Davis, 2021-08-20 Understanding Alice Walker serves both as an introduction to the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner's large body of work and as a critical analysis of her multifaceted canon Thadious M Davis begins with Walker's biography and her formative experiences in the South and then presents ways of accessing and reading Walker's complex interconnected and sociopolitically invested career in writing fiction poetry critical essays and meditations Although best known for her novel The Color Purple and her landmark essays In Search of Our Mothers' Gardens Womanist Prose Walker began her career with Once Poems The Third Life of Grange Copeland and In Love and Trouble Stories of Black Women She has remained committed not merely to writing in multiple genres but also to conveying narratives of the hope and transformation possible within the human condition and as visualized through the lens of race and gender Davis traces Walker's literary voice as it emerges from the civil rights and feminist movements to encourage an individual and collective search for justice and joy and then evolves into forceful advocacy for world peace spiritual liberation and environmental conservancy Her writing a rich amalgamation of the cutting edge and popular the new age and difficult continues to be paradigm shifting and among the most important produced in the last half of the twentieth century and among the most consistently prophetic in the first part of the twenty first century Southscapes Thadious M. Davis, 2011 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies First in the Family Jessica Hoppe, 2024-09-10 An unflinching and intimate memoir of recovery by Jessica Hoppe Latinx writer advocate and creator of NuevaYorKa A powerful thunderclap of a memoir Lilliam Rivera author of Dealing in Dreams A MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK OF 2024 Today.com LupitaReads Electric Literature Esquire Publishers Weekly In this deeply moving and lyrical memoir Hoppe shares an intimate courageous account of what it means to truly interrupt cycles of harm For readers of The Recovering by Leslie Jamison Somebody's Daughter by Ashley C Ford and Heavy by Kiese Laymon During the first year of quarantine drug overdoses spiked the highest ever recorded And Hoppe's cousin was one of them I never learned the true history of substance use disorder in my family Hoppe writes People just disappeared At the time of her cousin's death she'd been in recovery for nearly four years but she hadn't told anyone In First in the Family Hoppe shares her journey the first in her family to do so and takes the reader on a remarkable investigation of her family's history the American Dream and the erasure of BIPOC from recovery institutions and narratives leaving the reader with an urgent message of hope Gathering Blossoms Under Fire Alice Walker, 2024-05-07 For the first time the edited journals of Alice Walker are gathered together to reflect the complex passionate talented and acclaimed Pulitzer Prize winner of The Color Purple She intimately explores her thoughts and feelings as a woman a writer an African American a wife a daughter a mother a lover a sister a friend a citizen of the world In an unvarnished and singular voice she explores an astonishing array of events marching in Mississippi with other foot soldiers of the Civil Rights Movement led by Martin Luther King Jr her marriage to a Jewish lawyer defying laws that barred interracial marriage in the 1960s South an early miscarriage writing her first novel the trials and triumphs of the Women s Movement erotic encounters and enduring relationships the ancestral visits that led her to write The Color Purple winning the Pulitzer Prize being admired and maligned sometimes in equal measure for her work and her activism and burying her mother A powerful blend of Walker s personal life with political events this revealing collection offers rare insight into a literary legend ZORA : In Search of Zora Neale Hurston

