Kissing Architecture Author Sylvia Lavin Jun 2011:

Reflections on Architecture, Society and Politics Graham Cairns, 2016-10-04 Reflections on Architecture Society and Politics brings together a series of thirteen interview articles by Graham Cairns in collaboration with some of the most prominent polemic thinkers and critical practitioners from the fields of architecture and the social sciences including Noam Chomsky Peggy Deamer Robert A M Stern Daniel Libeskind and Kenneth Frampton Each chapter explores the relationship between architecture and socio political issues through discussion of architectural theories and projects citing specific issues and themes that have led to and will shape the various aspects of the current and future built environment Ranging from Chomsky's examination of the US Mexico border as the architecture of oppression to Robert A M Stern's defence of projects for the Disney corporation and George W Bush this book places politics at the center of issues within contemporary architecture

Occupation: ruin, repudiation, revolution Lynn Churchill, Dianne Smith, 2016-03-03 Bringing together an international range of contributors from the fields of practice theory and history this book takes a fresh look at occupation It argues that occupation is a prospect that begins with ruin a residue from the past an implied or even a resounding presence of something previous that holds the potential for transformation This prospect invites us to repudiate re imagine and re define lived space thereby asserting occupation as an act of revolution Authors drawn from the fields of architecture urbanism interior architecture dance dramaturgy art history design and visual arts cultural studies and media studies provide a unique holistic view of occupation examining topics such as the authority of architecture architecture as an act of revolution women in hypersexual space occupation as a serialized act of ruin and the definition of space as repudiation They discuss how acts that re invent territory and or shift boundaries psychological social and physical affect identity and demonstrate possession This theme of occupation is significant and topical at a time of radical flux generated by the proliferation of hypermedia and also by the dramatically shifting environmental political and economic context of this era The book concludes by asserting that it is through occupation private and public real virtual remembered re invented that we appear or disappear as the individual or collective self because the spaces we construct assert particular agendas which we may either contest or live in accord with

Embracing the Track of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Kissing Architecture Author Sylvia Lavin Jun 2011

In a global eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the written word often disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Kissing Architecture Author Sylvia Lavin Jun 2011 a wonderful literary treasure overflowing with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding musician of language, that captivating masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this emotional examination, we will explore the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
