Study Guide Questions Novellas 11-16

Marin* pages 26-27

1. Who is Marin?

Marin is Louie's cousin from Puerto Rico. She lives with them and always babysitting the little sisters. Marin is older than Esperanza or we think she is because she dresses to go out in dark nylons and heavy makeup.

2. Why is she unable to leave her house?

Marin is stuck inside because she is always babysitting Louie's little sisters. She is playing the traditional female role, but she feels trapped by it. She stands near the door of her "cage", singing songs of love.

3. How does she plan to change her situation?

Marin plans to either move back to Puerto Rico with the money she has saved up to be with her boyfriend and live a nice life or she is going to wait for her prince charming to come and take her away to something better.

4. Why do Esperanza and her friends admire her?

Esperanza and her friends admire Marin because she is older, more mature, and boys are interested in her.

5. Where is Marin going in a year? Why?

Marin hopes to stay in Chicago next year so she can get a job downtown. She hopes to meet a rich man on the subway who will marry her and take her to live outside the barrio.

Those Who Don't* page 28

1. How do outsiders see Esperanza's neighborhood?

Esperanza says that people "who don't know any better" think her neighborhood is dangerous and that if they find themselves in it at night, they fear they'll get stabbed.

Against Creative Writing Andrew Cowan,2022-09-13 The rise of Creative Writing has been accompanied from the start by two questions can it be taught and should it be taught This scepticism is sometimes shared even by those who teach it who often find themselves split between two contradictory identities the artistic and the academic Against Creative Writing explores the difference between writing which is what writers do and Creative Writing which is the instrumentalisation of what writers do Beginning with the question of whether writing can or ought to be taught it looks in turn at the justifications for BA MA and PhD courses and concludes with the divided role of the writer who teaches It argues in favour of Creative Writing as a form of hands on literary education at undergraduate level and a form of literary apprenticeship at graduate level especially in widening access to new voices It argues against those forms of Creative Writing that lose sight of literary values as seen in the proliferation of curricular couplings with non literary subjects or the increasing emphasis on developing skills for future employment Against Creative Writing written by a writer is addressed to other writers inside or outside the academy at undergraduate or graduate level whether creative or critical
