How Dare You Helpful Staying:

Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1884 The Living Age, 1866 Restavec Jean-Robert Cadet, 2009-09-15 This inspiring memoir recounts a man's harrowing journey from unpaid child labor in Haiti to a successful life in the United States. African slaves in Haiti emancipated themselves from French rule in 1804 and created the first independent black republic in the Western Hemisphere. But they reinstituted slavery for the most vulnerable members of Haitian society: the children of the poor, by using them as unpaid servants to the wealthy. These children were and still are restavecs, a French term whose literal meaning of staying with disguises the unrelenting labor abuse and denial of education that characterizes the children's lives. In this memoir, Jean Robert Cadet recounts the harrowing story of his youth as a restavec as well as his inspiring climb to middle class American life. He vividly describes what it was like to be an unwanted illegitimate child staying with a well-to-do family whose physical and emotional abuse was sanctioned by Haitian society. He also details his subsequent life in the United States where, despite American racism, he put himself through college and found success in the Army, in business, and finally in teaching.
