Experiencing the Gospel of Mark Ken

Brantingham,2020-12-26 People all over the world ask the same fundamental questions of life Who am I Where did I come from Where am I going Is this all there is People ask questions about identity purpose meaning love and life Jesus answered these fundamental questions but often his answers are lost in religious or academic doublespeak Many Bible studies present academic facts and theological explanations that never address the fundamental questions of life This study gives you the deepest understanding of the life of Jesus while remaining relevant to your life and beliefs This Bible study is different in another way This study puts you in the first century walking the dusty roads with Jesus You don t just read explanations you experience the texts You will sit in a boat on a stormy sea shoulder to shoulder with the disciples and watch what they do hear what they say and see their reactions You will stand in a darkened room and watch Jesus raise a little girl from the dead and see the reactions of her parents and the disciples Once you read this book you will never see Jesus the disciples the religious leaders or religion the same way This book puts you in the first century to experience walking with Jesus and discovering the answers to these fundamental questions of life
