African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America's diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children's literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia

Listening Jonathan Cott, 2020-04-21 A wide ranging collection of interviews and profiles from twenty years of Jonathan Cott's remarkable writings All I really need to do is simply ask a question Jonathan Cott occasionally reminds himself And then listen It sounds simple but in fact few have taken the art of asking questions to such heights and depths as Jonathan Cott whom Jan Morris called an incomparable interviewer one whose skill according to the great interviewer and oral historian Studs Terkel is artless yet impassioned and knowing Collected here are twenty two of Cott s most illuminating interviews that encourage readers to listen to film directors and musicians actors and writers scientists and visionaries These conversations affirm the indispensable and transformative powers of the imagination and offer us new ways to view these lives and their worlds What is it like to be Bob Dylan making a movie Carl Sagan taking on the cosmos Oliver Sacks doctoring the soul John Lennon on December 5 1980 Elizabeth Taylor ever From Chinua Achebe to Dr Seuss Theodor Geisel Federico Fellini to Werner Herzog and Oriana Fallaci to Studs Terkel Listening takes readers on a journey to discover not ways of life but ways to life Within these pages Cott proves himself to be in the words of Brain Pickings s Maria Popova an interlocutor extraordinaire drawing candid insights and profound observations from these inspired and inspiring individuals

How Porcupine Got His Spines George N. Kamau, 2003 A long time ago many animals lived in a beautiful green country with trees and plenty of food and water But after many years there was little food or water left So a clever monkey who was more powerful than the other animals employs a porcupine to store and protect some food for him The other animals a hare and a mole try to deceive the porcupine and steal the food They try many tricks and eventually succeed The monkey becomes very angry and orders his workers to shoot at porcupine with bows and arrows But instead of dying the porcupine remains covered in spines and is able to protect himself
