Habit Of Labor Lessons From A Life Of Struggle And Success:

The Habit of Labor Stef Wertheimer, 2015-10-20 There is no better way to explain the miracle of Israel than to examine the life of Stef Wertheimer A story to be read by everyone Warren Buffett Forced to flee Nazi Germany with his family at age ten Stef Wertheimer came to British Palestine in the late 1930s He promptly dropped out of school learned a trade through apprenticeship and played a meaningful role in Israel's War of Independence He also started a company ISCAR that began in a shed and ultimately made him one of the world's great self-made industrialists In The Habit of Labor Wertheimer shares the lessons he learned from a life of hardship and struggle in one of the world's newest industrial powers Both a pragmatist and a visionary Wertheimer has devoted much of his life to promoting Jewish and Arab economic development through innovative educational and vocational programs along with the establishment of a series of thriving industrial parks in Israel and in Turkey The future of Israel he believes is not in military might or diplomatic alliances but in its growing economic clout

The Unwanted Michael Dobbs, 2020-03-10 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum a riveting story of Jewish families seeking to escape Nazi Germany In 1938 on the eve of World War II the American journalist Dorothy Thompson wrote that a piece of paper with a stamp on it was the difference between life and death The Unwanted is the intimate account of a small village on the edge of the Black Forest whose Jewish families desperately pursued American visas to flee the Nazis Battling formidable bureaucratic obstacles some make it to the United States while others are unable to obtain the necessary documents Some are murdered in Auschwitz their applications for American visas still pending Drawing on previously unpublished letters diaries interviews and visa records Michael Dobbs provides an illuminating account of America's response to the refugee crisis of the 1930s and 1940s He describes the deportation of German Jews to France in October 1940 along with their continuing quest for American visas And he re-creates the heated debates among U.S. officials over whether or not to admit refugees amid growing concerns about fifth columnists at a time when the American public was deeply isolationist xenophobic and antisemitic A Holocaust story that is both German and American The Unwanted vividly captures the experiences of a small community struggling to survive amid tumultuous world events

Parry's Literary Journal, 1886 Students Learning in Communities Eija Kimonen, Raimo Nevalainen, 2022-04-04 This book examines the interplay between education and society in the 20th and early 21st centuries and addresses philosophical views and educational aims with their associated values for community-based learning in the U.S., India, Russia, and China The philosophical background of community-based learning in these countries relies both on national philosophical traditions and on reformist ideas in international schools of thought over time opposition to certain international pedagogical ideas surfaced in these countries The authors offer a comprehensive picture of community-based learning in education and demonstrate how teachers can make learning more functional and holistic so that students can work in new situations within their complex worlds School-specific descriptions reveal how teachers and students
