Understanding Video Game Music Tim Summers,2016-09-08 Understanding Video Game Music develops a musicology of video game music by providing methods and concepts for understanding music in this medium From the practicalities of investigating the video game as a musical source to the critical perspectives on game music using examples including Final Fantasy VII Monkey Island 2 SSX Tricky and Silent Hill these explorations not only illuminate aspects of game music but also provide conceptual ideas valuable for future analysis Music is not a redundant echo of other textual levels of the game but central to the experience of interacting with video games As the author likes to describe it this book is about music for racing a rally car music for evading zombies music for dancing music for solving puzzles music for saving the Earth from aliens music for managing a city music for being a hero in short it is about music for playing Ecotourism David A.

Fennell,2014-09-08 Ecotourism continues to be embraced as the antithesis of mass tourism because of its promise of achieving sustainability through conservation mindedness community development education and learning and the promotion of nature based activities that were sensitive to both ecological and social systems The extent to which this promise has been realised is open to debate Focusing on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice the volume examines ecotourism in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world's greenest form of tourism Ecotourism is a growing field attracting increasing attention from students and academics Fennell provides an authoritative and comprehensive review of the most important issues that continue to both plague ecotourism and make it one of the most dynamic sectors in the tourism industry It covers a comprehensive range of themes and geographical regions Building on the success of prior editions Ecotourism has been revised throughout to incorporate recent research and benefits from the introduction of real life case studies and summaries of recent literature An essential reference for those interested in Ecotourism the book is accessible to students but retains the depth required for use by researchers and practitioners in the field New chapters on the theory and application of animal ethics community development in sustainable tourism and education and learning in the field have added further value to an already very comprehensive volume This book will be of interest to students across a range of disciplines including geography economics business ethics biology and environmental studies The Publishers Weekly ,1908 An

Autoethnography of Fitting In Phiona Stanley,2021-11-25 An Autoethnography of Fitting In On Spinsterhood Fatness and

Backpacker Tourism is a feminist narrative about the social rules of obedience and acquiescence to the norm embodiment heteronormativity partnering and about fitting in or not with those narratives Phiona Stanley explores a period through her twenties and thirties living and travelling alone foreign to herself and the countries of her travel in all regards white cisgender sometimes thin sometimes fat sometimes partnered This fascinating volume uses these lived experiences depicted through first person narrative storytelling as a prism through which to understand the subtle social rules of gendered normative expectations It draws on contemporary journals letters and photos and features process oriented sections that focus on the methodological possibilities these offer and on questions of verisimilitude and subjectivity Set in the context of transnational work in Qatar China and elsewhere and road status as negotiated and performed among long term backpacker tourists this book serves as an exemplar of how autoethnography can illuminate socio cultural normativities and their effects which are rarely explicit but which nevertheless have great potential to harm while problematizing and rethinking the meanings and semantic boundaries of weight queerness and hetero normativity Framed through reflexive autoethnography with a strong focus on ethics and feminist theories this book will appeal to students and researchers in autoethnography qualitative methods and gender and women s studies Event Portfolio Planning and Management Vassilios

Ziakas,2013-10-23 Cities and regions around the world increasingly capitalize on a series of events aimed at optimizing their reach and outcomes How then can a series of different events be developed and harnessed What are the conditions and the means by which synergies and collaboration among different events and their stakeholders can be fostered This book for the first time explores how managers and host communities can synergize sport cultural and other planned events in a portfolio in order to attain magnify and sustain their outcomes The incorporation of different events into a portfolio requires an integrative way of viewing the different community purposes that they serve in unison This book elaborates on this holistic approach by developing an integrative theoretical framework for conceptualizing event portfolios and examining their challenges and prospects as well as potential as tools for sustainable development It therefore presents the foundations of event portfolio planning the patterns of inter organizational relationships within collaborative events networks that foster the conditions for community capacity building and the requirements for the design and development of event portfolios Topics are considered from varying perspectives and examples of emerging event portfolios from a range of geographical regions are integrated throughout Uniquely providing a holistic framework for planning and managing a series of events this is essential reading for all those interested in Events Policy Planning and Management Psychology in Organizations S

Alexander Haslam,2004-04-18 Alex Haslam has thoroughly revised and updated his ground breaking original text with this new edition While still retaining the highly readable and engaging style of the best selling first edition he presents extensive reviews and critiques of major topics in organizational psychology including leadership motivation communication decision making negotiation power productivity and collective action but with much more besides Key features of this 2nd Edition An entirely new chapter on organizational stress which deals with highly topical issues of stress appraisal social support coping and burnout New wider textbook format and design making the entire book much more accessible for students Wide range of pedagogical features included suggestions for further reading included at the end of each chapter comprehensive glossaries of social identity social psychological and organizational terms

