Managed Body Chris Bobel,2018-10-19 The Managed Body productively complicates menstrual hygiene management MHM a growing social movement to support menstruating girls in the Global South Bobel offers an invested critique of the complicated discourses of MHM including its conceptual and practical links with the Water Sanitation and Hygiene WASH development sector human rights and the girling of development Drawing on analysis of in depth interviews participant observations and the digital materials of NGOs and social businesses Bobel shows how MHM frames problems and solutions to capture attention and direct resources to this highly tabooed topic She asserts that MHM organizations often inadvertently rely upon weak evidence and spectacularized representations to make the claim of a hygienic crisis that authorizes rescue And she argues the largely product based solutions that follow fail to challenge the social construction of the menstrual body as dirty and in need of concealment While cast as fundamental to preserving girls dignity MHM prioritizes technological fixes that teach girls to discipline their developing bodies vis a vis consumer culture a move that actually accommodates more than it resists the core problem of menstrual stigma

Building a Trauma-Responsive

Educational Practice Em Daniels,2021-12-16 This timely manual presents a new perspective on teaching and learning focused on countering the impacts of trauma on adults ability to learn Within its detailed and useful approaches Daniels provides a road map for building a trauma responsive teaching practice grounded in the principles of Trauma Informed Care and emphasizing the need for educators to develop a rigorous practice of self care Prison classrooms in particular demonstrate the intersectional and overlapping nature of systemic historical and individual traumatic experience People who rediscover themselves as learners while in corrections classrooms have a unique and powerful perspective to bring to the work of ending mass incarceration and the role of education and learning in that ending The concepts and framework presented in the text aim to expand how we define working with trauma Through this redefinition we better align teaching and learning as counters to the impacts of trauma As this alignment transforms educational philosophy and practice we have an opportunity to repurpose the nature of education itself and shift toward learning how to learn Although this book contains content specific to corrections educators or those aspiring to teach in prisons its concepts and activities are applicable to any environment or situation in which adults need to learn Adult educators front line personnel in any public service role librarians legal professionals judges lawyers all can benefit from the expertise shared in this book

How to Calm Your Mind Chris Bailey,2022-12-27 From the author of Hyperfocus a treasure trove of practical science backed strategies that reveal how the key to a less anxious life and even greater productivity is a calm state of mind After rebounding from his own burnout Bailey devised a clear eyed concise method that marries science and self help he s equally proficient in probing the roles of serotonin and endorphins while charting concrete steps in chapters titled The Mindset of More and Heights of Stimulation Slow down breathe and submerge into these pages Oprah Daily A PENGUIN LIFE BOOK It took an on stage panic attack for productivity expert Chris Bailey to recognize how critical it is to invest in calm at the same time that we invest in becoming more productive Productivity advice works and we need it now more than ever but it s just as vital that we develop our capacity for calm By finding calm and overcoming anxiety we don t just feel more comfortable in our own mind we build a deeper more expansive reservoir of energy to draw from throughout the day The pursuit of calm ultimately leads us to become more engaged focused and deliberate while making us more satisfied with our lives And because calm saves us time by making us more productive we don t even need to feel guilty about the time we spend investing in it How to Calm Your Mind is our crucial guide to achieving calm navigating anxiety and staving off burnout It explains how our digital world drains us and what we can do to abate the hidden sources of stress that burden our days Bailey has learned to embrace the analog world and stimulation fasts to use the science of savoring to become more focused and present and to relax without guilt and he shows us how we can reclaim calm too In an anxious world investing in calm might be the best productivity strategy around

Teaching Young Children: Choices In Theory And Practice Mac Naughton, Glenda,Williams, Gillian,2008-11-01 This book presents early childhood students and staff with a broad and diverse range of teaching techniques to support children's learning. It examines 26 techniques ranging from simple ones such as describing and listening to more complex methods such as deconstruction and scaffolding. The strategies selected are derived from the best current research knowledge about how young children learn. A detailed evaluation of each strategy enables childcare staff, early childhood teachers and students to expand their repertoire of teaching strategies and to critically evaluate their own teaching in early childhood settings. Vignettes and examples show how early childhood staff use the techniques to support children's learning and help to bring the discussion of each technique to life. Revised and updated in light of the latest research, new features include: Coverage of the phonics debate; Addition of ICT content; Questions for further discussion; Revision to the chapter on problem solving; Updated referencing throughout. Teaching Young Children is key reading for students and experienced early childhood staff working in diverse settings with young children.
