Jesus One Man Two Faiths A Dialogue Between Christians And Muslims:

Jesus Ron Messier, 2010-10-01 In his search for channels of dialogue between Christians and Muslims as we move further into the 21st century the author finds that Jesus can be such a channel Jesus One Man Two Faiths explores a wide range of views within each faith that can be supported by what each faith considers to be its revealed scriptures and traditions It explores Jesus birth his life and perfect servant and as suffering servant his miracles the events of Good Friday and Easter the Ascension to heaven and Jesus coming again at the end of time One discovers not only similarities some of which are quite surprising but also differences that are more often complementary than contradictory inviting believers in each faith to reflect on their own images of Jesus and perhaps expand those images in light of what the other has to offer

Guidelines for Dialogue Between Christians and Muslims Maurice Borrmans, 1990 Provides a basic knowledge of Islamic beliefs and practices so that Christians may be better prepared to engage in dialogue with Muslims

Christology in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Rev Fr Dr Robert Afayori, 2021-02-11 Understanding the religious beliefs and practices of the other raises hermeneutic questions on the extent to which the dialogical call to openness is related to commitment the meaning of religious identity and whether openness to the beliefs of the other poses a threat to one's religious identity If interreligious learning demands that the interlocutors unite their attitude of commitment and openness how does this occur without the loss of alterity This book addresses these questions within the context of Christian Muslim dialogue on Christology as an exercise in learning a new form of dialogue which leads Christians and Muslims to the discovery of common values such as prayer and submission to God peace and peaceful co existence and solidarity with the poor and marginalised Was Jesus a Muslim? Robert F. Shedinger, An intriguing question Do Muslims understand Jesus in some ways more historically appropriate than Christians do leads Robert F Shedinger into a series of provocative challenges to the disciplines of religious studies and comparative religions Questioning the convenient distinction between politics and religion and the isolation of religion from wider social and cultural questions Shedinger offers a proposal for a more accurate and respectful understanding of faith that he argues will improve possibilities for mutual understanding among Christians Muslims and others Christian-Muslim Dialogue Heidi Hirvonen, 2012-11-09 This book examines how Christian Muslim dialogue is envisioned by four present day Lebanese thinkers Great Ayatollah Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah Doctor Mahmoud Ayoub Metropolitan Georges Khodr and Doctor Father Mouchir Basile Aoun My Way Mona Siddiqui, 2014-11-12 Polarized debates about Islam and the West are now so ubiquitous that it is easy to forget how damaging they can be The vast majority of Muslims do not wish to see Islam used as a divisive force within the largely secular societies in which they live How then can Muslim stereotyping be challenged Mona Siddiqui is one of the foremost Western authorities on the reconciliation of 21st century life and Islamic custom In this new and searching book she applies a uniquely probing intelligence to crucial issues of faith and identity such as wearing the veil within society at large While speaking from within a particular tradition she touches on matters of universal concern Who are we How do we cope with growing older What kind of world will we leave to our children Placing her rich personal journey in a wider context the author is able to explore love and sex multiculturalism and diversity and ageing and death through the prism of her experience as both a Muslim and a modern woman Her book shows why she is one of the most vital thinkers of our age Christian responses to Islam Anthony O'Mahony, Emma Loosley, 2024-06-04 In the aftermath of 9 11 there has been much talk of a need to engage on a meaningful level with Islam but where do we begin and what is the right approach This book available in paperback for the first time looks at case studies from around the world in order to explore how Christian groups sometimes as minorities and sometimes as the majority engage with their Muslim neighbours in the search for a peaceful society Some of the initiatives are politically motivated others run by Church authorities and a number are community based but all offer different approaches to a variety of situations that are encountered in Christian Islamic dialogue This is the first time that global strategies for dialogue have been published in one book by a series of leading academics Whilst previous publications have concentrated on a particular geographical area usually the Middle East or Europe this book casts a wider net and considers issues such as the rise of radical Islam in post Soviet states Indonesian immigration in Australia and the spread of Islam amongst the Black South

