Abstract: This research project focuses on the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the mental health of young adults. The study aims to explore the impact of social isolation, economic instability, and uncertainty on the psychological well-being of this demographic group. Data was collected through a series of surveys and interviews, revealing a significant increase in anxiety, depression, and stress levels among participants. The findings suggest that targeted mental health interventions and support systems are crucial for mitigating the adverse effects of the pandemic on young adults.