Wikipedia Presents,2014-06-23 In order to attend public school for free Hurston presented herself as 16 she was really 26 years old Later she studied anthropology and became the first African American graduate male or female from Barnard College Known for her three seminal works 1 Jonah s Gourd Vine and 2 Tell My Horse and 3 Their Eyes Were Watching God Ms Hurston was a great influence on three of the most important African American authors Maya Angelou Toni Morrison and Alice Walker The World Will Follow Joy Alice Walker,2013-04-02 A poetry collection of playful and crooning lyricism from the National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Color Purple Booklist In this dazzling new collection Alice Walker offers over sixty new poems to incite and nurture contemporary activists Hailed as a lavishly gifted writer Walker imbues her poetry with evocative images fresh language anger forgiveness and profound wisdom The New York Times Casting her eye toward history politics and nature as well as to world figures such as Jimmy Carter Gloria Steinem and the Dalai Lama she distills struggles crises and tragedies down to bright singing lessons in living with awareness and joy Booklist By attentively chronicling the conditions of human life today Walker shows as ever her deep compassion profound spirituality and necessary political commitments The poems in The World Will Follow Joy remind us of our human capacity to come together and take action even in our troubled political times Her spirituality concern for human rights and almost old fashioned determined joyousness run deep and her devoted readers will want to follow her as she turns madness into flowers Library Journal Dance Your Way Home Emma Warren,2023-03-14 This book is about the kind of ordinary dancing you and I might do in our kitchens when a favourite tune comes on It s more than a social history it s a set of interconnected histories of the overlooked places where dancing happens Why do we dance together What does dancing tell us about ourselves individually and collectively And what can it do for us Whether it be at home 80s club nights Irish dancehalls or reggae dances jungle raves or volunteer run spaces and youth centres Emma Warren has sought the answers to these questions her entire life Dancing doesn t just refract the music and culture within which it evolves it also generates new music and culture When we speak only of the music we lose part of the story the part that finds us dancing as children on the toes of adults the half that triggers communication across borders and languages the part that finds us worried that we ll never be able to dance again and the part that finds us wondering why we were ever nervous in the first place At the intersection of memoir social and cultural history Dance Your Way Home is an intimate foray onto the dancefloor wherever and whenever it may be that speaks to the heart of what it is that makes us move

Sexual Disorientations Kent L. Brintnall, Joseph A. Marchal, Stephen D. Moore, 2017-11-07 Sexual Disorientations brings some of the most recent and significant works of queer theory into conversation with the overlapping fields of biblical theological and religious studies to explore the deep theological resonances of questions about the social and cultural construction of time memory and futurity Apocalyptic eschatological and apophatic languages frameworks and orientations pervade both queer theorizing and theologizing about time affect history and desire The volume fosters a more explicit engagement between theories of queer temporality and affectivity and religious texts and discourses

Multiculturalism in Higher Education C. Spencer Platt, Adriel A. Hilton, Christopher Newman, Brandi Hinnant-Crawford, 2020-03-01 As the educational landscape of America continues to evolve and diversify college faculty and administrators must be cutting edge in their approaches to create a variety of educational experiences with a greater level of multicultural cognizance Unlike in previous generations higher education in the 21st Century is no longer a luxury reserved for the elite and wealthy but is an increasing necessity for access to labor markets Community colleges and universities are working hard to respond to the demands of the labor market by attempting to provide skills for jobs that may not yet exist Colleges and universities should aim to make all of their students feel welcome and a part of the campus being committed to celebrating differences Additionally filling faculty seats with varied races cultures perspectives and identities will aid in providing mentors and role models everyone can relate to These are some of the vital steps toward building a campus community that helps students develop a sense of belonging that allows them to persist and thrive in college The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education on college and university campuses The authors bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education This volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues ranging from the racial and ethnic diversity of the student and faculty bodies and important topics like disability issues to different educational contexts such as community colleges HBCUs and HSI institutions

Bloesch, M. Cooper

Minister, 2018-10-18 This is the first book to provide an introduction to contemporary cultural approaches to the study of religion. This book makes sophisticated ideas accessible at an introductory level and examines the analytic tools of scholars in religious studies as well as in related disciplines that have shaped the field including anthropology, history, literature, and critical studies in race, sexuality, and gender. Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and includes the biographical and historical context of each theorist, their approaches, and key writings. Analysis and evaluation of each theory suggested further reading.

Part One: Comparative Approaches considers how major features such as taboo, texts, myths, and ritual work across religious traditions by exploring the work of Mary Douglas, Phyllis Klistner, Wendy Doniger, and Catherine Bell.

Part Two: Examining Particularities analyzes the comparative approach through the work of Alice Walker, Charles Long, and Caroline Walker Bynum, who all suggest that the specifics of race, body, place, and time must be considered.

Part Three: Expanding Boundaries examines Gloria Anzaldúa's language of religion as well as the work of Judith Butler on performative, queer theories of religion and concludes with Saba Mahmood, whose work considers postcolonial religious encounters, secularism, and the relationship between East and West.

Reflecting the cultural turn and challenging the existing canon, this is the anthology instructors have been waiting for. For primary texts by the theorists discussed, please consult The Bloomsbury Reader in Cultural Approaches to the Study of Religion, edited by Sarah J. Bloesch and Meredith Minister.
