Preach the Word Myles MacBean, 2019-11-11 How should we help equip the church leaders of Africa today There remains a well documented lack of theologically sound Bible centric preaching in Sub Saharan Africa The majority of sermons are preached by untrained or undertrained church leaders Following a practical theology praxis this book develops a conceptual framework for the evaluation of existing alternative approaches to grassroots preacher training It also proposes broad principles for effective preacher training and offers a practical solution The 20th century had seen the Christian church in Africa grow 36 fold to 360 million This amazing growth is arguably the largest religious change in human history in such a short period It has shifted the focus of Christianity from North to South This rapid growth is debatably considered by some missiologists and theologians to have resulted in an African church a mile wide and an inch deep That is a church of great size but lacking in spiritual depth The rapid growth has led to insufficient numbers of trained leaders being available to oversee their congregations Most leaders are unpaid Untrained or undertrained leaders have an inadequate knowledge of scripture and lack understanding of its interpretation They also lack the skills they need to communicate its truths Even so they preach up to 90% of the sermons in rural Africa Despite a tremendous hunger for training among many of those preachers traditional college based theological education cannot keep up with the demand for trained pastors and preachers in an affordable or culturally appropriate manner

Re-imagining Indigenous Knowledge and Practices in 21st Century Africa Tenson M. Muyambo, Anniegrace M. Hlatywayo, Pindai M. Sithole, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2022-01-13 This book is on the re imagination of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS and practices in 21st century Africa Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book critically interrogates epistemological erasures and injustices meted against African IKS and practices It magnifies the different contexts where African IKS were and continue to be used effectively for collective and personal benefit Beyond the legitimate frustration and disheartenment expressed by the contributors to this volume over the systematic colonial efforts to render inferior and delegitimize African systems of knowing and knowledge production the book makes an important contribution to the quest to correct misconceptions and misrepresentations by Eurocentric thinkers and practitioners about African indigenous knowledges. The book makes an informed claim that the future and vibrancy of African indigenous knowledge and practices lie in how well scholars of knowledge studies and decoloniality in and on Africa are able to join hands in articulating, debating and fronting their vitality and relevance in varied real life situations. More importantly, the book provides a re-invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the important role and continued relevance of African IKS and practices in the understanding, interpreting and tackling of the social unfoldings of everyday life and dynamism. Without romanticising African IKS and practices, the book provides added insights and pointers on policy and trends. It is an important addition to critical debates on knowledge studies across fields. Neoliberalism, Nordic Welfare States and Social Work Masoud Kamali, Jessica Jönsson, 2018-04-17. How have three decades of neoliberalism affected the Nordic welfare states as well as the organisation, education and practices of social work in those countries? During recent decades, the welfare states of Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden have gone through dramatic changes influenced by the political triumph of neoliberalism. This has led to both the electoral success of extreme right and mainstream neoliberal parties and to the neoliberal ideological transformations of social democratic parties. The neoliberal doctrine of making governance cheaper has thus been made the focus of governance and has led to increased marginalisation and social problems. This is the first book to comparatively explore the role of neoliberal reforms on social work and social policy across the Nordic welfare states. The richly theoretical and empirical chapters explore and illustrate the consequences of the dominance of neoliberal policies and provide an analysis of the effects of globalisation, glocalisation, welfare nationalism, symbolic violence and forced migration. The book provides valuable insights into the shortcomings of retreating welfare states in a time of increasing glocal social problems. Neoliberalism, Nordic Welfare States and Social Work should be considered essential reading for critical social work education. Students, scholars, educators and researchers of Nordic countries and beyond have much to learn from this book. Epilepsy Management in African Society Ngonidzashe Mutanana, 2024-10-15. The majority of Africans have refused to accept the Western definition of epilepsy or causes of epilepsy. To this end, they have chosen the traditional mode in dealing with epilepsy. In this book, the author explores the various indigenous health-seeking behaviours of people with epilepsy in Africa and there are some specific case studies in Zimbabwe, a country located within the southern region of Africa. These case studies clearly show the perceptions, attitudes and knowledge of Africans towards anti-epilepsy medication, lived experiences of Africans on anti-epilepsy medication, indigenous practices in epilepsy management and perceptions of Africans towards the effectiveness of indigenous health-seeking behaviours on epilepsy management. Finally, the researcher proffers a model that he thinks will assist towards the management of epilepsy that encompasses both traditional and western medications. This book also explores the sustainability of epilepsy management within the context of indigenous health practices, the use of complementary or alternative medicines and the Ubuntu philosophy and indigenous practices on epilepsy management in African societies
