Small Town Boy Norman Burris,2009-03-10 There is no available information at this time Small-Town America Robert Wuthnow,2015-05-26 A revealing examination of small town life More than thirty million Americans live in small out of the way places Many of them could have joined the vast majority of Americans who live in cities and suburbs They could live closer to more lucrative careers and convenient shopping a wider range of educational opportunities and more robust health care But they have opted to live differently In Small Town America we meet factory workers shop owners retirees teachers clergy and mayors residents who show neighborliness in small ways but who also worry about everything from school closings and their children s futures to the ups and downs of the local economy Drawing on more than seven hundred in depth interviews in hundreds of towns across America and three decades of census data Robert Wuthnow shows the fragility of community in small towns He covers a host of topics including the symbols and rituals of small town life the roles of formal and informal leaders the social role of religious congregations the perception of moral and economic decline and the myriad ways residents in small towns make sense of their own lives Wuthnow also tackles difficult issues such as class and race abortion homosexuality and substance abuse Small Town America paints a rich panorama of individuals who reside in small communities finding that for many people living in a small town is an important part of self identity She's Not All That - Just A Girl From Mississippi Sharoslyn Benton,2024-10-31 This book tells the story of a girl who grew up in Shaw Mississippi As a child she faced many challenges such as losing her father to prison her mother working long hours being bullied by her siblings and more These experiences affected her in ways she didn t fully understand As she grew older the traumas she experienced continued to have an impact on her life making it difficult for her to move forward and causing her to feel stuck in the past Despite not having guidance on navigating life s challenges Sharoslyn always had a vision for her future success However fear held her back and she struggled to know where to begin Despite many setbacks Sharoslyn persevered and eventually found the strength to break free from fear and let her faith guide her This was only the beginning of her journey toward something genuinely extraordinary Untold Narratives Shawn Anthony Robinson,2018-02-01 This edited book reflects a much needed area of scholarship as the voices of African American AA or Black students defined by various labels such as learning disability blindness visual impairment cognitive development speech or language impairment and hearing impairment are rare within the scholarly literature Students tagged with those identifiers within the Pk 20 academic system have not only been ignored and discounted but have also had their learning framed from a deficit perspective rather than a strength based perspective Moreover it was uncommon to hear first person narratives about how AA students have understood their positions within the general education and special education systems Therefore with a pervasive lack of knowledge when it comes to understanding the experiences of AA with disabilities this book describes personal experiences and challenges the idea that AA students with disabilities are substandard While this book will emphasize successful narratives it will also provide counter narratives to demystify the myth that those with disabilities cannot succeed or obtain terminal degrees Overall this edited book is a much needed contribution to the scholarly literature and may help teachers across a wide array of academic disciplines in meeting the academic and social needs of AA students with disabilities

ENDORSEMENTS Dr Shawn Robinson's collection of personal narratives raises critical questions about the U S public education system Written by African Americans compartmentalized in special education programs because of actual or perceived disabilities these stories will impel readers even tangentially affiliated with educational institutions to consider testing placement mainstreaming retention and promotion and other assessment policies that determine grade level readiness Thanks to Robinson the perspectives of these graduates who surmounted barriers to more positive and accommodating learning environments now receive proper attention John Pruitt University of Wisconsin Rock County With a bold vision Dr Shawn Anthony Robinson enters the discussion of Special Education with a collection of narratives that highlight the struggles and triumphs of marginalized students In America we have a long contested history of inclusion of students of color and difference in our public mainstream institutions When these students are invited to the education table they still must overcome persistent and pernicious barriers to true and equal educational opportunities Consequently students are left to sink or swim in oceans disparity and inequity This collection of narratives and counter narratives confront the absence of adequate research and other empirical evidence of pedagogy and practice that would be essential to 21st Century progress in educational praxis This volume represents one important step towards adding new voices to the continuing struggle of meaningful inclusion How might students of color and difference succeed in an education system that provides no room to bloom The authors address this challenge by exploring topics such as Aspirational Capital Linguistic Capital Familial Capital Social Capital Navigational Capital and Resistance Capital The reader will be exposed to ideas that will help students make a way out of no way by working both within and against educational systems full of barriers and opportunities Congratulations to Dr Robinson and his colleagues as the content of this volume represents an important contribution to the extant literature Gregory A Diggs Denver Colorado

Bird Spotting in a Small Town Sophie Morton-Thomas, 2024-02-08 My feet are itching to walk to the shore to leave the kids again to sit with the birds and pretend none of this has happened In a small isolated town on the North Norfolk coast Fran's life is unravelling As she fills her days cleaning the caravan park she owns she is preoccupied by worry about the behaviour of her son the growing absence of her husband and the strained relationship with her sister Her one source of solace is slipping out to the beach early in the morning to watch the birds Small town tension simmers when a new teacher starts at the local school and a Romany community settle in the field adjoining Fran's caravan park From the distance of his caravan seventy year old Tad quietly watches the townspeople mainly Fran's family When the schoolteacher and Fran's brother in law both go missing on the same night accusations fly Yet all Fran can seem to care about is the birds An eerie and unsettling novel Bird Spotting in a Small Town perfectly encapsulates the intensity of rural claustrophobia when you don't know who you can trust A haunting disquieting novel exquisitely written The detail throughout is like acupuncture and the whole thing is difficult to pull away from I read it in short bursts because each sitting left me with something new to think about IAN MOORE author of Death and Croissants The kind of book that gets under your skin hugely atmospheric and dark in the best possible way JENNIE GODFREY author of The List of Suspicious Things Perfect for fans of Francine Toon's Pine and hit British crime dramas like Broadchurch and Hollington Drive Book Boyfriends Wanted Box Set #2: A Steamy Small-Town Curvy Girl Romance Collection Mary E Thompson, Enjoy this steamy Plus Size Romance series by USA TODAY Bestselling small town romance author Mary E Thompson They might not be strangers but they're definitely not friends Enemies maybe Faking it definitely Letting down their guard and letting love sneak past all their defenses Absolutely This box set contains three full length small town contemporary romances about falling in love with someone you never saw coming His Curvy Frustration From the moment they met Trinity pushed all of James's buttons Sneaking under his skin and making him want her Not that she felt the same She made that perfectly clear But when Trinity needs a cop James is there Helping her supporting her there for her the way he was for everyone else in town She didn't know how to handle that or how to handle her real feelings toward him His Curvy Gift The only thing Gavin's aunt was better at than bait and switch was guilt tripping him And she did both to get him to visit her small town for the holidays It wasn't all bad though Not when he talked Piper into pretending they were together It was a harmless lie One Piper enjoyed when Gavin squirmed But every kiss and touch and night no longer felt fake for her But this time she might not recover from a broken heart His Curvy Outcast Loner Outcast Banished Rowan owned the terms but his temporary small town was growing on him Until all his new friends warn him to stay away from the one woman he wanted to get closer to Willow had no one in her corner First a ticket then a drink She couldn't figure out the new cop in town And she didn't want to Taking the drink was a bad idea Letting him kiss her was a worse one And letting him in Biggest mistake of all Because he was addicting and Willow knew better than to think good things happened to her
