

Glory Movie Questions

1. How does the attitude of Colonel Robert Gould Shaw toward African-Americans change and why?

Colonel Shaw's attitude toward African-Americans changes over the course of the movie. At first, he is a white supremacist who believes that African-Americans are inferior and should not be allowed to fight in the military. However, as he sees the bravery and sacrifice of the men of the 54th Massachusetts, he begins to change his mind and becomes a more progressive leader.

2. What differences exist among the black soldiers who make up the 54th Massachusetts? What does this tell you about the different experiences of blacks in 19th-century America? What about their regions of origin, former status (enslaved), and educational background?

The 54th Massachusetts is a diverse group of men. Some are from the North, some from the South, and some from the West. They have different backgrounds, including former slaves, free men, and men who were educated in the North.

3. What attitudes did white soldiers have about the 54th? Did these attitudes change and why?

At first, the white soldiers of the 54th are treated with contempt and discrimination. They are given the worst assignments and are often the target of abuse and harassment.

4. Were blacks treated equally to whites in the Union army? Explain.

No, blacks were not treated equally to whites in the Union army. They were given the worst assignments and were often the target of abuse and harassment. They were also paid less than white soldiers.

5. What is significant about Colonel Shaw's decision to refuse pay for himself?

Colonel Shaw's decision to refuse pay for himself is significant because it shows that he is willing to sacrifice for his men. It also shows that he is a leader who is not interested in money.

6. Did that incident end as you expected? What feelings?/thoughts come over you left with?

The incident ended as I expected. I was surprised that the men of the 54th were not paid for their service. I was also surprised that the white soldiers of the 54th were not punished for their actions. I was left with a sense of disappointment and anger.
