Knowing And Serving Diverse Families 3rd Edition:

Knowing and Serving Diverse Families Verna Hildebrand, 1996 Knowing and Serving Diverse Families provides relevant content discussion issues and strategies needed by teachers and others in the field of human services to understand and work with today's diverse families. Several chapters in this book provide insights into working with culturally and ethnically diverse families such as African American, Hispanic American, Asian American, Arab American, Native American, and others. Other chapters are instrumental in informing professionals about diverse family structures including single teenage parents, divorced single parent families, stepfamilies, families with special needs, and gay and lesbian families. BOOK JACKET

Family Life Education With Diverse Populations Sharon M. Ballard, Alan C. Taylor, 2011-12-05 Family and human service professionals in a variety of disciplines engage in family life education which is designed to strengthen, enrich, and empower families. This includes many content areas such as couple and parent-child relationships, balancing work and family, parenting, financial literacy, interpersonal communication, and sexuality. The authors bridge the gap between research and practice by examining and presenting key strategies for working with diverse populations including those based on race and ethnicity, family structure, geographic location, and context. By defining eleven diverse groups and presenting their strengths and unique cultural characteristics, the authors present an evidence-based practice approach with each chapter prescribing the best practices for working with these diverse groups in regard to general FLE needs, educator characteristics, ethical considerations, marketing, and recruitment modes of learning and environmental considerations. This book is essential for students who are preparing to work with families as well as professionals engaging in FLE activities with diverse populations.

Roots and Wings Stacey York, 2016-06-27 Use the updated activities, examples, and research to improve your anti-bias and multicultural education programs. This clear and practical guide includes expanded information on English language learners, family engagement, culturally responsive teaching, and staff training. Stacey York teaches child development at Rochester Community and Technical College and established E-LECT, a collaborative effort between thirteen Minnesota community and technical colleges to provide e-learning for early childhood teachers. Happy Marriages and Strong Families Kelley Brigman, Purple's Edge Media, 2012 A simple, easy-to-read discussion by a social scientist about how core religious elements such as faith and hope, love and grace, parenthood of God, and forgiveness and reconciliation can help people create happy marriages and strong families. This book inspires hope that people can create successful marriages and shows them how to do it. It contains many stories, simple illustrations, and activities. Useful for preparing for marriage, marital growth, or solving marital problems. It can help people make the small changes that can make a big difference in marital success. Family Life Education Carol A. Darling, Dawn Cassidy, Sharon M. Ballard, 2022-06-29 Contemporary family life educators operate within a wide range of settings and with increasingly varied populations and families. In the fourth edition of Family Life Education, Carol Darling and Dawn Cassidy are pleased to have Sharon Ballard join in the process of exposing