Africans after the fall of apartheid Scholars and all those interested in politics current affairs religion or peace studies will find this book essential reading as a guidebook to the state of contemporary Christian Islamic relations Who or What is God? John Hick,2009-08-01 In Who or What is God John Hick reflects on questions of the nature and the accessibility of God in the context of Christianity and other faith traditions The essays in this book cover a wide range of issues centered on the search for truth justice and peace This search concerns the ultimate reality to which the world s great religions point involving discussion of religious experience religious language the relations between religions death and Christian belief The book does not focus on theology of religions or religious pluralism for which Hick is so well known but on different nevertheless related areas as the nature and accessibility of God God s relevance for the meaning of life and eschatology the reconstruction of Christian theology under contemporary conditions and finally the need to combine spirituality with the search for social justice Muslim Perceptions of Other Religions Jacques Waardenburg,1999-08-19 Since its inception Islam and its civilization have been in continuous relationships with other religions cultures and civilizations including not only different forms of Christianity and Judaism inside and outside the Middle East Zoroastrianism and Manicheism Hinduism and even Buddhism but also tribal religions in West and East Africa in South Russia and in Central Asia including Tibet The essays collected here examine the many texts that have come down to us about these cultures and their religions from Muslim theologians and jurists travelers and historians and men of letters and of culture Christianity and Islam John J. Johnson,2020-09-29 This volume serves to refute the popularly held belief that Christians and Muslims worship the same God showing that Christianity and Islam radically disagree on the nature and attributes of God It also argues that they present Jesus in contradictory terms regarding his divinity and the historicity of the crucifixion Additionally the two religions have fundamentally different understandings of human nature sin and scripture In honestly pointing out the reasons why these great religions cannot be reconciled this book will appeal to theologians as well as educated Christian and Muslim laypersons

Christianity John Chathanatt,2024-01-08 Published in the Series Encyclopedia of Indian Religions this volume is devoted to Christianity in India where it has had a long presence going back to the time of the apostles of Jesus Christ It focuses on the history origin organizations and local engagements belief system worship practices Rites Rituals Christian life Contributions Spirituality and a few of the main doctrinal and theological items It further examines the earlier phase of the history of Christianity starting with the traditional belief of the arrival of St Thomas in AD 52 moving to the periods of its association with the Chaldean church the Portuguese the Dutch English and so on This volume highlights the missionary activities of persons like St Francis Xavier the creative contributions made to the inter religious dialogue by such people as Roberto de Nobili 1577 1656 and Swami Abhishiktananda 1910 1973 the linguistic and educational contributions of some of the pioneers like the German Jesuit Johanne Ernst Hanxleden known as Arnos Padiri 1681 1732 Herman Gundert 1814 1893 St Elias Kuriakos Chavara 1805 1871 and a fortiori the enormous contributions in the healthcare area throughout the country

Caring for and serving the socio economically marginalized ones the peripheralized people formed an integral part of the Christian activity In India as it is done even today This is highlighted very much in the volume It further explores the contact India had with European Christianity showing that European Christianity proved to have wider influence in the Northern part of India unlike India s early episodic encounters with Palestinian and Persian forms of Christianity which had deep influence in the Southern part of India The volume also highlights the inner struggle among the followers resulting even in its division originating at the Synod of Diamper in 1599 manifesting by and large the Church state love and hate relationships In fine in spite of the drawbacks of putting the herculean task of two thousand years of history in eight hundred pages or so this volume gives a rather comprehensive view of Christianity in India especially to those who are unfamiliar with its life and dynamics in the Indian context The wide range of photographs 325 of them especially of the churches revealing the architectural beauty and multiplicity along with the ensample of art and paintings and pilgrimage centers adds to the enrichment of the volume

