Ikpeze,2015-04-27 Teaching across Cultures Building Pedagogical Relationships in Diverse Contexts captures the tensions complexities as well as the transformational potentials of teaching across multiple cultural contexts The book evolved from cumulative self studies that examined one teacher educator s teaching practice the cultural impact on this practice and how she facilitated transformative teaching and learning While every act of teaching occurs across cultures such as institutional culture invisible cultures classroom cultures among others educators who teach as cultural outsiders have to navigate the tensions complexities and contradictory realities of cross cultural teaching The tensions can be reduced or managed through responsive pedagogy relationship building and teaching in the third space These transformational approaches not only help to identify and close the perpetual gaps in teaching and learning but also position effective teaching within a pedagogical common ground that values student voices facilitates pedagogical flexibility and uses diversity as a teaching tool In a world of ubiquitous and interactive learning environments both the physical and virtual spaces play a vital role in teaching and teacher student relationships The book points to the necessity of teacher educators learning through diverse professional networks but more importantly through self study It is only through this introspective examination of one s teaching and students learning as well as taking an ontological attitude to teaching that educators can achieve success in diverse contexts

Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. Parrillo,2008-05-22 From terrorism to social inequality and from health care to environmental issues social problems affect us all The Encyclopedia will offer an interdisciplinary perspective into these and many other social problems that are a continuing concern in our lives whether we confront them on a personal local regional national or global level Luke 6:40 and the Theme of Likeness Education in the New Testament

Thomas W. Hudgins,2014-01-07 What does Jesus mean when he says A disciple is not above his teacher but each disciple after being fully trained will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 This verse has been quoted cited and referenced in vast amounts of Christian education and discipleship literature Nevertheless the verse is nearly untouched in exegetical discussions with the exception of source critical analyses From this verse arises an undeveloped theme in the Gospel of Luke and the New Testament the theme of likeness education Using content analysis methodology Luke 6 40 one of the keystone passages in Christian education literature serves as the starting point for mining out the theme of likeness education in the New Testament This study consists of three concentric areas of investigation 1 Luke 6 40 and its immediate context 2 Luke Acts and 3 the New Testament corpus Knowledge into Action Danny P. Wallace,Connie J. Van Fleet,2012-06-12 The only book currently available that comprehensively integrates research and evaluation for evidence based library and information science practice Numerous books cover research and evaluation in general but not within the context of library and information science Many others cover the field of library and information science overall but with little focus on research Knowledge into Action Research and Evaluation in Library and Information Science offers in a single volume an expert introduction to these two distinct yet deeply interrelated phases of information gathering as they are practiced in the information sciences Knowledge into Action takes readers through the core principles working processes and practical tools for conducting and evaluating research in library and information science enhancing the presentation with examples informational graphics study questions and exercises directly relevant to this field It is a welcomed resource for students and scholars who want to use appropriate techniques for gathering and assessing research as well as information professionals looking to improve services at their libraries or information centers The book is also designed to educate practitioners as consumers of the research and evaluation literature and as active participants in professional conferences meetings and workshops

Beyond Marginality Hollie J. Mackey, Elizabeth T.
