Wills,2019-12-11 From the author of Reconstruction Pieces of Life Volume 1 and Crying Tears of

Teal Serena continues where she left off with a book filled with the ebbs and flow of life while one is healing from a relationship. As one was reconstructing their foundation based on giving too much of themselves to someone in Pieces of Life Volume 1 and rediscovering their spirituality and loving themselves, other things were happening. The pathway still has its challenges and opposition such as work place blues, racial incidents, illness, and losing loved ones. It also has great joy and opportunities are birthed through creativity, taking a leap of faith, and rediscovering one's passion. Come along this new poetic journey that reflects on the path of one being raised without a father, trials and tribulations, cradling a baby born to a teenage mother, and beginning to discover their true calling in life. Experience The Awakening. I read Serena's poetry book every morning as a form of mental sustenance and meditation. She has brought more beauty to my world. Lindsay Greene ESQ. This book was first an iTunes App for the iPhone. It was so well received that I decided to make it available in book form. The book form will include three funeral sermons previously published on iTunes as Vital Thoughts on Grief. All too often we leave that to Christian theologians. But in this excellent volume, Rabbi Joseph Telushkin puts the commandment to love at the center of Jewish theology and experience. This is a book that will change the way you think about and practice Judaism. Professor Ari L. Goldman, Columbia University and author of The Search for God at Harvard. Love your neighbor as yourself is the best known commandment in the Bible. Yet we rarely hear anyone talk about how to apply these words in daily life. In this landmark work, Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, one of the premier scholars and thinkers of our time, gives both Jews and non-Jews an extraordinary summation of what Jewish tradition teaches about putting these words into practice. Writing with great clarity and simplicity, as well as with deep wisdom, Telushkin covers topics such as love and kindness, hospitality, visiting the sick, comforting mourners, charity, relations between Jews and non-Jews, compassion for animals, tolerance, self-defense, and end-of-life issues. This second volume of the first major code of Jewish ethics written in the English language is breathtaking in its scope and will undoubtedly influence readers for generations to come. It offers hundreds of practical examples from the Torah, the Talmud, the Midrash, and both ancient and modern rabbinic commentaries, as well as contemporary anecdotes, all teaching us how to care for one another each and every day A Code of Jewish Ethics Volume 2 Love Your Neighbor as Yourself is a consummate work of scholarship Like its acclaimed predecessor which received the National Jewish Book Award it is rich with ideas to contemplate and discuss while being primarily a book to live by Nothing could be more important in these strife torn times than learning how to love our neighbors as ourselves The message of this book is as vital and timely now as it has been since time immemorial