The Idea of Tradition in the Late Modern World Thomas Albert Howard, 2020-02-10 Our late modern era is marked by the rapidity of change waxing pluralism focus on the future not the past the elevation of personal choice over communal obligation and for some a sense of spiritual and intellectual disorientation that can lead to resentment fear nostalgia and or a disordered desire for absolute certainty and rigid authority How can religious traditions be maintained and even thrive in such an environment How do they negotiate the fluidity of it all and transmit their beliefs and practices to future generations What should be the role of academic authorities vis vis religious authorities in this process Finally what can different religious traditions learn from one another on the general topic of tradition This volume invites readers to participate in a candid ecumenical and interreligious conversation involving Christian Jewish and Muslim voices The editor and contributors alike contend that the Abrahamic faiths while having honest differences face common challenges from contemporary culture which often fosters incomprehension about the depth breadth and intellectual rigor of religious traditions At the same time traditions can become disengaged and moribund without attending to them with careful reflection discernment and conversation with others who hold different points of view With contributions from David Novak James L Heft S M David Bentley Hart Ebrahim Moosa Sarah Hinlicky Wilson

Joyful Witness in the Muslim World (Mission in Global Community) Evelyne A. Reisacher, 2016-09-20 This up to date textbook features global perspectives on current Christian engagement with Islam equipping readers for mission among Muslims Evelyne Reisacher who has worked extensively with Muslims in Europe helps readers move from fear to joy as they share the gospel with Muslims Reisacher surveys areas where Muslims and Christians encounter one another in the twenty first century highlighting innovative models of Christian witness in everyday life Drawing on insights from global Christianity this survey takes account of diverse conceptions of Muslim Christian relations The book may surprise those who believe mission among Muslims is nearly impossible This is the first book in the Mission in Global Community series which reframes missiological themes and studies for students around the common theme of mission as partnership with others Series authors draw upon their own global experience and that of their global colleagues to illumine present realities and chart a course into the future Series editors are Scott W Sunquist and Amos Yong Managing Religion: The Management of Christian Religious and Faith-Based Organizations Malcolm Torry, 2014-09-09 This two volume work explores the management of religious and faith based organizations Each chapter offers a discussion of the earliest Christian organizations based on New Testament evidence a study of managing faith based organizations and an exploration of secular management theory in relation to the management of faith based organizations Pope Francis Paul Vallely, 2015-08-18 For the past two years Pope Francis has enchanted and bewildered the world in equal measure with his compassion and his contradictions Expanding greatly on his acclaimed earlier book Pope Francis Untying the Knots Paul Vallely reexamines the complex past of Jorge Mario Bertoglio and adds nine new chapters revealing many untold behind the scenes stories from his first years in office that explain this Pope of paradoxes Vallely lays bare the intrigue and in fighting surrounding Francis s attempt to cleanse the scandal ridden Vatican Bank He unveils the ambition and arrogance of top bureaucrats resisting the Pope s reform of the Roman Curia as well as the hidden opposition at the highest levels that is preventing the Church from tackling the sex abuse crisis He explains the ambivalence of Pope Francis towards the role of women in the Church which has frustrated American Catholic women in particular And Vallely charts the battle lines that are being drawn between Francis and conservatives and traditionalists talking of schism in this struggle for the soul of the Catholic Church Consistently Francis has show a willingness to discuss issues previously considered taboo such as the ban on those who divorce and remarry receiving Communion his liberal instincts outraging traditionalists in the Vatican and especially in the Church hierarchy in the United States At the same time many of his statements have reassured conservative elements that he is not in fact as radical as he might appear Behind the icon of simplicity that Pope Francis projects is a steely and sophisticated politician who has learned from the many mistakes of his past The Pope with the winning smile was previously a bitterly divisive figure In his decade as leader of Argentina s Jesuits left that religious order deeply split His behavior during Argentina s Dirty War when military death squads snatched innocent people from the streets raised serious questions Yet after a period of exile and what he has revealed as a time of great interior crisis he underwent an