness in the West and examines the strategies devised to obtain it Without disposing of the concept altogether the book rediscovers the latent aspects of this pervasive and elusive phenomenon Ultimately it concludes that our current notions of happiness may in fact be the very cause of our discontent On Happiness offers readers a spectrum of critical reflections and rethinks of this ubiquitous cultural obsession Librarians ebook available on ProQuest and EBSCO Subject Philosophy Sociology Popular Culture Post-Multicultural Writers as Neo-cosmopolitan Mediators Sneja Gunew, 2017-02-01 Post Multicultural Writers as Neo Cosmopolitan Mediators argues the need to move beyond the monolingual paradigm within Anglophone literary studies Using Lyotard s concept of post as the future anterior back to the future this book sets up a concept of post multiculturalism salvaging the elements within multiculturalism that have been forgotten in its contemporary denigration Gunew attaches this discussion to debates in neo cosmopolitanism over the last decade creating a framework for re evaluating post multicultural and Indigenous writers in settler colonies such as Canada and Australia She links these writers with transnational writers across diasporas from Eastern Europe South East Asia China and India to construct a new framework for literary and cultural studies Shape Shifters Lily Anne Y. Welty Tamai, Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, Paul Spickard, 2020-01-01 Shape Shifters presents a wide ranging array of essays that examine peoples of mixed racial identity Moving beyond the static either/or categories of racial identification found within typical insular conversations about mixed race peoples Shape Shifters explores these mixed race identities as fluid ambiguous contingent multiple and malleable This volume expands our understandings of how individuals and ethnic groups identify themselves within their own sociohistorical contexts The essays in Shape Shifters explore different historical eras and reach across the globe from the Roman and Chinese borderlands of classical antiquity to medieval Eurasian shape shifters the Native peoples of the missions of Spanish California and racial shape shifting among African Americans in the post civil rights era At different times in their lives or over generations in their families racial shape shifters have moved from one social context to another And as new social contexts were imposed on them identities have even changed from one group to another This is not racial ethnic or religious imposture It is simply the way that people's lives unfold in fluid sociohistorical circumstances With contributions by Ryan Abrecht George J S nchez Laura Moore and Margaret Hunter among others Shape Shifters explores the forces of migration borderlands trade warfare occupation colonial imposition and the creation and dissolution of states and empires to highlight the historically contingent basis of identification among mixed race peoples across time and space Essential English Skills for the Australian Curriculum Year 8 2nd Edition Anne-Marie Brownhill, Alison Rucco, Sonya Stoneman, Deborah Simpson, 2016-06-24 The second edition of the popular Essential English Skills for the Australian Curriculum series has been updated for today's students Providing support for differentiated learning and featuring flexible ICT tasks that encourage language and literacy development the series is ideal for both classroom use and homework The multilevel approach to key language and literacy skills caters to the different learning abilities in the classroom and assists teachers in matching tasks to the skill of their students Three levels of carefully graded questions Test yourself Extend yourself and Challenge yourself give every student an achievable starting point and the opportunity to enhance their skills New text extracts and examples of classic and popular texts provide the very best support for today's students while covering the requirements of the Australian Curriculum and the cross curricula priorities Fully integrated tech challenges and online tasks encourage students to explore the impact of technology on their own language and literacy development Each workbook includes a dedicated introduction to ICT in the classroom BUsing Digital Technology for English skills suggesting applications that can be used with the workbook Solutions are available for teachers in downloadable PDF format To access teachers must activate the unique 16 character code provided by your Cambridge Education Resource Consultant in your Cambridge GO teacher account Contact us for more details Jacaranda Humanities Alive 10 Australian Curriculum 3e learnON and Print Robert Darlington, Luke Jackson, Matthew Richardson, Jill Price, Cathy Bedson, Simon Phelan, 2023-11-20 Every lesson in the new Jacaranda Humanities Alive series has been carefully designed to support teachers and help students evoke curiosity through inquiry based learning while developing key skills Because both what and how students learn matter Fostering Culturally Diverse Leadership in Organisations Karen Loon, 2022-08-15 Leveraging academic research and case studies knowledge as a business leader and diversity practitioner and personal experience Karen Loon examines how successful culturally diverse leaders at work resolve the contradictions and tensions of their identities within organisations What can we learn from those leaders who have thrived and smashed the bamboo ceiling Moreover are there other factors holding organisational change back The book proposes research based recommendations for aspiring leaders and corporate practitioners whilst revealing the potential inhibitors to progress Split into three sections Loon examines current research on identities in multicultural nations and organisations delves into the career progression of successful Asian Australian leaders to explore how they negotiate identity in the workplace and provides a roadmap of actions for business leaders looking to create more inclusive and diverse cultures in their organisations Written for both people new to diversity and those keen on
