of a good story Joe Middleton's story is this He doesn't remember killing anyone so there's no way a jury can convict him of serial murder He calls himself Joe Victim trying as he awaits trial to convince the psychiatrists that he wasn't in control of his actions trusting that the system will save him in the end But others know Joe as the infamous Christchurch Carver and they want to see him dead There's Melissa Joe's accomplice in one of the murders who plans on shooting him on his way to the courthouse before he gets a chance to start talking Then there's Raphael whose daughter was one of the Carver's victims Though he's tried to move on with life as the leader of a counseling group for grieving family members he'd like nothing more than to watch Joe pay Finally there's Carl Schroder the ex-detective who locked Joe up and is determined to put things right for the case of his career To extract himself from this epic mess Joe has come up with a desperate plan involving a television psychic who's looking to get rich by making people believe just about anything It's a long shot but it had better work before he becomes the poster boy for a death penalty that may be reinstated in New Zealand which isn't quite the dramatic ending he is hoping for
