Articles in the World's Languages Laura Becker, 2021-09-20 This study provides a systematic overview of articles and article systems in the world s languages using a sample of 104 languages Articles can be classified into 10 types according to their referential functions definite anaphoric weak definite recognitional indefinite presentational exclusive specific nonspecific inclusive specific and referential articles All 10 types are described in detail with examples from various languages of the world The book also addresses crosslinguistic trends concerning the distribution and the development of different article types and it proposes a typology of article systems The aim of this study is to provide a general crosslinguistic overview concerning the attested properties and distributions of articles It is geared towards readers with interests in language typology and the nominal domain and it can serve as a point of reference for language specific studies of articles or determiners How to Grade for Learning Ken O'Connor, 2017-10-04 Implement standards based grading practices that help students succeed Classroom assessment methods should help students develop to their full potential but meshing traditional grading practices with students achievement on standards has been difficult Making lasting changes to grading practices requires both knowledge and willpower Discover eight guidelines for good grading recommendations for practical applications and suggestions for implementing new grading practices as well as The why s and the how to s of implementing standards based grading practices Tips from 48 nationally and internationally known authors and consultants Additional information on utilizing level scores rather than percentages Reflective exercises Techniques for managing grading more efficiently Interculturality in Learning Mandarin Chinese in British Universities Tinghe Jin,2020-11-29 As China and Chinese language learning moves centre stage economically and politically questions of interculturality assume even greater significance In this book interculturality draws attention to the processes involved in people engaging and exchanging with each other across languages nationalities and ethnicities The study which adopts an ecological perspective critically examines a range of issues and uses a variety of sources to conduct a multifaceted investigation Data gathered from interviews with students of Mandarin sit alongside a critical discussion of a wide range of sources Interculturality in Learning Mandarin Chinese in British Universities will be of interest to students and academics studying and researching Chinese language education and academics working in the fields of language and intercultural communication intercultural education and language education in general The Perfect Law of Liberty: Or, the Glory of God Revealed in the Gospel Second Edition William GADSBY,1819 Conference proceedings. ICT for language learning. 10th Edition Pixel,2017-10-23 FCO performance and finances Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2011-02-11 This report focusses on the FCO s financial situation and the implications of the Spending Review 2010 for its work and performance and that of its associated body the British Council The FCO is one of the major departmental losers in the Spending Review Reductions in spending on the FCO if they result in shortfalls in skilled personnel and technical support in key countries and regions can have a serious effect in terms of the UK s relations with foreign countries out of all proportion to the amounts of money involved especially in relation to the UK s security and that of its Overseas Territories Cuts to the core FCO budget of even 10% may have a damaging effect on the Department s ability to promote UK interests overseas The FCO will also face cuts of 55% to its capital budget The target of raising 50 million per year through selling existing buildings may be difficult to achieve and may not secure savings in the long term A further reduction in the opportunities for more junior UK based staff to serve in overseas posts and a consequent diminishing of experience and morale among FCO employees could over time have a damaging effect on the quality of British diplomacy and the effectiveness of the FCO The British Council facing a 25% cut in spending should give detailed information on its strategy for implementing the cut which may well trigger fundamental rethinking of the role and work of the Council Language Machines Leif Weatherby,2025-06-24 How generative AI systems capture a core function of language Looking at the emergence of generative AI Language Machines presents a new theory of meaning in language and computation arguing that humanistic scholarship misconstrues how large language models LLMs function Seeing LLMs as a convergence of computation and language Leif Weatherby contends that AI does not simulate cognition as widely believed but rather creates culture This evolution in language he finds is one that we are ill prepared to evaluate as what he terms remainder humanism counterproductively divides the human from the machine without drawing on established theories of representation that include both To determine the consequences of using AI for language generation Weatherby reads linguistic theory in conjunction with the algorithmic architecture of LLMs He finds that generative AI captures the ways in which language is at first complex cultural and poetic and only later referential functional and cognitive This process is the semiotic hinge on which an emergent AI culture depends Weatherby calls for a general poetics of computational cultural forms under the formal conditions of the algorithmic reproducibility of language Locating the output of LLMs on a spectrum from poetry to ideology Language Machines concludes that literary theory must be the backbone of a new rhetorical training for our linguistic computational culture
