WINTER CELEBRATIONS AROUND THE WORLD

Chinese New Year

Figuring out the dates on which to celebrate the Chinese New Year is a little confusing. China has had many different rulers throughout history. The dates of the Chinese New Year have changed with the different rulers. The Chinese originally celebrated the New Year at the beginning of the first month of the lunar calendar. Then, they began recognizing New Year's Day on January 1st starting in 1912. January 1st is the day that the Chinese celebrate New Year's Day today. But, the Chinese still celebrate their beloved Chinese New Year. It takes place at the beginning of the first month of the lunar calendar. This always falls between January 21st and February 19th. This holiday, which is also known as the Spring Festival or the Lunar New Year, is a fifteen-day long celebration.

The Chinese New Year has jokingly been called the Largest Family Reunion Ever. Approximately 3.62 billion people travel to be with loved ones during this time. Once they are together, families enjoy a New Year's Eve feast. This meal includes many symbolic dishes. An entire fish, dumplings, and long noodles are all served. Each of these foods represents something. For example, the whole fish represents abundance. The dumplings represent the elders of the family pass out small red envelopes to the children in the family. These envelopes and firecracker explosions fill the streets on the first day of the New Year. This marks the end of the end of each winter. Nian is also the Chinese word for "year." In an attempt to ward off the monster, the Chinese wear bright red colors. They also make loud noises by setting off firecrackers. Black represents death.

There are many superstitions that go along with the fifteen-day New Year's celebration. On the first day of the celebration, people do not shower. They also do not take out the trash or do the laundry. Each of these activities is thought to wash away the good luck that comes with the New Year. The second day is a family day. It is also believed to be the birthday of all dogs. So, many Chinese people give their pets special treats on this day. Visiting friends and family is not allowed on the third day of the celebration. This is thought to prevent arguments and bad luck from coming to the Chinese people. The seventh day brings birthday celebrations. It is the day when everyone is believed to grow one year older. The Chinese also clean out their homes. It is said that this is to sweep away bad luck from the previous year.