Comparative Reasoning in European Supreme

Courts Michal Bobek, 2013-08-08 The last two decades have witnessed an exponential growth in debates on the use of foreign law by courts Different labels have been attached to the same phenomenon judges drawing inspiration from outside of their national legal systems for solving purely domestic disputes By doing so the judges are said to engage in cross border judicial dialogues They are creating a larger transnational community of judges This book puts similar claims to test in relation to highest national jurisdictions supreme and constitutional courts in Europe today How often and why do judges choose to draw inspiration from foreign materials in solving domestic cases The book addresses these questions from both an empirical and a theoretical angle Empirically the genuine use of comparative arguments by national highest courts in five European jurisdictions is examined England and Wales France Germany the Czech Republic and Slovakia On the basis of comparative discussion of the practice and its national theoretical underpinning in these and partially also in other European systems an overreaching theoretical framework for the current judicial use of comparative arguments is developed Drawing on the author's own past judicial experience in a national supreme court this book is a critical account of judicial engagement with foreign authority in Europe today The sober middle ground inductively conceptualized and presented in this book provides solid jurisprudential foundations for the ongoing use of comparative arguments by courts as well as its further scholarly discussion

Infinite Creator Drive K J Gordon, 2015-06-01 Infinite Creator Drive Is way beyond a great read It's an epic journey The Story makes for an awesome travelling companion for those surfers and holiday makers requiring a great adventure of the mind and spirit K J Gordon has taken the beauty of Australia the World and the Universe and presented not only a great read it propels a world embracing free energy And yes there are consequences of Biblical proportions The story has several plots some shallow and funny some deep and thought provoking Infinite Creator Drive is an interesting space journey of discovery As well as being thoroughly entertaining L Haydn Gully June 2015 REVIEW Infinite Creator Drive is a revealing romp through space There is an abundance of plausible technology and future incite from the author K J GORDON And there are aspects which really make the reader stop and think The concept dealing with superior alien life is very original and shows a depth in marine science and biochemistry which must remain un discussed as not to spoil the surprise and or shock The addition of DNA characters of legend add authentic aspects to the life discussion as it flows through the entire story line And indeed not without a twist in the tail The story of Infinite Creator Drive has a depth of unusual twists and is not so much pitched as sprayed across the imagination The reader needs to take stock of relative time as the journey hurtles through existing science on its way to find a new humanity One needs the seatbelts well tightened for this journey as well as safety gear for the powerful riding of surfing waves in Oz and on an amazing planet called Endev The future tech of DNA manufacture rolling through the subplots is rather compelling as we are just discovering these future concepts for real And one wonders at the authors incite Here is a new science of science fiction written in the non publishable genre of Aussie Fly Boys meet the most famous man on the planet Science Fiction The mind boggles at the ploy It will never work The fly boys being surfer bums with attitude while the most famous man of his time is an aboriginal man from Alice Springs He invents anti gravity And yes the love interest would be worth meeting for real as her unordinary charm captivates in unusual ways Lastly there lies an interesting undercurrent of mental instability and aspergers twinkling lightly through the sub plots as well The chapter on emotional balance as aspects of understanding Karma will stay with the reader long after they have shed a tear as the end draws near Pyramid meditation will be required Infinite Creator Drive is ironically well ahead of its time past present and future And the concept of who or what the Infinite Creator Drive is will check the reader s thought processors And very lastly the imagery will test the horizons of those prepared to take a journey that pumps the heart in its pace and yet brings a tear in emotive depth Definitely too long for a movie but what a ride that would

