God Is Red A Native View Of Religion 30th Anniversary Edition:

God Is Red Vine Deloria Jr., 2023-06-20 A 50th anniversary revised edition of the beloved classic God is Red First published in 1973 Vine Deloria Jr's God Is Red remains the seminal work on Native American religious views asking the reader to think about our species and our ultimate fate in novel ways Celebrating five decades of publication with this new edition Deloria's classic work reminds us to understand that we are a part of nature not a transcendent species with no responsibilities to the natural world It is time again to listen to Vine Deloria Jr's powerful voice informing us about a spiritual life that is independent of Western religion and that reveres the interconnectedness of all living things This new edition includes critical essays engaging with the original material by well known Indigenous thinkers Philip Deloria Suzan Shown Harjo Daniel Wildcat and David E Wilkins Inside the book covers a wide variety of topics including the problem of creation the origin of religion Death and Human personality God is Red should be read and re read by Americans who want to understand why the United States keeps losing the peace war after war Leslie Marmon Silko God is Red Vine Deloria, 1973 Deloria a prominent Native American educator lawyer and philosopher has updated his classic work on native religion In God is Red Deloria argues convincingly that Christianity has failed today's society and describes basic tenets that underlie Native religions His other works include Behind the Trail of Broken Treaties and Custer Died for Your Sins Over, Under, Around, and Through Jill S. Tietjen, Elinor Greenberg, 2023-06-18 Everyone experiences obstacles as they live their lives The public seems to believe that successful people have not faced obstacles That is not true Successful people experience significant challenges and obstacles over the course of their lifetimes The secret is in how they surmount those obstacles and use them to learn and to grow stronger The Work presents short profiles of fifty women who have been inducted into both the Colorado Hall of Fame and others discussing how they dealt with significant obstacles and challenges in their lives These stories are presented within a framework of ten key characteristics that are embodied in these Hall of Famers and that are responsible for their successes in overcoming the challenges and obstacles that they met throughout their lifelong journeys mental intelligence emotional intelligence social support moral compass spirituality determination perseverance persistence optimism creativity resilience action orientation and passion God is Red Vine Deloria, 2003

God is Red Vine Deloria, 1994 God is Red Vine Deloria, 2003 The seminal work on Native religious views asking questions about our species and our ultimate fate The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, 2012-03-22 While Native Americans are perhaps the most studied people in our society they too often remain the least understood and visible Fictions and stereotypes predominate obscuring substantive and fascinating facts about Native societies The Extraordinary Book of Native American Lists works to remedy this problem by compiling fun unique and significant facts about Native groups into one volume complete with references to additional online and print resources In this volume readers can learn about Native figures from a diverse range of cultures and professions including award winning athletes authors filmmakers musicians and environmentalists Readers are introduced to Native U S senators Medal of Freedom winners Medal of Honor recipients Major League baseball players and U S Olympians as well as a U S vice president a NASA astronaut a National Book Award recipient and a Pulitzer Prize winner Other categories found in this book are History Stereotypes and Myths Tribal Government Federal Tribal Relations State Tribal Relations Native Lands and Environmental Issues Health Religion Economic Development Military Service and War Education Native Languages Science and Technology Food Visual Arts Literary and Performing Arts Film Music and Dance Print Radio and Television Sports and Games Exhibitions Pageants and Shows Alaska Natives Native Hawaiians Urban Indians Including further fascinating facts this wonderful resource will be a great addition not only to tribal libraries but to public and academic libraries individuals and scholars as well The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics D. Stephen Long,Rebekah L.

Miles,2023-01-01 The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics brings together two different but related disciplines the first is contemplative or theoretical asking what are the beliefs or doctrines that characterize Christianity whilst the second is practical asking what are the ethical practices that attend its teachings The movement between the theoretical and practical aspects is not however one way as doctrine and life are mutually informing In this comprehensive volume leading scholars address key topics problems and debates in this hotly debated topic within a truly global context Comprising over 35 chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into three parts based on the three persons of the Trinity God the Father God the Son and God the Holy Spirit Within these sections cutting edge issues are examined including God and genetics War peace and violence White supremacy Creation and sexuality Digital ethics Transgender studies Climate change Immigration and refugees Adopting a practical approach that must consider new concerns that have arisen with recent social political and cultural shifts The Routledge Companion to Christian Ethics is essential reading for students and researchers in Christian ethics religious ethics and Christianity studies The handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as ethics and philosophy On Prophets, Warriors, and Kings George J. Brooke,Ariel

