Growing Up In Grace The Use Of Means For Communion With God:

Growing Up In Grace Murray Brett, 2009-01-01 Christianity as possession is not simply an experience of salvation in the past nor simply a status once for all bestowed It is a high and holy vocation to be fulfilled in all who name Christ's name We dare not rest until we attain to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus This book addresses our consciences about the character of our Christian way Is there credible godliness Is there a deepening growing relationship with our Lord Is the Love of Jesus Christ constraining our behavior love so amazing so divine demanding our souls our lives and our all and are we giving the Lord affectionate obedience in return Called into Communion Susan B. Carole, 2013-03-20 This book illuminates the experiential and theocentric dimensions of holiness theology It acknowledges two strands of thought in current holiness theology Wesley's Christian perfection and entire sanctification as propagated in the early days of the American Holiness Movement It honors the contribution of both these strands by identifying the deep harmony in the holiness message of John Wesley and Phineas Bresee Using insights from Wesley and Bresee the author develops a paradigm for holiness theology from the standpoint of its transcendent goal Called into Communion explicates entire sanctification as revelatory and salvific a necessary threshold experience for complete openness to God This approach illuminates the rootedness of holiness theology in the triune fellowship of holy love The communion perspective affirms holiness theology as the underlying theological principle for a missional ecclesiology since participation in God characterizes the church as a doxological fellowship of holy love and determines the church's redemptive action Seminarians and pastors will find in this book a new perspective on the holiness message It extends the horizon of reflection to the grace that seeks out and enables human partners for a transformative fellowship of genuine reciprocity with God Breaking of Bread Charles Chauncy, 1816 A Homiletic Encyclopaedia of Illustrations in Theology and Morals. ... Robert Aitkin Bertram, 1885