Handbook of Intellectual Property Research Irene Calboli, Maria Lillà Montagnani, 2021 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the methods and approaches that could be used as guidelines to address and develop scholarly research questions related to intellectual property law bringing together contributions from a diverse group of scholars who derive from a wide range of countries backgrounds and legal traditions Re-Centering Women in Tourism Frances Julia Riemer, 2023-05-08 Re Centering Women in Tourism Anti Colonial Feminist Studies addresses tourism as simultaneously empowering women and reproducing colonial hierarchies This volume contributes to conversations on the engagement of women in tourism by centering women s multivalent lived experiences as hosts liaisons vendors performers producers and consumers in tourism projects Examining eco tourism craft production and food tourism initiatives the contributors embrace the building of new knowledge and advocate for change By centering women and their experiences through epistemological lenses that encompass colonial histories and economics this collection reframes the very presuppositions on which tourism initiatives are based and helps imagine sustainable and regenerative alternatives For more information check out A Conversation with Frances Julia Riemer Editor of Re Centering Women in Tourism Anti Colonial Feminist Studies Educational Implications of Artistic Practice Luis S. Villacañas-de-Castro, Miguel Corella-Lacasa, 2025-09-26 This collection draws on a range of frameworks from the fields of aesthetics philosophy and political theory to discuss how art has been characterized across the humanities It derives consequences for educational institutions pedagogy and teachers of specific curricular areas The book addresses issues such as how art has been defined what its affordances are for educators whether artistic practice is an intrinsically educational process whether museums and galleries are educational institutions and conversely whether schools may also qualify as artistic laboratories Through these and more questions the book approaches the education art nexus from both sides of the relationship with chapters that either look at education through art or at art through education The contributors belong to education aesthetic and arts university departments and report on a variety of interdisciplinary research projects As a result the volume provides both theoretical insights into the distinct means and purposes of art and lively illustrations of the affordances that art holds for educators in different institutions and contexts Although rooted for the most part in the Spanish speaking world the volume embraces a glocal perspective whereby contemporary tendencies and discussions are embodied and transmitted through rich and textured qualitative case studies Your Garden and Home, 1927 Includes preliminary number dated Apr 1927 Reprogrammable Rhetoric Michael J. Faris, Steve Holmes, 2022-09-01 Reprogrammable Rhetoric offers new inroads for rhetoric and composition scholars past and present engagements with critical making Moving beyond arguments of inclusion and justifications for scholarly legitimacy and past historicizations of the material turn in the field this volume explores what these practices look like with both a theoretical and hands on how to approach Chapters function not only as critical illustrations or arguments for the use of reprogrammable circuits but also as pedagogical instructions that enable readers to easily use or modify these compositions for their own ends This collection offers nuanced theoretical perspectives on material and cultural rhetorics alongside practical tutorials for students researchers and teachers to explore critical making across traditional areas such as wearable sensors Arduinos Twitter bots multimodal pedagogy Raspberry Pis and paper circuitry as well as underexplored areas like play gaming text mining bots and electronic monuments Designed to be taught in upper division undergraduate and graduate classrooms these tutorials will benefit non expert and expert critical makers alike All contributed codes and scripts are also available on Utah State University Press's companion website to encourage downloading cloning and repurposing Contributors Aaron Beveridge Kendall Gerdes Kellie Gray Matthew Halm Steven Hammer Cana Uluak Itchuaqiyag John Jones

M Bawar Khan Bree McGregor Sean Morey Ryan Omizo Andrew Pilsch David Rieder David Sheridan Wendi Sierra Nicholas Van Horn Gospel and History K. J. Popma, 2021-10-31 Gospel and History picks up where Scriptural Reflections on History left off but with the added benefit of some 30 years experience of life in church and society between them indeed the entire post war period of the recovering 1950s and the revolutionary 1960s A lot of water had gone under the bridge and this was also true of Reformational philosophy Theology in many respects was turning liberal and Popma spends a great deal of time refuting the rationale behind that turn the supposed need to keep up with the times to keep in step with modern man For its part true historical understanding must take the Biblical narrative into account and more than that it must take it seriously For example We by virtue of our very humanity are required to make the personal acquaintance of the first human pair inexperienced and innocent as they were That is a difficult assignment but it is not impossible so long as we are prepared to enter a relationship that makes us as it were contemporaries of Adam and Eve Modern man so called Is he really that modern Or is that modernity a mere excuse to back out of his simple human task modern man cannot accept this that is to say he refuses to accept this That has been the case throughout the ages It s not at all modern p 167 It is exceedingly foolish to aver that this as such mythical modern man cannot accept the ascension of Christ The unanswered and for now unanswerable questions relative to Christ s ascension into heaven existed already for the apostles who had witnessed the ascension with their own eyes Our historicity does not differ all that much from that of people who lived two thousand years ago Babbling about modern man can call up pseudo problems whereby the real difficulties are hidden from view p 186 Modern man is supposed to have discovered with the cultural means of modern times that viewed from a modern perspective demons do not exist although they did exist for the apostles because their cultural pattern left lots of room for the existence of demons cosmic powers spiritual forces of evil A historicism of this kind brings with it the need for a general revision and invalidation of the biblical message p 187 In opposition to this a Scriptural gospel oriented view of history must take these data into account as hard facts the title of another of Popma s scriptural explorations and when that is done we arrive at a new vision of history one which stretches back even before the material creation to that of angels and demons and takes the entirety of history into account from that point onward precisely as salvation history The action of God in history is a series of judgments which seem ineffectual but which in actuality bring forth a new world revealed at the Last Judgment And history extends onward into the future beyond that final judgment For there is no real end to history except for those cast into outer darkness who as such are no longer allowed to participate in it History was already there when God through the Mother Promise declared history to be salvation history history will still be there when salvation will have been accomplished after Judgment Day and the resurrection of the flesh history will continue one might even say then history starts in earnest in the second and last Paradise which will far eclipse the first in glory The cultural mandate will go on its field of activity will be immense p 83 All in all the meaning of history consists in this that God wants to unite all things in Christ things in heaven and things on earth p 98 In Popma s hands history becomes a far greater thing than we can even imagine and rightly so