extraordinary transformation on which Vallely sheds new and fascinating light The man who had been a strict conservative authoritarian was radically converted into a listening participative leader who became Bishop of the Slums making enemies among Argentina s political classes in the process Charting Francis s remarkable journey to the Vatican and his first years at work there Paul Vallely has produced a deeply nuanced and insightful portrait of perhaps the most influential person in the world today Pope Francis he writes has not just demonstrated a different way of being a pope He has shown the world a different way of being a Catholic Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I. Smith, 2007-10-11 Christian Muslim dialogue going on in America for many decades has become more intentional and serious since the events of September 11 2001 This volume looks at the history of encounter between the two religions the types of dialogue that are taking place both locally and nationally and the hope that conversation brings for better interfaith understanding No book has been written on this topic before The book combines the history of Christian Muslim relations the rise of Islam in America with an emphasis on groups and individuals who have participated in dialogue and different kinds of dialogue Muslim, Christian, Jew Arthur G. Gish, 2012-06-01 A major challenge for people of faith is to resist the growing demonization of Islam Christianity and Judaism I want to do something to build bridges between the three religions I feel called to embody in my own life the healing the reconciliation the unity I long for between people of different religions Art Gish became involved in the life and worship of all three religions he considered himself a Christian a Muslim and a Jew and worked at integrating those three perspectives into his life Acknowledging that Judaism Islam and Christianity are all threatened by narrow minded violent extremists who put the particular interests of their own people above our common interests he tells inspiring stories of open minded Muslims Jews and Christians who struggle together for reconciliation and who confront injustices that spawn hostility Gish looks not only at the disagreements but also at the unity of the three Abrahamic faiths He writes When people cross boundaries exciting things happen Each time in Israel Palestine that I experience Jews Muslims and Christians eating working laughing and crying together I sense a foretaste of the coming kingdom of God a demonstration of how things could be and one day will be Saving Sinners, even Moslems Jerzy Zdanowski, 2018-10-09 This book investigates the Mission of the Reformed Church in America sent to Arabia in 1889 to preach the Gospel and which operated in the Persian Gulf until 1973 It also explores the various cultural encounters between missionaries and Muslims and discusses conversion and the place of Islam in the Protestant eschatology It maintains that John G Lansing from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary New Jersey who founded the Arabian Mission deliberately dedicated the Mission to direct Muslim evangelism In terms of premillennialism Lansing moved Islam into the very centre of the theological discourse and presented the evangelization of Muslims as critical for Christ's Second Coming This made the Arabian Mission unique among the American Protestant Missions and placed the Church and missionaries between religious pluralism and the obligations of the Great Commission One God and Two Religions Amir Hussain, 2025-02-25 Islam is a religion of violence and behind every Muslim there lurks a potential terrorist Islam is a threat to values of the Christian West They are like oil and water Clearly they don't mix One God and Two Religions confronts these popular perceptions head on With keen insight and gentle understanding Amir Hussain explores the differences between Christianity and Islam as well as the many things these two enduring faith traditions hold in common including first and foremost their belief in and desire to be faithful to the one true God their shared roots and scripture from the Jewish faith and the spiritual values of peace and social justice Written for Christians by Muslim world religions scholar the book is divided into two parts Part 1 provides an overview of the Islamic faith and of the lives of Muslims in North America today Chapters focus on the place and identity of

Muslims in society as well as on the importance and role of Muhammad the Qur'an and basic beliefs and practices The Five Pillars of Islam Part 2 explores key points for dialogue including issues of violence and jihad the roles of women and men and the mystical tradition within Islam The final two chapters look at interfaith dialogue and the practical aspects of being good neighbors In all of this the book invites the reader to a place of reconciliation to a place where the truth and value of each of these great faith traditions can be recognized and honored by the other In the end the metaphor of oil and water is an interesting one for the reality of conflict and the hope for reconciliation between Islam and Christianity today
