People Management ,2003 Transforming Cities Nick Jewson,Susanne MacGregor,2005-06-28 This collection examines the profound transformations that have characterised cities of the advanced capitalist societies in the final decades of the 20th century It analyses ways in which relationships of contest conflict and cooperation are realised in and through the social and spatial forms of contemporary urban life In particular the essays focus on the impact of economic restructuring and changing forms of urban governance on patterns of urban deprivation and social exclusion These processes they contend are creating new patterns of social division and new forms of regulation and control Rational Choice Theory Margaret S. Archer,Jonathan Q. Tritter,2013-04-03 Rational Choice Theory is flourishing in sociology and is increasingly influential in other disciplines Contributors to this volume are convinced that it provides an inadequate conceptualization of all aspects of decision making of the individuals who make the decisions of the process by which decisions get made and of the context within which decisions get made The critique focuses on the four assumptions which are the bedrock of rational choice rationality the theory s definition of rationality is incomplete and cannot satisfactorily incorporate norms and emotions individualism rational choice is based upon atomistic individual decision makers and cannot account for decisions made by couples groups or other forms of collective action process the assumption of fixed well ordered preferences and perfect information makes the theory inadequate for situations of change and uncertainty aggregation as methodological individualists rational choice theorists can only view structure and culture as aggregates and cannot incorporate structural or cultural influences as emergent properties which have an effect upon decision making The critique is grounded in discussion of a wide range of social issues including race marriage health and education Book of Prospectuses ,1903