Feldman,2016-05-10 While recent decades have seen a plethora of studies exploring the complex processes that shaped biblical books traditionally designated as Prophets much remains to be done in order to uncover the rich history of their interpretation throughout the ages This collection of essays aims at filling this gap by exploring different aspects of the exegesis of the Former and Latter Prophets in contexts both ancient and modern Jewish and Christian From the inner biblical interpretation of the Prophets to the Dead Sea Scrolls Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha the New Testament Patristic writings and contemporary rhetoric this volume sheds light on how key figures in those books were read and understood by both ancient and not so ancient readers Pagan and Earth-Centered Voices in Unitarian Universalism Jerrie Kishpaugh Hildebrand,Shirley Ann Ranck,2017 These 23 essays by some of the most prominent leaders in Unitarian Universalist Paganism bring Pagan and Earth centered theo alogy to life for a new generation Featuring the writings of both clergy and laypeople this vibrant collection demonstrates the many expressions of nature based spirituality and the ways they feed the souls of so many The essayists describe a broad array of practices including Wiccan traditions Neo Pagan rituals and celebrations worship of the divine feminine and nature based beliefs and practices that bring us into harmony and balance with our natural environment Contributors also describe the development of nature based theology within Unitarian Universalism including the organization of the Covenant of Unitarian Universalist Pagans the addition of the sixth Source to the UUA bylaws recognizing Earth centered spirituality and the integration of Pagan practices into congregational life

Artefacts of Encounter Karen O'Brien, 2025-09-15 This book presents corresponding images and essays of fifty early modern artefacts of encounters between European explorers and indigenous peoples addressing relationships and material exchanges that extend beyond this framework to encompass diverse interactions across early modern societies The artefacts selected for inclusion in this volume convey early modern visual dialogues value systems and imagery through paintings photographs maps drawings buildings books icons sacred sites and entities dwellings and natural settings Placing these objects within a comparative and international context O'Brien considers the representation of these interactions as they are expressed through a wide gamut of human emotional experiences such as life death grief pain pleasure belief sadness and conflict along with the extended perspective of image reproduction In doing so the book locates the realities of early modern existence the emotional legal spiritual and violent encounters that encompass everyday experiences in an expansive and varying spatial cultural geographical and temporal context The book will interest students scholars and general readers within a broad range of history subdisciplines including early modern history indigenous history comparative history and socio legal history and is also a useful text for undergraduate courses in politics law indigenous studies and global studies

Barth and Ecotheology Adrian Langdon, 2025-03-31 Barth and Ecotheology offers a critical and constructive reading of Karl Barth's theology in the context of the Anthropocene It reflects on how a contemporary doctrine of creation must be broad enough to address issues such as climate change colonialism and racism sexism as well as integrating modern science Such a theology would resist the human domination of nature and the various forms of displacement occurring in modernity With Barth the author contends that a theology of creation grounded in the self revelation of God in Jesus Christ is the best place to rethink what it means to be human and to exist within the community of creation Nevertheless if we are to affirm the livingness of the world creaturely differences and a central place for land and place then critical additions to Barth are needed To accomplish this the book provides constructive reinterpretations of Barth's theological method doctrine of God creation by the Word and Spirit anthropology and reconciliation What emerges is a vision of the triune God of love as the source and ground of all that is Along the way Barth is brought into dialogue with ecotheology as well as theologians such as Wolfhart Pannenberg Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Bruce McCormack The volume will be of particular interest to theologians focused on the doctrine of creation ecotheology and Barth studies

Conversations about Divine Mystery Stephen

Burns, HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2023 Here in a fitting recognition of a life of scholarship is an esteemed collection of writing by liturgical and homiletical scholars honoring and engaging with Gail Ramshaw's work and extending it to new questions contexts and concerns The volume is organized around themes of her work lectionary patterns prayer forms and theological horizons

Settler, 2nd Edition Emma Battell Lowman, Adam J. Barker, 2025-04-17T00:00:00Z A decade ago the first edition of this defining book explained what it meant to be Settler acknowledging that Canada has been forged through ongoing violence displacement and assimilation of Indigenous communities and Nations and argued that accepting this identity is an important first step towards changing relationships with Indigenous Peoples The national conversation about settler colonialism has advanced significantly since that time thanks to Indigenous struggles that have resulted in high profile official apologies and inquiries into the devastating inequity between Indigenous and Settler lives in Canada However this progress is not enough many of the same problems persist due to the underlying inequities at the core of Canadian identity politics and society In this revised second edition Battell Lowman and Barker reflect on the term's changing more nuanced and continued importance Touching on the rise of right wing nationalism the power and limitations of social media and ten years of federal Liberal government this new edition of Settler considers the successes and failures of Settler Canadians in supporting decolonization and charting our next steps towards transformative change

Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World Valerie A. Brown, John A. Harris, David Waltner-Toews, 2019-04-29 Any effective response to an uncertain future will require independently thinking individuals working together Human ideas and actions have led to unprecedented changes in the relationships among humans and between humans and the Earth Changes in the air we breathe the water we drink and the energy we use are evidence of Nature which has no special interest in sustaining human life looking out for itself Even the evolutionary context for humans has altered Evolutionary pressures from the digital communication revolution have been added to those from natural systems For humans to meet these challenges requires social re organisation that is neither simple nor easy Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World explores workable field tested strategies from the frontiers of creating a viable future for humans on Earth Based on research results from hundreds of social learning workshops with communities worldwide many of them part of Australian National University's Local Sustainability Project authors with diverse interests explore the gap between open minded individual thinking and closed socially defined knowledges The multiple dimensions of individual social and biophysical ways of thinking are combined in ways that allow open minded individuals to learn from one another

Unsettling Spirit Denise M. Nadeau, 2020-04-02 What does it mean to be a white settler on land taken from peoples who have lived there since time immemorial In the context of reconciliation and Indigenous resurgence Unsettling Spirit provides a personal perspective on decolonization informed by Indigenous traditions and lifeways and the need to examine one's complicity with colonial structures Applying autoethnography grounded in Indigenous and feminist methodologies Denise Nadeau weaves together stories and reflections on how to live with integrity on stolen and occupied land The author chronicles her early and brief experience of Native mission in the late 1980s and early 1990s in northern Canada and Chiapas Mexico and the gradual recognition that she had internalized colonialist concepts of the good Christian and the Great White Helper Drawing on somatic psychotherapy Nadeau addresses contemporary manifestations of helping and the politics of trauma She uncovers her ancestors settler background and the responsibilities that come with facing this history Caught between two traditions born and raised Catholic but challenged by Indigenous ways of life the author traces her engagement with Indigenous values and how relationships inform her ongoing journey A foreword by Cree M tis author Deanna Reder places the work in a broader context of Indigenous scholarship Incorporating insights from Indigenous ethical and legal frameworks Unsettling Spirit offers an accessible reflection on possibilities for settler decolonization as well as for decolonizing Christian and interfaith practice Beyond the Borders of the Law Katrina Jagodinsky, Pablo Mitchell, 2018-09-19 In the American imagination the West denotes a border between civilization and wilderness past and future native and newcomer and its lawlessness is legendary In fact there was an abundance of law in the West as in all borderland regions of vying and overlapping claims jurisdictions and domains It is this legal borderland that Beyond the Borders of the Law explores Combining the concepts and insights of critical legal studies and western borderlands history this book demonstrates how profoundly the North American West has been and continues to be a site of contradictory overlapping and overreaching legal structures and practices steeped in articulations of race gender and power The authors in this volume take up topics and time periods that include Native history the US Canada and US Mexico borders regions from Texas to Alaska and Montana to California and a chronology that stretches from the mid nineteenth century to the near present From water rights to women s rights from immigrant to indigenous histories from disputes over coal deposits to child custody their essays chronicle the ways in which marginalized westerners have leveraged and resisted the law to define their own rights and legacies For the authors legal borderlands might be the legal texts that define and regulate geopolitical borders or they might be the ambiguities or contradictions creating liminal zones within the law In their essays and in the volume as a whole the concept of legal borderlands proves a remarkably useful framework for finally bringing a measure of clarity to a region characterized by lawful disorder and contradiction Partnership as Mission Kenneth Gray, Maylanne Maybee, 2023-11-10 This uniquely Canadian volume tells stories of Ellie Johnson missiologist and director of Partnerships at the Anglican Church of Canada from 1994 to 2008 More than that this book tells of God s mission and how the Anglican Church of Canada participated in that mission with our ecumenical partners Since the Anglican Congress of 1963 through the years of the ecumenical justice coalitions of the 1970s and 1980s through the drastic organizational restructuring of General Synod in the first decade of the 2000s change in the church has been continuous and relentless Ellie s skill in managing this change remains inspirational today In standing with residential school survivors identifying systemic racism seeking peace and ecojustice and contributing to global conversations about mission priorities and practices Ellie shared her experience and insight widely and effectively Through personal memories and tributes through detailed historical storytelling friends family and colleagues describe their own rich experience working with Ellie Others raise questions about the face and context of mission today recalling Ellie s favorite dictum all mission is local The collection concludes with some of Ellie s own unpublished words There is so much to appreciate about this deeply spiritual person whose legacy lives on as we draw on her legacy to find resilience and strength for today s demanding ecojustice journey
