Urban Warfare Raquel Rolnik, 2019-03-26 How finance and politics have caused the global housing crisis The most comprehensive survey of the current crisis Urban Warfare charts how the financial crisis and wider urban politics have left millions homeless and in financial desperation across the world The financialization of housing has become a global catastrophe leaving millions desperate and homeless Since the 2008 financial collapse models of home ownership originating in the US and UK are being exported around the world Using examples from across the globe Rolnik shows how our cities have been sold to construction companies and banks while supported by government facilitated schemes such as the right to buy subsidies and micro financing Our homes and neighbourhoods have become the last subprime frontiers of capitalism organised by those who benefit the most

Households and Financialization in Europe Marek Mikuš, Petra Rodik, 2021-06-10 Households and Financialization in Europe develops a processual relational and critical transdisciplinary approach to household financialization in Europe utilizing a range of national and local case studies It does so by drawing on debates in Marxist feminist and radical IPE anthropology and other fields The book explores the household as simultaneously a micro level social institution specializing in social reproduction distribution and other activities a building bloc of larger economic and social structures and an object of multiple systems of power knowledge Putting this conceptualization to use in original research the authors identify geographically and historically situated ways in which financialization transforms households and their relationships with the wider economy and society The book traces these transformations in case studies of variegated financialization in Eastern and Southern European semi peripheries where households have faced particularly severe financial issues since the global financial crisis such as over indebtedness and asset devaluation Key themes recurring throughout the book include the key role of housing in household financialization the co constitutive relationship between financialization and social and spatial inequalities specific patterns in the relations of financial actors and households in semi peripheries and the implications of semi peripheral forms of real and financial accumulation for household financialization With its transdisciplinary approach this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of finance financialization household economics international and global political economy uneven development economic anthropology and economic sociology The Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Housing Finance Policy in Emerging Markets Loic Chiquier, Michael J. Lea, 2009 Housing finance markets have been changing dramatically in both emerging and developed economies On the one hand housing finance markets are expanding and represent a powerful engine for economic growth in many emerging economies However the unfolding sub prime mortgage crisis highlights the risks and potential turbulence that this sector can introduce into the financial system when expanding without proper infrastructure and regulation As housing finance keeps growing in emerging economies to match a rising demand for housing new risk management approaches business models funding tools and policy instruments can help Yet many questions remain about the right balance between innovation and regulation the extent of risks to the financial system the appropriate role of the state to promote affordable housing and the effects of the sub prime crisis This book provides a guide for policymakers dealing with housing finance in emerging markets It highlights the prerequisites for an effective housing finance system it lays out several policy alternatives and models of housing finance and it explores the role of governments in expanding access to housing finance for lower income households There is no best model set out in this book The aim is to provide a developmental roadmap that can be tailored and sequenced to each country's situation and timing Seeking Urban Transformation Muchadenyika, Davison, 2020-02-16 Seeking Urban Transformation Alternative Urban Futures in Zimbabwe tells the stories of ordinary people's struggles to remake urban centres It interrogates and highlights the principle conditions in which urban transformation takes place The main catalysts of the transformation are social movements and planning institutions Social movements pool resources and skills acquire land install infrastructure and build houses Planning institutions change policies regulations and traditions to embrace and support a new form of urban development driven by grassroots movements Besides providing a comprehensive analysis of planning and housing in Zimbabwe there is a specific focus on three urban centres of Harare Chitungwiza and Epworth In metropolitan Harare the book examines new housing and infrastructure series to the predominantly urban poor population vital roles played by the urban poor in urban development and the adoption by planning institutions of grassroots centered urban planning approaches The book draws from three case studies and in depth interviews from diverse urban shapers i.e. representatives and members of social movements urban planners engineers surveyors policy makers politicians civil society workers and students to generate a varied selection of insights and experiences Based on the Zimbabwean experience the book illustrates how actions and power of ordinary people contributes to the transformation of African cities Housing Finance in Emerging Markets Doris K Hn, J. Financing Urban Shelter Un-Habitat,2013-06-17 Achieving the goals set by world leaders in the United Nations Millennium Declaration will be difficult without a significant improvement in the lives of slum dwellers and the lives of slum dwellers cannot be improved without the sound and sustainable economic development that is conducive to the establishment of a strong shelter sector As Financing Urban Shelter Global Report on Human Settlements 2005 emphasizes one of the key challenges in meeting the Millennium Declaration Goal on slums is mobilization of the financial resources necessary for both slum upgrading and slum prevention by supplying new housing affordable to lower income groups on a large scale It is my hope that by highlighting the impacts of current shelter financing systems on low income households and by identifying the types of financing mechanisms that appear to have worked for them this report will contribute to the efforts of the wide range of actors involved in improving the lives of slum dwellers including governments at the central and local levels as well as non governmental and international organizations From the Foreword by KOFI ANNAN Secretary General United Nations Financing Urban Shelter presents the first global assessment of housing finance systems placing shelter and urban development challenges within the overall context of macroeconomic policies The report describes and analyses housing finance conditions and trends in all regions of the world including formal housing finance mechanisms microfinance and community funding highlighting their relevance to the upgrading of slums Recent shelter finance policy development is discussed at the international and national levels and the directions that could be taken to strengthen shelter finance systems are examined The Global Report on Human Settlements is the most authoritative and up to date assessment of conditions and trends in the world's cities. It is an essential tool and reference for researchers, academics, public authorities and civil society organizations around the world. The preceding issues of the Global Report on Human Settlements have addressed such topics as 'An Urbanizing World', 'Cities in a Globalizing World' and 'The Challenge of Slums'.
