Ryan, 2003 The season of Lent the Church's spring begins the celebration of the dying and rising of Jesus a time of deep personal renewal only completed in the Easter season With the revival of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Lent returns to its original character as a time of formation for catechumens But the Sunday and daily liturgical readings for the season of Lent do more than prepare catechumens for the reception of Baptism at the Easter Vigil Even the long baptized can progress through the liturgical readings of this season into a deeper experience of their Baptism their death and rebirth in the Lord As in the early Church all of us can take the season of Lent and especially its forty weekdays of fasting as an opportunity to turn back to the Lord our God Patrick Ryan's reflections on the liturgical readings of the Lenten season arise not only from study of the scriptural passages involved but also from his extensive familiarity with the history of religion and his long experience of life in the Christian churches both of Africa and the United States From years of inter religious encounter he has come to a different sense of the Paschal mystery one enriched by a broad appreciation for the complexity of human longing religious and secular for the transcendent Smothered with Inexhaustible Mercy Mark G. Weekly Reflections for Your Journey helps readers respond to this invitation by reflecting on their relationship with God Through the grace of our Baptism we have become sons and daughters of God As such we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit to reject sin and choose instead to follow God Each week readers consider this choice as they reflect on the questions asked before Baptism These questions or baptismal promises shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life They call us to become witnesses of our faith to others especially to those who are preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil Our Lenten journey leads us to the celebration of Easter where we renew our baptismal promises and rejoice in the salvation gained for us by Christ s Resurrection Each week s reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included Overcome with Paschal Joy Mark G. Boyer,2016-06-30 The Lent Easter seasons cover one fourth of the year or 25 percent of the liturgical year One of the many things we do as Roman Catholics is sing Lenten and Easter hymns During Lent we express our sorrow for sin as we pray fast and give alms During Easter we shout Alleluias at the end of many hymns to express our praise of God for having raised Christ from the dead Thus those who observe Lent and Easter sing religious hymns written for each season The sounds of Lenten hymns in minor keys give way to Easter hymns in major ones This book presents an exercise for every day of Lent and Easter that combines the daily Scripture texts from the Lectionary for Mass with religious hymns sung during Lent and Easter It is designed to be used by individuals for private prayer or by families for public prayer A six part exercise is offered for every one of the 135 entries 1 the liturgical day 2 the daily Scripture texts 3 a verse from a traditional hymn 4 a reflection 5 a question for personal meditation and 6 a concluding prayer Journey to the Cross Myra B.
